Mr. and Mrs. Lucky Lopez received word from their daughter, Mrs. Marie Preston of Portland, of the death of her husband, Mr. Preston leaves his wife, Marie, two sons, Dick and Jack, three sisters and one brother. Mrs. Lopez will leave for Portland as soon as possible to look after her affairs.

Bonanza

The regular social meeting of the Women's club of Bonanza was held Tuesday evening, December 17, at the library. Hostesses were Blanche Gowen, Katherine Markham and Daisy Cox.

Three tables of pinocle and one table of bridge were in play during the evening. High score was held by Lois Null with traveling prize held by Mrs. Edith Whitby. In bridge, Noma Becholdt held high, with Mabel Maxwell receiving traveling prize. Lillian Becholdt won the special prize.

An exchange of Christmas gifts was an enjoyable part of the evening's entertainment. Refreshments were served by the hostesses to Birdie Burk, Lenore McMillan, Betty Peppie, Clea Wells, Edith Whitby, Lois Null, Verna Dean Meggs, Ann Olson, Lillian Becholdt, Loia Horn, Mabel Maxwell, Noma Becholdt, Bernice Shapere, Katherine Markham, Blanche Gowen and Daisy Cox.

Fort Klamath

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon, January 6, by Rev. H. James Zeller at the local Methodist church for the late Mary Isabel Loosley, pioneer resident of Klamath and Jackson counties, who passed away Thursday night at the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford following a brief illness, although she had been in failing health for the past several years.

During the services, two soprano solos were sung, including "The Leadeth Me" and "Rock of Ages." Pallbearers were William Brewer, M. L. Ferguson of Chiloquin, C. Brown of Crystal, Hansford T. Williams, A. F. MacQuiston and Harold Wimer. The church services were followed by interment in the family plot in the local Wood River cemetery.

Born in Sheridan county, Mo., December 23, 1864, Mary Isabel Culbertson came to Oregon with her mother, brothers and sisters when a small girl, her father having died when she was an infant. The family settled on a farm on Antelope creek, near Eagle Point, in Jackson county, Ore.

When a young girl, she came to live with her older sister, Mrs. Theodocia Shattuck, near old Fort Klamath. (Mrs. Shattuck passed away last June). It was here that she met John Frederick Loosley, to whom she was married in November, 1885. The couple homesteaded a 160-acre claim and later purchased some 500 more acres of land in Wood River valley, where they engaged in raising cattle, and later operated a large dairy, manufacturing butter and cheese on their own place.

In 1920 they sold their dairy herd and soon after retired, selling part of their local Seven Mile holdings to J. L. Jacob of Malin, Ore. Mr. Loosley died in March, 1940, and since that time Mrs. Loosley has spent most of her time with her children.

Surviving are her daughter, Mrs. Bess Hartley of Prineville; four sons, Forest of Susanville, Cal., Raymond S. of Fort Klamath, Claude of Mantion, Calif., and Merle of Malin; one brother, James Culbertson of Central Point, at whose home she was visiting when suddenly stricken with her final attack of illness, and 14 grandchildren and six great grandchildren. In attendance at the final rites held here Monday afternoon were all of Mrs. Loosley's immediate family, in addition to other relatives and many old friends and neighbors.

The Christmas and New Year's holidays were observed quietly in Fort Klamath, with many gatherings of families and friends. On Christmas day, Mrs. Viola Leever of Klamath Falls was a guest at the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Page, other guests for the day at the Page home including Mrs. Joe Taylor and Ralph Cupp of Fort Klamath.

Several spent the holidays at outside points, among these being Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sisemore and daughter, Jo-Anne, who returned this week from a visit with Mrs. Sisemore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Bressler at Berkeley, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Guss Page have returned from San Anselmo, Calif., where they were guests of Mrs. Page's sister, Mrs. Frank Leone, and her husband, for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Weston Engle are back in Fort Klamath from Oakland, where they were called before New Year's by the death of Mrs. Engle's maternal grandmother.

Keno

A number of Christmas Eve family gatherings were observed by Keno families. Among them was one at the home of Mrs. Gifford in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Gifford is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brown. The Tom Brown, the Howard Brown, and the Robert Glasspool families participated in the affair.

