Snapp Outlasts Bill McKinnon

By HALE SCARBROUGH

Both boys absorbed a terrific amount of punishment in the armory ring last night before Merrill's Ursal Snapp was awarded a four-round TKO over Marine Bill McKinnon. It was the roughest test for Snapp since he came out of the service and the best fight for the local ring this summer.

The first two rounds were stand and slug stanzas with Snapp getting his points in the in-fighting. Late in the second Snapp came off the ropes to rush the marine, to the deck for a three-count at the bell.

The third canto went to McKinnon. His bruising right hand opened a nasty gash over Snapp's left eye and he poked at the orb several more times before the round was over. Snapp came out to win in the fourth and hit McKinnon with everything he had until the marine went down to rest while Referee Wally Moss counted nine. A moment later he was down again for seven and when he got to his feet Snapp came across from the neutral corner to slam a right hand into McKinnon's face again.

That time Moss stopped the fight although McKinnon was still willing to get up and fight. The boys were alike in size enough to be twins and both took everything the other could dish out.

Three In Row

In the semiwindup Teddy Roosevelt fought his third bout with Johnny Ruff and came out on top with a third-round TKO to add to a pair of previous decisions. Roosevelt carried the fight to Johnny all the way through and at the end of the third frame Ruff's seconds decided he'd had enough.

Gene Darko won an unpopular slit decision in the top four-rounder over Jack Miller after Miller had staged a rally in the third and fourth rounds. The Klamath boy had a way of ducking under Darko's best left hooks and avoiding damage and connected with the hardest smash of the fight, a jarring left to Darko's head at the end of the third.

The opening bout between Jim Williams of Bonanza and Jack Barkley of Chiloquin, middleweights, went four rounds to a wild-swinging draw.

Chief Hatcher gained a split decision over Herbie Snell in their active featherweight scrap. The first canto was an even heat and Hatcher took the next two by keeping Snell on the defensive and covering up from a clubbing right. Snell came back stronger to gain the last-round points.

Second Round KO

Monte Montgomery, fighting from a crouch and straightening up to plant a stiff left to the face and follow with a right body hook, knocked out Don Reynolds in their second round.

Montgomery had Reynolds against the ropes at the end, slashed him once in the ribs with a right that brought a look of surprise to Don's face, then followed up with another that collapsed him. Reynolds claimed a foul, that the blow was low, but Referee Moss hadn't seen anything low so wouldn't change his decision. Dr. George Adler, ring physician, examined Reynolds and did not allow the claim.

Utah Boxing Rules Slack

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 14 (AP)—An investigation into the death of Boxer Del Hardy Zesiger, who died following a ring knockout, today brought forth two recommendations designed to regulate the sport in Utah.

The report of a three man committee, appointed by Mayor Earl J. Glade after Zesiger died last Tuesday after being knocked out the night before by Remo Polidori of Tooele, Utah, said "the fight promoters violated" a city ordinance calling for medical inspection of boxers before entering the ring, but absolved them of responsibility for Zesiger's death.

The recommendations called for the designation by the city commission of "some department of the city government to administer the provisions of "the ordinance and creation of a boxing commission "to enforce uniform regulations of boxing throughout the state."

Portland Nine In Legion Final

GREAT FALLS, Mont., Aug. 14 (AP) — Portland, Ore., meets Los Angeles tonight in the finals of the American Legion regional baseball tournament as the city of roses sluggers took a championship ticket in defeating Bellingham, Wash., 9-7.

The Oregonians had no easy time of it in polishing off the Bellingham boys, and in the final stanza of the contest were forced to re-use Ken Jensen, star chucker, to stage off a rally.

Portland had Bellingham down, 9-2, until the ninth when the Washington club belted two pitchers out of the box in staging a five-run rally.

