Malin

MALIN—The Malin American Legion auxiliary met in the church December 2 with Martha Brothman, the president, presiding. Nell Retherath gave a report on the "Gift for the Yanks Who Gave." Collections to date for the Malin community have almost reached $100. Abbie Herringshaw reported on the results of the annual bazaar held on Saturday, November 30, with a report of $190 net. This affair was held jointly with the Malin Ladies Aid in the office of J. W. Saunders. Credit for the bazaar goes to Norma Petrasek, Abbie Herringshaw, Martha Brothman, Irene Freitag and all of the ladies who so generously donated their work and time.

The unit voted to donate $10 to the iron lung fund at Klamath Falls. Also the unit will send a box of cards to Cpl. Raymond Van Meter at the naval hospital in Corona, Calif. Nell Retherath and Helen Loosely

Announcing the NEW Empire Builder

custom-built for pleasant, faster travel

Big news for those who value the comfort, convenience and safety of train travel!

Great Northern Railway's fleet of streamlined New EMPIRE BUILDERS—the modern generation of long-famous transcontinental trains—will go into service soon after January 1.

The New EMPIRE BUILDERS will be the first completely modern trains over the northern route between Portland, Spokane, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Chicago on a daily 45-hour schedule. They will be America's first postwar sleeping car and coach trains.

The diesel-powered New EMPIRE BUILDERS will introduce new-style Day-Nite coaches with more spacious, restful seats at economy prices. Modern luxury sleeping accommodations and cheerful recreation facilities, too. Duplex roomettes . . . modern bedrooms . . . drawing rooms . . . open sections . . . gay coffee shops . . . charming dining cars offering Great Northern's famous food service.

Include the New EMPIRE BUILDERS in your Winter travel plans to Chicago and eastern points.

The New EMPIRE BUILDER will leave Portland at 3 P. M. daily. Consult Great Northern Railway representative in your city for advance reservations.

Day-Nite coach seats with new-style leg rest allow you to stretch out—for greater comfort.
