

Sarah Parsons Is December Bride

In a simple ceremony read at the First Methodist church on Saturday, December 28, Sarah Elizabeth Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Parsons of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Erwin Heim, son of Mrs. Lina Heim, also of this city.

The Rev. Victor Phillips, pastor, read the double ring ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening before the immediate families and close friends of the young couple. Before the service, Lola Whisenant sang, "Ave Maria" and "Because" accompanied by Elaine Abbott.

News Notes and Comment

By MARY O'BRIEN

For the first time in its history, Pelicana has been presented for twelve consecutive weeks, tonight's broadcast being the final program in the latest series. Editors of tonight's program are Belle Russell and Ruthe Huston.

Talent from the Sacred Heart academy will be featured first on the program with Susan Mary O'Brien giving a reading and Martha MacFeth reciting a poem. Following a dedication ceremony, Betty Glidden will sing a solo. A Skit, "Klamath Theatricals," will be presented by a group including Dee Miller, Rex Mills, Donna McVey, Rosemary Bigbie, and Harlan Bosworth, technician.

Listening time is 7:45 over KFLW. The broadcast is direct from the KUHS auditorium. The new series will begin after an indefinite period of time.

"Tom and Jerry" cartoons were shown in the noon hour today by the sophomores, who sponsored the noon movie. The movies were shown in the main auditorium; admission was 5 cents.

If students know definitely that they must make schedule changes for next semester, they

For her wedding, Miss Parsons chose a dressmaker suit of powder blue with matching hat and a lavender orchid pinned at her lapel. Her sister, Lena Parsons, was maid of honor. She wore a suit of brown with matching accessories. Her flowers were gardenias.

Theodore F. Heim, brother of the groom, was best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony. The bride and groom cut their decorated wedding cake, which was served by Dorothy Badke. Mrs. Carl Bringle, sister of the bride, of Roseburg, poured.

Mr. and Mrs. Heim left soon after for a wedding trip in southern California. They are at home now in Klamath Falls.

CUTTING THEIR WEDDING CAKE are Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Heim. Before her marriage on December 28, Mrs. Heim was Sarah Elizabeth Parsons. They returned recently from a wedding trip in southern California and are now at home in Klamath Falls.

The next meeting with shellcraft will be with Mrs. Ben Derby on February 13.

may do so in the remainder of this week. By making these schedule changes early, counselors hope to lessen their work on Friday of next week when students who fail must drop the classes they failed in.

OREGON CITY, Ore., Jan. 15 (AP)—When Russell H. Fraser's home burned down in the hills east of here, his friends wanted to help him build another.

But they had no lumber. So they went into the woods, felled trees, hauled them to a sawmill and carted the resultant lumber back to Fraser—all in one day.

This week they plan to construct the new building.