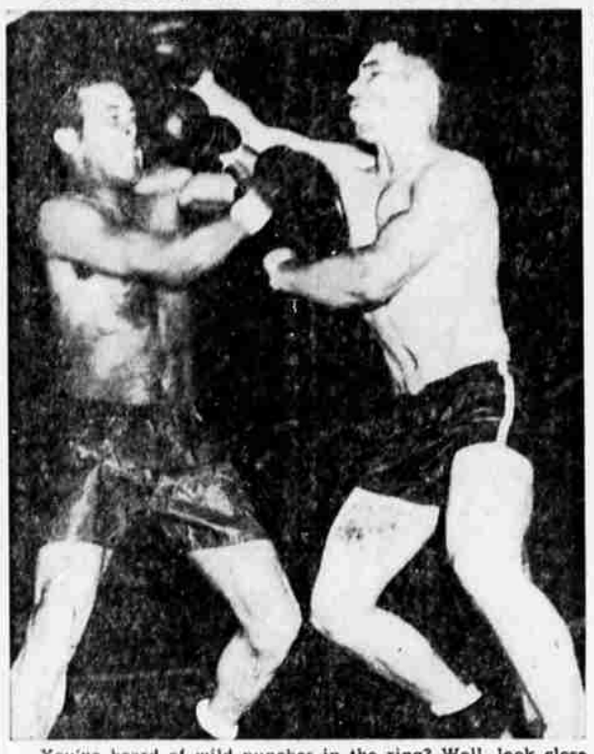
He Blocked The Punch — Or Did He?



You've heard of wild punches in the ring? Well, look close and you'll see that Jim Wright (on the left) has just hooked a beauty of a left to his own schnoz. The flailing fists of his adversary, Johnny Jones, aren't touching him. This shot was taken in the middleweight fight between Wright and Jones at the armory last week by Hugh Killmeyer, Herald and News photographer. (P.S.—the blow didn't knock Wright out, he stayed the distance for a draw with Jones.)

Bremerton WIL Players Penalized For Near Riot

By The Associated Press

It was "underdog night" in the Western International league last night with Tacoma the lone upper division team to mark up a win—and even they reached up a notch to knock off second place Salem.

Even the leading Wenatchee Chiefs fell victim to the night's tendency with Yakima coming back from a 1-0 defeat to take a 5-2 decision.

Tacoma, combining Cy Greenlaw's three-hit pitching with Dick Greco's three-run inside-the-park homer, blanked the Salem Senators 6-0. It was Greenlaw's 15th win against 10 defeats.

Three circuit clouts, two of them by Ray Orteig, featured Vancouver's 14-5 rousting of Spokane. Frank Mullens collected the third circuit blow for the winners with a mate on in the eighth. Spokane's shortstop Lou Kubiac picked up a four-baser in the eighth.

Bremerton took a double beating during the day—one a 14-9 defeat at the hands of Victoria and the other from League President Robert Abel who reported he had suspended two players for seven-day periods and issued fines totaling $185 as a result of actions in Sunday's game at Spokane which ended in a near riot.

Abel suspended Clarence (Beak) Federmeyer, ace bluejacket hurler, and Francis Curtis, outfielder, for the week and fined the Bremerton clubowners $100. Gus Paglia, outfielder-catcher, and Elwood Curtis, second baseman, were nicked for $25 each, First Baseman Bill Reese for $15 and Pitcher Hub Kittle and Trainer Wayne Anderson $10 each.

Softball Play Slated Tonight

The Moore softball team goes into the second game of the men's soft loop playoff against Palmerton Lumber company, this tilt on Applegate field tonight, and the Ashley Chevrolet nine goes to bat against its once-defeated opponent, the Elks, on Recreation diamond. Both tilts start at 6 p. m.

The playoff works on a two-out-of-three basis. If Moose or Ashley, Monday winners, win again tonight, they are through until next week, but if either lose, another game will have to be played this weekend.

No games will be played next week until the latter part of the week as the Moose team will be at the regional softball tourney in Medford Tuesday and Wednesday.

Ferriss Is Top Hurler

Red Sox Club Phillies For Sophomore's 20th

By The Associated Press

Dave Ferriss, labeled "just another fartime pitcher" when he flopped in his first two starts, is taking bows today as the first hurler since Cleveland's Wes Ferrell in 1930 to win 20 games in each of his first two complete big league seasons.

The Boston sophomore's 20-4 record overshadows Hal Newhouser and Bobby Feller and gives him an outside chance at the coveted 30-win season.

Ferriss was not as effective as usual last night in downing Philadelphia, 7-5, with nine hits but he had the big guns of Teddy Williams and Johnny Pesky booming at his back. Williams' two doubles helped drive in two runs and Pesky's three hits sparked the 11-hit attack on Bob Savage, at Shibe park.

