

Evening Ceremony Read On Saturday

Wed on Saturday, December 7, in an evening ceremony were Mae Reeves and Bert Davis, both of this city. The ceremony was read in the Bible auditorium by Evangelist P. C. Alderson of the Seventh Day Adventist church.

The bride chose an afternoon dress of light blue with a shoulder corsage of vari-colored seasonal flowers.

Mrs. Sadie Pierce was matron of honor. She wore a dress of light green. For flowers she wore a corsage similar to the bride's.

Mrs. P. C. Alderson sang "O, Promise Me" as guests assembled before the service. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Ruth Newlin.

Best man was Irvin Bingman.

A reception followed the ceremony with 100 guests attending. The bride and groom cut the first piece of their three-tiered wedding cake. The confection was served by Mrs. Ray Brown and Mrs. Jess Brown. Assisting were Mrs. Aubrey Redifer, Mrs. I. Young, Mrs. M. Salisbury and Thelma Bingman.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis are at home to their friends at 323 Homedale. Out of town guests at the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davis of Vancouver, Wash., brother and sister-in-law of the groom.

Mid-Week SOCIETY

Nuptials

Lorene Saunders and George Bauer, both of Malin, were wed in Reno, Nev., on Friday, November 29, in a quiet ceremony witnessed by the bride's mother, Mrs. William Saunders, and Donald Freeman, who accompanied them.

The bride is a graduate of Malin high school, class of 1945, and has been assisting in the Malin post office for four years.

Mr. Bauer recently returned from three years service in the navy. He is a native of Milwaukee, Wis. Mrs. Bauer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Saunders of Malin.

Honored

Complimenting Mrs. Raymond H. Sacher, a stork shower was held at the home of Mrs. L. A. Pride on Bisbee street on November 20. The honor guests received numerous gifts. Refreshments were served late in the afternoon by the hostesses, Mrs. Pride and Mrs. Leopold Sacher.

Present were Mrs. Sacher, the honor guest, Mrs. Ned Smith, Mrs. Wallen Chisco, Mrs. Keith Krause, Mrs. Porter Benson, Mrs. Christine Bates, Mrs. Deane Sacher and the hostesses.

Shrine Party

Holiday

TULELAKE — Christmas greens, a lighted tree and Christmas music brought the holiday spirit to members of the guild of the Tulake Community Presbyterian church last Wednesday when they gathered for the annual Christmas party and gift exchange in the church annex.

Devotions were offered by Mrs. A. E. Ryckman.

Mrs. Dave Bridge with Mrs. Don Webster at the piano gave a vocal solo, and the cast of the skit, "Little Women," to be presented this week by the dramatic class of the high school was on the program.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. W. S. Edwards, Mrs. Stoddard, Mrs. Frank Manceau and Mrs. H. T. Street.

Handwork

MERRILL — On Tuesday, December 17, members of the Lost River Garden club will display their handwork on Christmas decorations, centerpieces and wreaths at a show in the Merrill library clubrooms.

A portion of the decorations will be auctioned off by Mrs. Scott Thompson of Henley. Proceeds will go to charity.

Members will meet on Thursday, December 12, at the home of Mrs. W. C. Bailey of Merrill to make articles.

Luncheon

The Friendly circle met Thursday afternoon, Dec. 5, with Minnie Padgett, who was assisted by Myrtle Padgett. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock to 14, including two guests, Alma McWhorter and Ann Federhart. The afternoon was spent in making scrapbooks for a children's hospital, one of this year's projects for the club.

The Christmas party will be held at Estelle Smith's home, 417 Pacific Terrace. There will be a potluck luncheon, Christmas party and the silent sisters will exchange gifts.

Candidates

Prosperity Rebekah lodge met in the 100F hall on Thursday evening, December 5, in regular session, and three candidates were initiated into membership. Following the meeting, refreshments were served by a committee whose chairman was Zelma Blankenship. On January 2 the newly-elected officers are to be installed by Alma Cofer, installing officer.

Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Brewbaker of El Segundo, Calif., are visitors at the home of Mr. Brewbaker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Brewbaker of the Park apartments. Mr. and Mrs. Brewbaker arrived in Klamath Falls on Monday night of this week and will remain here until Christmas. Mr. Brewbaker is a former resident of this city. He is employed in the laboratories of the Standard Oil company in El Segundo.
