

Vows Exchanged In December Rites

Geraldine Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Y. L. Wilson of Monett, Mo., became the bride of Willard M. Williams of Klamath Falls, son of R. W. Williams of Mt. Vernon, Mo., in a ceremony read in Twin Falls, Ida., on December 22.

The Rev. A. B. Parrett of the First Methodist church of that city read the service at the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Burgess at 1 o'clock in a setting of evergreen, holly, poinsettias and lighted candles.

For her wedding the bride chose a suit of blue with shell pink blouse and hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Matron of honor was Mrs. Harley Williams, who was attired in an afternoon dress of cerise and black. Her flowers were gardenias.

Best man was Hansford Williams of Fort Klamath.

Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Williams left for a trip to Salt Lake City, Utah, and returned to make their home at Buhl, Ida.

Mrs. Williams is a graduate of Monnett Junior college and the University of Missouri. She was a teacher in the Monett, Mo., and Twin Falls, Ida., school systems. Mr. Williams served over three and a half years in the marine corps.

Mid-Week SOCIETY

Entertained

Members of Tau chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, were entertained at their annual Christmas party on December 20 in the home of Mrs. George Wright, 1004 Eldorado. The committee in charge of the affair included Doris McCord, Lois Rumer, Ann Clark and Mrs. Wright. Games were played and prizes were awarded Mrs. Warren Poole, Mrs. John Feback and Mrs. George Wardell, followed by a gift exchange.

Refreshments were then served, featuring a surprise in honor of Mrs. Marshal Cornett, director. Each guest received an individual cake with lighted candle and sang "Happy Birthday" to her as they were being served. Later, Mrs. Cornett was presented with a large birthday cake and a gift from the chapter.

The next regular meeting will be held on January 14 at the home of Mrs. Patricia Fairchild, 944 Eldorado, at 8 o'clock.

Coming Event

To be an event of Saturday, January 11, is the wedding of Betty Lorraine Largent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert Largent of the Midland district, to Richard Takacs, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Takacs of Merrill.

Rites will be solemnized at 12 noon, at the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Louis E. Schneyder of Klamath Falls will be her sister's matron of honor, and Barbara Nyhart of Klamath Falls will be bridesmaid.

Steve Domen of Merrill will be best man.

Chapter

Aloha chapter met in the Masonic hall recently for a special meeting and initiation of candidates. Margaret Sheridan, accompanied by Rhoda Harndon, sang "Star Of The East" during the initiation. Obligation night was observed after the initiation.

Refreshments were served in the banquet room by a committee composed of Jessie Lyle, Ann Pearce, Fern Shoop, Margaret Smith, Gladys Metter, Mrs. Jack Metter and Marguerite Ward.

Mrs. Dorothy Ackerman entertained with Christmas music, accompanied by Beatrice Denison.

Installation of 1947 officers was held on January 4 when appointive officers were named by Helen Listoe, incoming worthy matron.

Senior Circle

On Friday, December 20, the Senior circle of the Community Congregational church met for a potluck luncheon at 1 o'clock in the social hall. Luncheon was served by Mrs. Leo Sutton and Mrs. Ona Bagley to 21 adults and three children. Present were the Rev. Godfrey Matthews, Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Fritz Vance, Mrs. L. E. Henry, Mrs. John Marin, Mrs. W. C. Little, Mrs. S. H. Goddard, Mrs. W. A. McCarty, Mrs. S. R. Berry, Mrs. William Larson, Mrs. J. J. Pex, Mrs. Mattie Bagley, Mrs. W. J. McGilvray, Mrs. B. Morgan, Mrs. Helen Eiting, Mrs. Susan Cullen, Mrs. Clyde James and children, Mrs. Kirk, Dorothy Revell, Mary Eckstein and Mrs. Charles Revell.

The long table was centered with an arrangement of brightly colored glass and holly sprays, together with candles in attractive holders. At 2 o'clock Mrs. Revell, president of the circle, called the meeting to order and the Rev. Matthews led the singing of Christmas hymns and conducted the devotional service.

The nominating committee submitted its report and by a unanimous vote Mrs. Revell was re-elected president, Mrs. W. C. Little, vice president, and Mrs. William Larson, secretary-treasurer.

At the end of the room was a beautiful Christmas tree with many gifts, which were distributed by number to the assembled members and guests.

The next meeting will be on January 17, when new officers will be installed. The place will be announced later.

Degree Meeting

Members of the Degree of Honor met in the KC hall Monday evening, December 23, for their annual Christmas party and exchange of gifts.

There was no business meeting, but those present enjoyed a program of music and readings, and singing of carols. The day's gift went to Ronnie Hershberger.

The Juveniles of the Degree of Honor held their party Monday afternoon in the KC hall with a tree and treats for all who attended.

