

Church Rites In Canada

Doris Cleghorn of Guelph, Ontario, Canada, became the bride of Ira H. Magie of Klamath Falls in an early December ceremony read in the Knox Presbyterian church of Guelph.

Rites were solemnized in a service read by the Rev. Crawford Smith. Mrs. Magie is the daughter of Mrs. Arch Cleghorn and the late Mr. Cleghorn, of Guelph.

Following an extended trip through the southern states, Mr. and Mrs. Magie will return to Klamath Falls on February 1, where they plan to make their home.

Scholarship

Jean Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Morrison of 4033 Summers lane, recently received the Daughters of the American Revolution Lucy Ann Miller scholarship to be used in home economics training.

Miss Morrison is a first year student at Oregon State college. She was graduated from Klamath Union high school in May, 1946, and was selected from her class to receive the Girl Home-maker award presented by Eulonia chapter, DAR.

Entertained

OLENE—Mrs. George Stevenson, Mrs. Stanley Masten and Mrs. Fred Rueck entertained with a stork shower on Thursday, December 12, at the Olene community hall for Mrs. Joe Sullivan.

Rooms were decorated with Christmas greens, red candles and bowls of fruit. Some 40 guests were present and Mrs. Sullivan received many lovely gifts. Assisting in opening gifts were her mother, Mrs. Sam Hartzler of Hildebrand, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jerry Johnston of Merrill.

Games were played under the direction of Mrs. Rueck, and refreshments were served by the hostesses at a late hour.

Thursday Party

The Oregon State Nurses association will welcome the holidays in fine style with a Christmas party Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. All graduate nurses are invited to the affair, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Whistler of 321 Alameda. There will also be a gift exchange.
