Stocks Drop Again Today

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 (AP)—Stocks, with distillers and amusements in the forefront, negotiated another retreat in today's brief market.

Dealings, quiet at the start, turned relatively active later as offerings became a bit more urgent in virtually all departments. Extreme losses of fractions to 3 points or so were reduced here and there near the close although the minus column remained widely populated. Transfers of around 600,000 shares were among the largest Saturday volumes of the past month.

At new 1946-47 lows were Schenley, Park & Tilford, Twentieth Century-Fox, Paramount Pictures and Transcontinental & Western Air. Casualties included Bethlehem, Chrysler, Goodrich, Goodyear, Montgomery Ward, Western Air Lines, Kennecott, Du Pont, Norfolk & Western, Standard Oil (NJ), U. S. Gypsum, Santa Fe, Union Pacific, American Smelting and International Harvester.

There was little in the spot news to blame for the extension of Friday's stumble. Further heaviness of cotton futures was a factor. Many customers again trimmed accounts because of skepticism over the business outlook in coming months and the desire to await congressional moves on the budget, taxes and other economic problems important to industry.
