The Brave New World May Be Coming This Way Soon

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK, Dec. 16 (AP)—A brighter day is a-dawning. Nobody yet has seen the first robin of spring, but there are other portents that the long winter of the world's discount is about to melt, like a dreamy old maid cornered in a love seat. For example and to wit: A New York department store is installing heated sidewalks so the customers won't have to wade through snow and slush to buy a $25 dollar necktie hand-painted by an unsung Rembrandt. The Gran Casino Nacional at Havana has graciously underwritten free week-end air trips from Miami for America's millionaires. While en route to shed their sorrows at the Cuban gaming tables this underprivileged class will be stuffed with champagne and caviar on the Casino's cuff. And whether the gentry of the gaudy wallets win, lose or draw the grateful Casino will ferry them back come morning to their 50-room hovels on the Florida coast.

Colored Tires
And if the gray-black tires on your battered four-wheel family chariot depress your good woman, tell her to be of good cheer. The scientists who keep fires burning under their test tubes day and night so that progress shall not fall have come up with something really new: "white carbon black." This charming ingredient soon will enable you to bounce happily over the landscape on rubber tires colored baby blue, pure white, or a breathtaking orchid. These pleasant developments are but straws in the wind of change, beacons to a giddy care-free world of bye-and-bye. In that world to be maybe they can also figure it to let us enjoy: Nickel-a-mile taxis operated by cabbies who drive up to the curb, open the door and say, "please." Regulators for babies so that instead of crying at night they make sounds like a Swiss music box, with at least four tunes. Silencers for fat sopranos that will shut them off or even choke them to death noiselessly when they get within shouting distance of high "C."

Puppies house-broken at birth and with flat teeth so they will learn to crack walnuts instead of chewing up slippers. Barkless dogs, clawless cats and canaries that hum instead of going "pree, pree, pree-e-e-e."

Office water coolers that give out with Tom Collinses in summer and martinis in winter. A self-reversing income tax whereby the government tells everybody on March 15: "you overpaid 300 per cent last year."

Apartment houses with walls so that when you sneeze you can't hear your neighbor say, "gesundheit!" Drama houses with 3000 front row seats at $1.10. Movie theatres that give away bottles of Scotch whisky instead of table crockery. Radar-equipped radios that automatically select good musical programs and filter out boogie-woogie and all human voices except Fred Allen's. Havana cigars that cost less than a box at the opera. Hotel rooms like an accordion. You just unfold them to any size you want.

e-o, pree, pree!" also, motionless goldfish.

Two garages for every car—at $5 a month. A windshield wiper that works on rainy days, too.

A self-shaving razor. A pearl in every oyster. Quick, Moe, pass the pipe. I'm coming to—ber, the state employment service reported. The agency said Multnomah, Washington and Columbia counties have 19,500 idle and added that "practically all signs of contemplated expansion were pulled down" during the period. Of the total unemployed 4800 are veterans and 4000 are women.
