

Vanport And Monmouth Have Housing Available

Compiled reports from Oregon schools of higher education disclose housing facilities at Vanport and at Monmouth's Oregon College of Education for about 2300 new students this fall, Edward T. Taggart, educational officer for the department of veteran's affairs, announced today.

Vanport has room for about 2000 veterans—one-half of this for married students—and Monmouth has facilities for about 300, including 35 for married students, Taggart's compilation showed.

Western Auto In New Spot

The Western Auto Supply company, located for seven years at 1038 Main, will open its doors at a new location Friday at 9 a. m. The store is now situated in the Commercial Arts building, 11th and Walnut.

Rex Hiatt, manager, is the first local retailer to have his quarters in the Commercial Arts building. Floor space occupies that once used by the USO before its closure. Part of the building is being used for offices.

Ready for the grand opening tomorrow will be new counters and new display cases, with a floor display of home appliances, specially arranged for the opening.

Hiatt says that his sales staff is the same as in the old location with a few salespeople to be added during rush periods. Probably two more permanent salesmen will be on hand later.

Freight Rate Boost Hits Aluminum Plants

TACOMA, Aug. 15 (AP)—Aluminum plants in the Pacific northwest would be greatly endangered by a blanket 25 per cent freight rate increase, Senator Mitchell (D-Wash.) reminded the interstate commerce commission in a telegram last night.

Mitchell said such an increase "will seriously jeopardize the competitive position of aluminum plants in this area and choke off gains so far established."

Pennsylvania Makes Big Liquor Profits

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 15 (AP)—A profit of $28,606,217—an all-time record—was made by Pennsylvania's state liquor monopoly in the year ended May 31 on a retail business of $201,375,968.

The state liquor control board forecast the profits on sales in state stores will be practically the same for the current year.

Morse Enters Coos Bay Row

EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 15 (AP)—The Coos Bay maritime dispute, which has slowed delivery of lumber, was placed before high federal officials today by Sen. Wayne L. Morse (R-Ore.).

conversion director, proposing binding arbitration as a method of settling the CIO-AFL jurisdictional controversy.

Morse, widely known before his election to the senate as an arbitrator of maritime disputes, said that settling the controversy by economic strength "will not result in any permanent settlement at all, but will simply lead to similar controversies at other points along the Pacific coast and other parts of the country."

He declared that, while he did not know the merits of the case, a "common sense approach" would be for the two factions to submit the dispute to arbitration with the understanding that the arbitrator's ruling would be binding.
