

Holiday Party Is Held On Thursday

The annual Christmas party of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church was held on Thursday, December 12, in the church parlors, beginning with a meeting of the executive board at 11:30 a. m. This was followed by the potluck luncheon at noon. Evergreens and candles were used as decorations for the tables, and the lighted Christmas tree rose above many gifts, later distributed by two little girls, Dot Riker and Beverly Clawson, to the 70 members present.

The four circles held short, separate business meetings, gathering again for the devotion, conducted by Mrs. Norman Crane, who read the Christmas story from the book of Luke and also a Christmas poem, followed by group singing of carols. Mrs. Robert Craig, accompanied by Mrs. Frederick Ehlers, presented a group of songs, "Holy Night," "Cradle Song," and a negro spiritual. Mrs. George Casper read the famous editorial from the New York Sun, the reply to little Virginia O'Hanlon, "Yes, Virginia, There Is A Santa Claus." Mrs. Glenn Kent, program chairman, presented the day's theme, "World Peace and the Federation of Methodist Women," stressing the fact that to have peace there must be the will for peace through the practical principles of Christianity that peace is not a man's job but the job of every Christian, and that women must use their resources and abilities to this end. There are four million women in the world, who are members of the Methodist Federation of Women, and their influence can be powerful if well applied, she said.

Mid-Week SOCIETY

Yule Program

Neighbors of Woodcraft and Juveniles of that organization met in the KC hall Monday evening, December 16, for a Christmas party which opened with a program. Leola Thompson played the accompaniments for group singing of "Joy to the World" and "Little Town of Bethlehem." Then came a recitation by Edna Mae Reeves, a piano solo by Sharon Thompson, "Away in a Manger," a violin solo by Philip Clark, accompanied by Patsy Ruth Miller, a recitation by Mary Hayes and a song by Donna Cone, accompanied by Patsy Clark.

Danny Thompson sang "There Were Three Wise Men" and Patsy, Philip and Paula Ann Clark sang "Silent Night." Pat Nidorf played two piano solos and Linda and Lanna Simms sang a duet, followed by a vocal trio, "White Christmas," by Harriett Lavenik, June Tilton and Darlene Smith.

To the music of "Jingle Bells" sung by all, Santa then entered and distributed treats to the Juveniles and to all the children present. The adults were also remembered in the giving out of treats.

The Silent Sisters exchanged gifts which were presented from the tree.

In charge of the evening's program and tree were Stella Dryden, Willan Floetke, Ruth Hull, Viola Leever, Charlotte Carr and Neva Hayes. The next meeting day will be Monday, January 6, with Juveniles meeting at 4 p. m. and the Neighbors at 8 p. m. in the KC hall.

ENGAGED IS RUTH BIEHN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Biehn of this city. She will become the bride of Milburn Shaffer of Portland. No date has been set for the rites.

November Bride

A wedding of interest here is that of Lois A. Young of Sherwood, Ore., and William Russell Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Russell Elliott of the Mt. Laki district. The ceremony was read at Sherwood on November 30.

The bride chose an afternoon frock of light blue with sequin trim. Her sister, Betty, was maid of honor. She was attired in a pink dress of similar style. Harry Elliott of Klamath Agency was best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young of Sherwood, after the ceremony. Mr.

and Mrs. Elliott will make their home in Portland.

New Queen Elected

Jobs Daughters will hold an initiation ceremony on Thursday evening and a formal installation of officers, Saturday, December 21, followed by a dance in honor of the new queen, Marilyn O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. O'Neill, and her officers. Names of officers who will serve with her have not yet been announced.

Initiation will be at 8 p. m., Thursday, December 19, in the Masonic temple, with refreshments served later.

The installation, reception and formal dance will be held at the Masonic temple.

Luncheon

Ye Olde Pinocchio club met on Thursday, December 12, with Maggie Upton of 2348 Kane. Luncheon was served at 1 p. m., followed by an exchange of gifts. The identity of the Silent Sisters was revealed. At pinocchio Agnace Lowe held high score, Kathryn Billings, second. Maggie Upton received the pinocchio award and Violet Vance held low score. There were three visitors, Mrs. Dahleim, a former resident of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Hixon.

Holiday Party

Christmas greens and red candies formed the setting for the Minerva Book club's holiday party last week, held at the home of Jo Penrod, 1122 Lincoln. Assisting the hostess were Mabel Humble, Jean Porter and Stella Bowne.

Evelyn Ickes recited "The Other Wise Man," and Neil Olson reviewed a comical Christmas story. After refreshments, members received gifts accompanied by original poems.

Present were Asta Kierolff, Jean Porter, Myrtle Helm, Delphia Hoyt, Edna Russell, Marge Kincaid, Edna Bloom, Neil Olson, Edna Yaxall, Evelyn Ickes, Lydia Howard, Emma Carter, Stella Bowne, Mae Phinney, Mabel Humble, Mayme Johnson and Mrs. Penrod.

The next meeting of the Minerva Book club will be held January 17 at the home of Edna Russell. Myrtle Helm will review a travel story.
