Market Quotations

NEW YORK, Aug. 7 (AP)—The stock market rallied selectively today, but without a great deal of vigor, after forenoon trends had displayed irregularly higher tendencies. Bonds were narrow. The counterback got under way near the end of the fourth hour with assorted steels, motors, liquors, rails, utilities and special industrial leading. Gains of fractions to two or more points were well distributed all the close with a few notable "thin" issues showing wider upswings.