The Guy Moore family also held its traditional Christmas Eve party with children and grandchildren in attendance. Mrs. Roy Atchison, Mrs. Moore's sister, and Atchison were also in the group.

The L. A. Smiths were also hosts at a Christmas Eve party. A "layette" shower was given for Mrs. Dan Scherer at the home of Mrs. Frank Strober on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 12. After enjoying the guest of honor's gifts with her, conversation occupied the afternoon. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Huckinson returned home on December 31 from a trip east, where they were called by the death of a brother of Huckinson's and by the serious illness of Mrs. Huckinson's father.

Mrs. Guy Moore is ill in a Klamath Falls hospital. During her absence from school Mrs. Roy Farrell is substituting for her. Mrs. Moore is teacher of 3th and 8th grades.

Mrs. James Bunch began her work in the first grade room on Monday, December 30. Mrs. Bunch is taking over the work of Miss Lytle, the first grade and music in the six lower grades.

School started on December 30 after a week's vacation. New Year's Day was observed by the school as a holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Denham visited with relatives in the northern part of the state during the Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barnes of the Rainbow lunch are visiting Mrs. Barnes' mother and other relatives in Manhattan Beach, Calif. They left December 22 and expect to return to their home about the first of next week.

Mrs. Lee Honblein's sister, Mrs. Dalenbach and family of Los Angeles, spent several days with the Honblein family during the holidays.

The L. L. Ramsey family had as Christmas guests Kathryn and James Ramsey of Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey made a trip to Portland earlier in December where Mr. Ramsey received medical attention.

Amy Puckett and a friend, Miss Wright, visited at the home of Miss Puckett's mother during the holidays. Jessie Puckett, instructor in the Central Washington College of Education, also spent Christmas at home.

The Vernon Puckett family home returned to their home here after spending about 10 days at Oakland and San Francisco.

Portal Pay Delay Asked. By the Associated Press. With retroactive portal-to-portal pay suits asking a total of more than $4,000,000,000 from industry awaiting court action, three new recommendations were made today to limit employers' liability in such cases.

Acting as a "friend of the court," the National Association of Manufacturers asked the federal court at Detroit, considering the original portal-to-portal suit, to reject all claims for back pay prior to June 10, 1946.

Chinese New Year Startles Police. SEATTLE, Jan. 10 (AP)—Two police prowler cars swooped down a darkened alley in Seattle's Chinatown early today, while at headquarters other officers waited on "stand by" orders.

Soon police radio received this report: "No shooting. Chinese youths with firecrackers celebrating the coming Chinese New Year."

Latest De Soto

Shown above is the new De Soto "Suburban," latest model in the De Soto line. An entirely new idea in body design enables nine people to ride in comfort, plus all luggage as well. The car is built on a seven-passenger limousine chassis and has a wheelbase of 139 1/2 inches. The interior contains three full-width seats, all adjustable for maximum utility. The new car is now on display at Burness Motor company, local De Soto dealer.

Post Office Receipts Drop

The volume of postal receipts has fallen off since the removal of the Marine Barracks and the naval air station from the Klamath Falls vicinity, according to Burt E. Hawkins, postmaster, but not at the rate that would normally be expected.

Hawkins stated that during 1944, when the war-time installations came to the basin, postal receipts increased from 20 to 55 per cent in a very short period of time. The year 1945 set a record for Klamath postal receipts with $241,790.29. Total volume for 1946 was $212,130.60, or a decrease of only 12.268 per cent.

For the last quarter of 1946, total receipts were $65,838.32 as compared with the same quarter of 1945 when the total was $68,047.92. The decrease for the quarter was 3.247, while the decrease percentage for December, 1946, compared to the same month in 1945 was only .16. In December, 1945, receipts totaled $28,909.52 and December, 1946, receipts totaled $20,904.61.

Income Tax Change Asked

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—Senator Magnuson (D-Wash.) said today that "anyone making up to $2400 a year should be exempt from all income taxes."

He also said in a statement that he intends to offer legislation designed to change the existing laws to grant such exemptions and simplify what he said was the too complicated method of figuring the taxes.

"Anyone making up to $2400 a year should be exempt from all income taxes," Magnuson said. "Persons in that income bracket with families can't live when they have to pay taxes in addition to other costs and I shall propose legislation to exempt them."

