

Yuletide Program Given On Monday

The Woman's Library club of Klamath Falls ushered in the Christmas season with a program on Monday, December 9, when members met in the main auditorium of the city library.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Dean H. Osborn and Mrs. C. W. Hornbrook. Beautiful baskets of holly were arranged around the room by Mrs. J. E. Eichendorf.

Andrew Loney Jr., director of musical education in the city schools, presented a program of Christmas music sung by Klamath Union high school music students. Numbers included Bach's Prelude in B Minor, "Christmas Fantasy," "O, Holy Night," "Lo, How a Rose e'er Blooming," "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen" and "White Christmas."

At the close of the afternoon tea was served by the officers, with Mrs. Glenn Kent and Mrs. Howard Getz pouring.

The club wishes to thank the members for the many gifts to be sent to children at Doernbecher hospital for Christmas.

Next meeting of the library club will be held on Monday, January 13, when Malveson Parker will speak on "My Months in the Philippines as an Army Nurse."

All women of the county are invited to membership in the library club.

Party

Catholic Daughters of America held a short business meeting in the parish hall Monday evening, December 9, followed by a party at 8:30 which was attended by 100 members. Phyllis Smith was in charge of the community singing of Christmas music. Susan Vandenberg played two piano selections and Harriet Lavenik sang two numbers accompanied by Elaine Abbott. Louise Vaughn and Agnes LaLonde, assisted by Santa Claus (Ida Mochettaz) then distributed gifts to the members. The Rev. John Delehanty and Bill Delury were special guests for the evening.

A prettily-decorated table was presided over by Azita Kennedy and Ellen Ely. Agnes LaLonde and Louise Vaughn were co-hostesses for the evening, assisted by Ida Mochettaz, Leone Mathis, Phyllis Smith, Ann Kessler, Jennette Albee, Marian Solga, Mabel Brocktrup, Marion Thurber, Etta Plasker, Vera Mullen, Etta McDonald and Alice Abbott.

On Wednesday, December 11, the following Catholic Daughters under the chairmanship of Libby Meroney, were in charge of the sale of Christmas seals at Sears, Elizabeth Brandsness; Montgomery Ward, Nellie Murphy; Penney's, Freda Newman; First National bank, Rita Herington and Ellen Ely; United States National bank, Emma Grey and Minnie McCroskey; post office, Clara Beard and Vivian Boiven.

Final Plans

Women of the Eagles auxiliary, the Habitants and the Lady Eagles club are making final plans for their Christmas parties. The auxiliary will have its holiday festivities on Tuesday, December 17, the Habitants club will have a Christmas dinner on Thursday, December 19, and the Lady Eagles will meet for their party on Friday, December 20. All the groups will exchange gifts.

At the last meeting of the auxiliary on Tuesday evening, Mrs. Burke and Mrs. Beebe, two candidates, were initiated.

Special Event

A special meeting has been slated by Women of the Moose for Tuesday, December 17, when Dovey Reeder, an official visitor from Merrill, will be guest of the evening.

The meeting will be the group's annual Christmas party, and all members are reminded to bring small gifts for the gift exchange. Women attending are requested to wear formal gowns. This year the Women of the Moose are joining the Moose lodge in taking care of a needy family with five children. All women of the lodge are asked to bring to the Tuesday meeting a contribution of staple foods or canned goods.

The evening's program will be under the direction of the Moosehaven committee.

BRT Auxiliary

The ladies auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen held a regular business meeting on Thursday, December 12, in the KC hall with Mrs. Laurence Roman, president, in the chair. Following the business session Mrs. Roman turned the gavel over to Mrs. M. B. Messer, installing president, who was assisted by Mrs. Walter Fuller, installing secretary, and Mrs. J. J. Pex, installing conductress. The officers installed for 1947 were councillor, M. D. Kiou; past president, Mrs. Laurence Roman; president, Mrs. Paul Jones; vice president, Mrs. Paul Horne; secretary, Mrs. A. A. Myers; treasurer, Mrs. John McCoy; conductress, Mrs. J. J. Pex; warden, Mrs. Dean Seibert; chaplain, Mrs. V. C. Phillips; inner guard, Mrs. Louie Craver; outer guard, Mrs. Arthur Kelley; and pianist, Mrs. Floyd Wilkes.

Mrs. Messer presented corsages to Mrs. Fuller and Mrs. Pex, the installing officers who assisted her, and she was presented with a corsage by Mrs. Roman. Corsages were also given to Mrs. Roman, the outgoing president, and to Mrs. Jones, the new president, by Mrs. Pex.

Mrs. Roman thanked the officers and members of the lodge for their cooperation in 1946, and following the installation ceremonies, there was an exchange of gifts. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joe Matlick, Mrs. John McCoy and Mrs. McGilvray.

Dinner

The annual Christmas dinner of Pythian Sisters and Knights of Pythias was held on Monday evening, December 9. The dining room was decorated with holly, mistletoe and wreaths, while the table centerpiece was a small fir Christmas tree. Streamers of red and green on the tables carried out the holiday motif. One hundred and thirty-five guests were present to enjoy the turkey dinner, and afterward treats of candies and nuts were given to the children present.

Harry Eckert played three piano solos, Joan Elliott gave selections on her violin, accompanied by her father, Jack Elliott, and Catherine Blanas played the accompaniment for the group singing of "White Christmas," "Silent Night," "Jingle Bells," and "Good Night, Ladies," which concluded the evening.

Charlotte Canoy was in charge of refreshments, Gladys Hunt supervised the decorations and Margaret Picard was chairman of the committee for the Christmas tree and treats.

CHILDREN of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Knight of 303 South Eldorado are Mary Ann, three years old, and Michael Thomas, one year. They are grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Mike J. Zupan and Mrs. Lewis Larson.