Luncheon

Members and guests of the Friendly circle met with Estelle Smith of 418 Pacific Terrace for a potluck luncheon on Thursday, December 19, followed by a Christmas tree and party, with an exchange of gifts and gifts from the silent sisters. Fourteen members were present and there were two guests, Helen Eiting and Alice Dahleim.

Rebekahs Hold Last Meeting

On Thursday evening, January 2, Prosperity Rebekah lodge held its last meeting with the 1946 officers in their chairs. Ada Willits, noble grand, presented each officer and member of the degree staff with a souvenir in the lodge colors. The 1946 project of the noble grand was a set of officers' regalia which was presented by her to the district deputy president, Alma Cofer, who accepted the gift for the lodge. The regalia consists of pink and green cords with the emblem of the office attached.

The 1947 officers were installed by Alma Cofer, district deputy president, assisted by Elizabeth Ramsby, deputy grand marshal; Esther Mast, deputy grand warden; Jennie Hurn, deputy grand secretary; Ivy Propst, deputy grand treasurer; Blanche Barker, deputy grand chaplain; Beatrice Denison, deputy grand musician; Martha Baker, deputy inside guardian; Alice Lawrence, deputy outside guardian; O. C. Rice, past noble grand; Frank Hogue, past noble grand; A. Erickson, past noble grand; and Ed Lawrence, vice grand of Klamath Falls IOOF, acted as escorts.

Alma Cofer presented Ada Willits, junior past noble grand, with her official jewel, a gift from Mimmie Willits of Cottage Grove. Elizabeth Ramsby, president of the Past Noble Grand club, welcomed Ada Willits to membership in the club.

Soloists of the evening were Ella Mae Ross and Corinne Larson, accompanied by Beatrice Denison, and the meeting was closed by Ora Sweet, noble grand for 1947.

St. Paul's women's auxiliary held its annual holiday party in late December at the home of Mrs. R. H. Radcliffe. A short devotional service and carols were followed by a reading by the Rev. Godfrey Matthews of the Community Congregational church.

Betty Glidden sang a number of Christmas carols and later, members exchanged gifts. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Gift Exchange

Members of Aloha Past Matrons club gathered at the Masonic temple, Friday, December 27, for a 1 o'clock luncheon, Christmas tree and gift exchange. Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, Mrs. Elizabeth Norris, Mrs. Jennie Hurn and Mrs. Laura Willits were in charge of the luncheon arrangements, while Mrs. Oscar Peyton provided the appropriately decorated Christmas tree and distributed gifts.

Mrs. Fred Cofer, club president, presided during the brief business meeting. Members present for the afternoon were Mrs. Cofer, Mrs. H. G. Wortley, Mrs. Willits, Mrs. Charles J. Martin, Mrs. Elizabeth Norris, Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, Mrs. Alfreda Steinmetz, Mrs. Jennie Hurn, Mrs. Mae Balsiger, Mrs. Ella McMullan, Mrs. Ida Grimes, Mrs. Will Wood, Mrs. Amelia Hanks, Mrs. C. L. Harvey, Mrs. W. B. DeWitt, Mrs. Catherine Casper, Mrs. J. F. Penrod, Mrs. Christine Murdoch and Mrs. Kate Peyton. Mrs. Lorraine Myers, past matron from Wisconsin, now residing in Klamath Falls, was a special guest.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. DeWitt and Mrs. Wortley. Hostesses for the next regular meeting, January 31, will be Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, Mrs. Glen Kent, Mrs. Charlotte Martin and Mrs. Bernice Finch. Mrs. W. B. DeWitt was appointed to visit the sick during the month of January.

Altruia Class

Altruia class of the First Methodist church held its Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Wendell B. Smith of 1114 East street, and the co-hostess was Mrs. Paul Deller. Mrs. Carroll Poole was elected president and Mrs. Stewart Snell, secretary-treasurer.

The outgoing president, Mrs. Willard Preston, reported on completed projects for the past year; books were made for children, and stuffed toys and scrapbooks made from Christmas cards were made and sent to the isolation hospital and the children's farm in Medford. One underprivileged girl was outfitted with clothing and the Altruia and Altruia classes presented a large picture to the church parlors, which now hangs above the fireplace.

Mrs. Victor Phillips received the award for high score in the games which followed the business meeting. Later there was a Christmas gift exchange.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to Mrs. Carroll Poole, Mrs. Eldred Putnam, Mrs. Walter Herndon, Mrs. Bruce Binkley, Mrs. Charles Howrey, Mrs. David Snyder, Mrs. Loy Barker, Mrs. Victor Phillips, Mrs. Stewart Snell, Mrs. Wallace Uerlings, Mrs. Willard Preston and Maude Wetherspoon.
