The regular meeting of the Civic Improvement club was held Friday afternoon in the clubhouse, with a good attendance of members and visitors present. In keeping with the coming Yuletide season, the club rooms were decorated with evergreens and Christmas trimmings.
The business meeting was opened by Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley in the absence of the president, Mrs. Ray Prowell, and following the opening, newly-elected officers for the ensuing year were seated, president, Mrs. Hansford Williams; vice-presidents, Mrs. R. S. Loosley and Mrs. Ray Prowell; secretary, Mrs. James Van Wormer; treasurer, Mrs. Orville Steele of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Elbe of Lakeview, have been recent guests of the Otto Ellis family. They enjoyed hunting while here.

urer, Mrs. Olena Briscoe, the latter two officers having been re-elected for an ensuing term. Outgoing officers were presented with a gift from the club members.
During the business session, plans were made for two special activities to be held this month, the first being a dance to be given on Saturday night, December 14, proceeds from which will be placed in a reserve fund to be used especially to furnish globes for the local street lights, a project which has been one of the duties of the club for many years.
The organization will also sponsor a local community Christmas tree and program to be held at the Fort Klamath church on the evening of December 20, in cooperation with the local church and grade school. The program to be presented will feature numbers by the pupils under the direction of Mrs. Charles Strahan, grade school teacher, and also special contributions by the club members. At the close of the program, children of the community will be given a sack of candy, nuts and oranges from the Christmas tree, funds to furnish the treat being solicited from local residents by a committee of club members. All are invited to attend both affairs.

New members welcomed into the club at this time included Mrs. Earl Jackson, Mrs. Ord Pritchett and Mrs. Delbert Denton.
At the close of the business meeting, a most enjoyable social time was spent by those present, with an exchange of gifts from a large, beautifully decorated Christmas tree featuring the occasion, when Mrs. William C. Hackler and Mrs. William A. Page acted as gift distributors. After the gifts had been opened, refreshments were served in the club dining room, which presented a beautiful sight, the tables being decorated in the holiday motif with silvered pine cones, evergreen boughs and lighted white tapers, with a colorful centerpiece formed of a nest of bright Christmas tree ornaments. Special credit for the unusually attractive decorations of tables and club rooms is due to Mrs. Frank Denton, who was assisted in the work of arrangements for the social portion of the club meeting by Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Joe Taylor, Mrs. Frank Edwards and Mrs. William C. Hackler.

Enjoying the outstanding pre-holiday meeting and social afternoon were the following: Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Mrs. Frank Denton, Mrs. Delbert Denton, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson, Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Joe Taylor, Mrs. Gus A. Page, Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. Earl Jackson, Mrs. Nettie Bishop, Mrs. Jasper Nunnally, Mrs. Ord Pritchett, Mrs. Hansford Williams, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Edith Moon, Mrs. Sarah Stocum, Mrs. William C. Hackler, Mrs. R. O. Varnum, Mrs. Art Nichols, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. Olena Briscoe, Mrs. James Van Wormer, Mrs. Charles Noah and Mrs. Charles Strahan.

Red Ryder
We'll find him if we have to go clear to the moon, little Red Ryder!
They're headed for that stream, probably they'll try to cover their tracks in the back ground on the other side.
Tracks not cross-up stream, Red Ryder?
It's plumb loco! Looks like those rustlers don't want to cover their tracks.
Boots and Her Buddies
Home! Red, we're home! Oh, it's wonderful!
It sure is! Oh, dear, it's all, it's two o'clock! I would have to rush back to the office, from just a few hours, though!
I hate myself for feeling so self-conscious! I haven't done anything! Of course, boots couldn't know about all the gossip going around!
But just the same, I'd swear she's well, she didn't act like herself!
Alley Oop
Easy, now, I said that Blackfoot's poison, I saw him down collecting!
Toughest homies I see since we buried Angela Slim!
Betcha he downs a quart of milk at a gulp!
Gimme a beer!
Make mine milk?
Milk?
That's right, gentlemen, I said milk! What's wrong with milk?
It's good for you—it makes strong bones an' muscle—am I like it?
Here's your milk!
Week Tubbs
I sent our Mr. Gubbins down to make another offer, he's due back soon and—
I'm sorry to disturb you again, Mr. Tubbs, but here's another wire, collect, from the Countess DiGaming!
She now offers $91,000 for your house, without new bath fixtures, but insists on saffron awnings and a better heating system!
Miss Deeds! You inform that female pest my price is now $95,000! That'll make no alterations, whatsoever, and that she was a gall wiring me collect!
You might add that I can suggest a place for her to go where heating is no problem! Send it collect and don't skimp on words!
Freckles and His Friends
Frankly, Mr. Frost, our play was a fizzle, we took in only $82!
Now we can't pay you the $500 we owe you for your painting!
HMM—TOO BAD!
Perhaps you'll be able to raise the balance—its only a mere $418!
"MERE?"
Look, meatball! Reading from left to right—Lincoln, Washington and Jefferson!
