POE VALLEY-OLENE
Twenty members of the Poe Valley-Olene home extension unit gathered on Friday at the George Reiling home in Poe valley for the demonstration on "Wild Game Cookery."

The half-hour preceding the demonstration was presided over by Mrs. Wilbur Reiling and Mrs. Forrest Brautlaucht who gave instruction on making Christmas wreaths and table decorations. They exhibited some lovely ones they had made of local greenery at practically no cost.

Mrs. George Reiling and Mrs. Paul Brautlaucht were the project leaders on the cookery. Venison, wild duck and wild goose were adeptly cooked by them and served for the noon meal. All that goes with a festive holiday meal was brought by members of both units and the gaily decorated table took on the atmosphere of a real Christmas dinner. An exchange of gifts was held just before dinner.

In the afternoon the business meeting was conducted by Mrs. William Tubach, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Francis Freuer as secretary. Roll call was answered by each one naming her favorite Christmas carol. Mrs. Frank Sullivan was in charge of entertainment which consisted of holiday games and singing of carols.

The January meeting will be held at the Olene community hall on January 10, at 10:30 a. m. The subject, "Color in the Home," and Mrs. Winnifred Gillen will be instructor. A noon luncheon will be served and anyone interested is cordially invited.

BONANZA
The Bonanza extension unit met at the home of Mrs. Henry Schmor on Tuesday, December 10, at 10:30 a. m. In the absence of Mrs. F. A. Ralph, the vice chairman, Mrs. Schmor called the meeting to order, and Mrs. Harry Frazier gave her demonstration on flower arrangement. She used an oblong silver tray, green moss-covered branches, Christmas balls and under the tree-like branch she placed a miniature deer.

A demonstration on wild game cookery was given by Mrs. William Sparks and Mrs. Schmor. Following the noon lunch, the mimeographs were inspected, followed by a business meeting. Mrs. Rol Olsen, secretary-treasurer, reported on the bazaar held December 6. It was voted to send $30 to help with the building fund for the co-operative house for girls at Oregon State college. Mrs. Schmor appointed leaders for the next project, "Broad Baking."

At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. Fred Rueck, ACWW chairman, asked Mrs. Pete Hodges, a recent Australian bride, to tell of her trip to the United States. Mrs. Hodges told many amusing and interesting things that happened on her trip and stated that she is enjoying this country very much. Sixteen women and seven children were present. The unit's next meeting will be held January 12 at 10:30 at the home of Mrs. Harry Frazier.

FAIRHAVEN
Mrs. O. R. Heavilin, Mrs. Keith Rice Jr. and Mrs. Howard Holliday were new members attending the Fairhaven home extension unit December 11 at the home of Mrs. Lee Holliday. The project leaders, Mrs. Melvin Galaspy and Mrs. K. L. Friedrich, prepared and served a delicious meal of venison pie, smothered wild duck, roast duck with potato dressing, and spiced apple rings to 20 members and guests.

Mrs. Percy Cook has received an introductory kit of sea shells and instructions for making shell pins and earrings and a special meeting is planned in the near future to teach shellcraft to anyone interested. The place and date of this meeting will be announced later.

Mrs. Merlyn Mikkelsen led the group in singing Christmas carols, and Mrs. C. L. Harvey read a letter written by an ACWW member in Australia. The next meeting, "Color in the Home," by Mrs. Winnifred Gillen will be on January 15 at the home of Mrs. Lee Holliday.

SHASTA-HOMEDALE
The Shasta-Homedale extension unit met Friday, December

13, at the home of Mrs. J. R. Fugill on Ogden street. Mrs. S. Choate who was in charge of the flower arrangements for the meeting carried out the Christmas motif by using red berries, pine cones and evergreens in her table centerpiece and buffet arrangement which was very effective.

Mrs. K. E. Bjorklund and Mrs. R. A. Nelson, project leaders, illustrated wild game cookery by preparing two delicious dishes, roast goose with potato stuffing and venison pie which were thoroughly enjoyed by all.

After the business meeting Mrs. H. R. Woodard directed games, Christmas carols, and the distribution of Christmas gifts. Fifteen members and two children were present to enjoy the jolly affair.

Mrs. K. P. Eaton, Mrs. E. W. Fullen, and Mrs. C. Williams will demonstrate bread making at the January meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. W. M. Clark at 2353 Vine.

These delicious dishes were served the members at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Folk Haddock, president, called the meeting to order and routine business was taken care of. She was assisted by the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Loyal L. Heath. Donations were made to the girls' co-op house being planned for Corvallis. Mrs. George Brautlaucht read three letters she had received from women in England who are also members of the Associated Country Women of the World.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, January 8, at the home of Mrs. John Lott. Mrs. Earl Hall and Mrs. Forest Fried will have charge of the demonstration at that time. The theme will be "Color in the Home." All interested women in the community are invited to attend.

Youngster Runs Into Car

Six-year-old Katherine Nelson is recovering at her home from bruises and lacerations received Monday afternoon when she ran into the path of a car. The little girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Karl A. Nelson of 1331 Worden, was playing tag in front of her home with a group of children when she ran into the street and was hit by a passing car. The driver of the car was exonerated of all blame for the accident. The car ran over the little girl's legs, but X-rays showed that no bones were broken. She is suffering from minor cuts and bad bruises.

Information The Public Should Know --
Contrary to the regular belief that there will be a large supply of nylon hose shortly — this is to advise the public that that statement is erroneous, as our mills have advised us that they have just been cut an additional 75% in yarn and that deliveries for the next several months will be slow. Fortunately our buyer was able to buy a good quantity of
