Charges filed against Biddle include assault with a deadly instrument, reckless driving and failure to heed an officer's warning and stop at command.

warning and stop at command. The first charge grew out of Biddie's alleged attempt to run down Officer Don Pizzano who fired the shot which finally halted the driver.

Officer Rhodes said Benbrooks and Newsome were charged with violation of California's welfare and institutions code, involving the consumption and possession of liquor by juveniles. Both boys are held, along with Biddie, in Yreka for the Siskiyou county Juvenile court, Rhodes said the three were taken to Dorris as Justice of the Peace George E. Long Peace George E.