Magnuson said he favored basing income taxes for individuals entirely on gross net income before deductions.

The senator said he felt that taxes should be simplified so any taxpayer can compute what he owes in "15 minutes."

Woman Loses Fingers in Saw

Mrs. Wetona Griffith, 5462 Cottage, suffered the loss of three fingers on her right hand in an accident at her home early Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Griffith was in surgery at Hillside hospital at 1:30 today. She is said to have been helping her husband with carpentry work when her hand was caught in an electric saw.

Fire Destroys Lumber Mill

PENDLETON, Ore., Jan. 10 (AP) Fire Thursday night destroyed the Harris sawmill and a huge pile of unsawed timber but spared an adjoining box factory and other installations.

Origin of the blaze, which the Pendleton fire department battled for some four hours, was undetermined. Fire Chief William Batchelor said the mill night watchman reported he had gone through the mill on his regular rounds only a few minutes before the blaze was discovered.

The fire began about 9 p. m. Total damage was not estimated immediately but was reported to have been covered by insurance. Mill Owner Clyde Harris expected the mill to be shut down for a month.

Colleges Conduct Navy Research

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10 (AP)—Five Pacific Northwest universities are conducting navy-sponsored scientific research, Capt. R. O. Myers, of the office of naval research, said today.

Two projects in physical chemistry and biochemistry are being conducted at the University of Oregon; two in physical science at Washington State college, and two in physical chemistry and aerodynamics at the University of Washington.

Oregon State college is conducting experimentation in electronics and Reed college is searching into plastics possibilities.

The projects are being financed from a $45,000,000 research appropriation of which $3,000,000 is being spent on the west coast.

Orient Airline To Open Soon

TOKYO, Jan. 10 (AP)—Operation of the New York and Seattle to Shanghai route of the Northwest Airlines is expected to get under way on May 1, Donald King, Northwest vice president in charge of Oriental operations, said here Thursday.

Flights will leave from both New York and Seattle, the former will proceed via Minneapolis, St. Paul and Edmonton, Canada to Anchorage, while the Seattle flight will be non-stop to Anchorage.

Planes then will fly to Shenyang, in the Aleutians, to Tokyo for a stopover, and thence to Shanghai, with occasional trips to Seoul, Korea, King said.

The route west of Anchorage will permit planes to keep within one hour cruising distance of the Aleutians, the Kuriles, Hokkaido and Honshu en route to Tokyo.

King said the company had asked the state department to request emergency landing facilities on the Russian-held Kuriles.

Coast Guard Gets The Lux

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10 (AP)—It looks as if the S. S. Bunker Hill, alias The Lux, which had a respectable start in life as a naval minesweeper, is going back to military duty again.

The gambling barge, seized from Tony Cornero Stralla, was ordered by Federal Judge William C. Mathes turned over to the U. S. coast guard for use by the treasury department. The court affirmed seizure of the Bunker Hill some weeks ago, and ordered its gambling equipment destroyed.

And what of the 36,000 shiny silver dollars seized on the ship and claimed by Stralla? Well, Judge Mathes ordered them impounded for payment of court costs, marshal's fees and possible federal taxes. If anything is left over, presumably Tony will get it.

Fast Pumping Saves Ship

KODIAK, Alaska, Jan. 10 (AP) Officers of the Alaska Steamship company vessel Lakina today credited fast work by the pumps with saving the ship from sinking yesterday after a below-waterline plug in the fire protection system gave way and flooded the engine room 20 miles out of Kodiak.

The vessel was bound for Ketchikan en route to Seattle. Capt. Hans Rynning said had the unusual accident occurred a few hours later, the Lakina's position might have been serious. After being escorted back to Kodiak by a navy vessel, the Lakina was pumped out, and the plug restored.

The vessel resumed its voyage yesterday afternoon.

County Share Of Hospital Road OK

County court members today agreed to finance the construction and maintenance of the county's share of the proposed entrance road to the Veterans hospital site.

About 1400 feet of the road lies outside the city and 700 feet inside. The city and county are now both committed to construct and maintain the entrance route, which will take off from the Old Fort road about half mile above the Main street bridge.

VA officials here this week laid out the proposed entrance route, after vetoing a plan to provide entrance to the site from Hillside street.
