Friends Reunite For Yule Season

Certainly one of the nicest things about Christmas is the many people who are reunited . . . old friends and families, alike. Mr. and Mrs. Clark Weaver and their daughter, Connie, arrived this week-end from Stockton, Calif. They will remain through the holidays visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Franklin S. Weaver of Auburn street.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keller, of Portland, are to arrive this week-end to spend Christmas with their mothers, Mrs. George Humphrey and Mrs. J. Keller.

It will really be a reunion in the E. D. Johnson family. Lt. and Mrs. Stuart Nelson and their small daughter, Genevieve, will fly to Portland from Jacksonville, Fla., where Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson will meet them. The Johnsons and the Nelsons will visit in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hopper and their daughter, Roslyn. The whole family will spend Christmas Day in Salem with Lt. Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson. The Nelsons will return here later with Dr. and Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. Nelson is the former Barbara Johnson and Mrs. Hopper was formerly Mary Lou Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Staiger and their young son, Betsy, of Oswego, Ore. are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Woodruff of Pacific Terrace.

Word has been received in Klamath Falls that Dr. and Mrs. Robert David Payne are temporarily stationed at Redbank, N. J. Mrs. Payne is the former Virginia Bubb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bubb of High street. Janice Bubb, another daughter, is working for the government at Santa Fe, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Scott of Eugene will spend Christmas with Mrs. Scott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Devere Helrich of Georgia street, and her sister, Mrs. H. B. Runnels. Before her marriage in November, Mrs. Scott was Dolores Helrich.

The Mothers' club of Sacred Heart academy will hold its annual Christmas party for sisters of the academy at 1:30 Sunday, December 22. There will be a Christmas tree, gifts for the sisters, and all the festivity of the season. All members of the parish are invited and urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Scott of Eugene will spend Christmas with Mrs. Scott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Devere Helrich of Georgia street, and her sister, Mrs. H. B. Runnels. Before her marriage in November, Mrs. Scott was Dolores Helrich.

New Year's Eve Students Are Home For Yule Season

Members of the Elks and their ladies will welcome the New Year at the New Year's Eve dance on December 31 with dancing from 10 to 3 at the lodge.

Gordon's orchestra will furnish music, and buffet luncheon favors will be served. The traditional paraphernalia of New Year's, noisemakers, hats and horns, will be given to everyone. The committee promises a special surprise feature at midnight.

Chairmen of the committee arranging the dance are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Albee. Assisting them are Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Lavenik, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Totton, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Holand and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sweasey.

Friendship court 11, Royal Order of Amaranth, met in the Masonic temple Wednesday evening, December 18, at 8 p. m. with Mrs. Charles Eaton, royal matron, and Jack Schulze, royal patron, presiding. A large and beautifully decorated Christmas tree dominated the scene, and the hall was trimmed in accord with the season, James Hunter as Santa presided over the distribution.

Eight candidates were initiated into the order, and officers were elected for the coming year. New officers will be installed in an open meeting on January 25.

Refreshments were served by a committee headed by Jack Schulze, royal patron. He was also in charge of the Christmas party. Sprays of evergreens and holly tied with wide red ribbons extended the length of the tables. Over a hundred persons were present.

The next regular meeting will be January 15 and at that time there will be initiation and general committees will make their reports. Those who attended the opening of Mizpah court in Portland the latter part of November will also report on their trip.

Word has been received of the marriage of Patricia Ellis, daughter of Mrs. Freida Ellis of San Carlos, Calif., to Clinton E. Robles of Fresno. Rites were solemnized on November 4 at Berkeley, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Robles will make their home in Berkeley.

Mrs. Robles is well known in Klamath Falls and is a former resident of this city. She was graduated from Klamath Union high school and was valedictorian of her class. She is a graduate of the University of California and this year received her master's degree. Mr. Robles is a student at the university and was discharged from the armed forces recently.

Gay Occasion

It was a gay occasion for little Dian Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Rice, last Monday. On December 16, Dian celebrated her third birthday. A number of little friends were guests at a birthday party in her honor. The party was held at the Don Rice home, 1930 Huron.

A gum drop tree encircled with holly and silver leaves was the pretty centerpiece on the party table. Rooms were decorated with traditional Christmas bells, Santa Clauses and finery.

Guests were Dian, Phillip, Stephen and Marsha Hitchcock, Jeannie Barnett, Carmel Hartin, Jimmy Porter, David Majors, Suzanne and Robert Rice, Jackie Carssow, James Norland and Ralph Driggs.