Feller's bid for win No. 22 failed when Dizzy Trout blanked Cleveland with three hits for a 1-0 Detroit edge. Bob Lemon finished up after Feller was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the eighth.

Chicago clung to sixth place in the American by sweeping both ends of the first twilight-night doubleheader of the season at St. Louis. Frankie Hayes' two-run single in the seventh enabled Edgar Smith to earn the decision in the opener, 3-2, and Taft Wright's ninth inning single cashed in Orval Grove's four-hitter in the second game, 2-1.

Lefty Johnny Schmitz of the Chicago Cubs prevented the St. Louis Cardinals from taking over the National league lead when he blanked them with three hits, 1-0, to outpoint Harry Brecheen, at Wrigley field. The leading Brooklyn Dodgers were rained out.

Cincinnati's slumping Reds dropped their eighth in a row and fell to within a single game of the sixth place Giants, bowing to Pittsburgh 3-2.

Oliver Likes Southern Cal

SPOKANE, Aug. 14 (AP) — Coach Tex Oliver, who skippers the football team at the University of Oregon, says it is easier predicting this fall's Pacific slope pigskin chase than in previous years of his long career.

Responding to a questionnaire sent Pacific coast conference coaches, Oliver predicted the University of Southern California would come out on top, but he added:

"Los Angeles is going to be the scene of a football civil war with Southern Cal and UCLA squabbling over the right to play in the Rose bowl."

Like most other coaches when talking about their own team, Oliver places his Oregon squad about eighth in ranking the 10-team conference.

The Oregon coach said he figures the coast conference race to end with teams placing in this order: Southern California, UCLA, Oregon State, Washington State, Washington, California, Stanford, Oregon, Idaho and Montana.

Seals, Oaks Stay One-Two In Pacific Flag Scramble

By The Associated Press

Big homecoming welcomes for road trip conquerors in the Pacific Coast Baseball league left Sacramento and Hollywood fans with nothing but a letdown today.

The Sacramento Solons, with 13 victories and two losses for the most successful record abroad in the last two weeks, trouped out for a home stand last night before 7741 fans, the Tuesday record in the park. Oakland's Acorns beat them 3-2 in Rugger Ardizoia's five-hit pitching victory over Tony Freitas and a seventh-inning rally topped by Vic Buccola's triple.

In the Hollywood style, band music and speeches welcomed the movie city Stars, home from a six-game winning streak, and Jimmy Dykes in his first home appearance as manager of the club. The Seattle Rainiers, behind the two-hit hurling of Ike Pearson, administered a 2-1 defeat, the first since Dykes took over. Lou Novikoff's double behind Kermit Lewis' two-bagger in the sixth inning scored the winning tally.

Larry Jansen, mound ace of the league who moves to the Polo Grounds for the New York Giants next season, pitched the loop-leading San Francisco Seals to a 2-1 victory over the Portland Beavers for his 24th win of the season. It was the 13th consecutive victory for the right-hander, who has lost only three games this season.

With the count tied in the ninth inning, Neill Sheridan singled and scored when Seal Third Baseman Don Trower poked a double.

The win left the Seals three games ahead of second-ranking Oakland.

The only league game to warm up the base runners was the Los Angeles Angels' 11-6 triumph over the San Diego Padres.

Los Angeles, whose third place standing has been challenged by the recent successes of Sacramento and Hollywood, held a hitting bee in the ninth inning, piling up six runs with 11 batters taking turn at the plate.

LOS ANGELES—Carlos Chavez, 129, Los Angeles, outpointed Juan Leanos, 129, Torreon, Mexico, 10.

CUT POWER LINE KILLS YOUTH

Johnny Doe Electrocuted By Own Rifle Shot

Russia Asks Unification Of Germany

'E' Award To Ra...via

Boys and parents alike have been warned by the county juvenile officer of the hazards from careless and malicious gun shooting.

A Copco high power line recently was severed by a rifle shot. The inconvenience and expense to electricity users and the power company is self evident. The worst part is the danger from electrocution to the very individual who takes a shot at a power insulator.

The California Oregon Power Company appeals to boys as sportsmen (and to parents responsible for their children) NOT TO SHOOT AT POWER INSULATORS. Please cooperate for YOUR OWN SAFETY!
