Home Extension Unit News

POE VALLEY-OLENE

Poe Valley-Olene home extension units held one of the most interesting meetings of the year at the Olene community hall last Friday. The project was on "Color in the Home" and the leader was Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen. The half hour preceeding the meeting was taken up with all members preparing floral table favors called "fairy gardens." Poker chips, modeling clay, sprigs of small flowers and fernery were the materials used in these attractive little gadgets that add so much to the party table. Mrs. Wilbur Reiling and Mrs. Forrest Breithaupt were the leaders in this project.

The "Color in the Home" project dealt with the harmonizing of the color scheme of draperies, rugs, wall decorations and the choosing of pictures to make a home both a pleasing and comfortable place to live.

Mrs. William Tuback, chairman of these units, conducted the business meeting and each member answered roll call with a New Year resolution. Mrs. Roland Sturman was in charge of recreation which consisted of guessing games. Each member donated $1 to be used toward the founding of a 4-H house for girls soon to be established at OSC. The name of this house is to be chosen from names submitted by the different units throughout this state.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mary Breithaupt in Poe valley on February 7 and the subject will be bread making. This will be an all-day meeting, starting at 10 a.m. Luncheon will be served at noon. All interested, as usual, are cordially invited to attend and join these units.

MODOC POINT

"Yeast Breads and Rolls" was the demonstration given by the project leaders, Mrs. Earnest Graves and Mrs. W. B. Bickers, at the January meeting of the Modoc Point home extension unit held at the home of Mrs. Graves. Mrs. William Helm made a centerpiece of begonia blossoms for the table and an arrangement of dry, Russian thistle, tumble weed and sage. Mrs. R. J. Thompson resigned her position as secretary-treasurer of the group and Mrs. George Johnson was named. Mrs. Helm was appointed ACWW chairman and read two letters from members in Australia. A successful white elephant sale was held and the group decided to carry the plan on to the following meetings as a means of raising funds. The luncheon menu consisted of vegetable chowder, samples of quick buns, cinnamon nut rolls, peanut butter rolls, cheese and butter rolls and wholewheat buns.

The next meeting, February 13, will feature "Color in the Home" and will be given by Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen at the home of Mrs. George Johnson.

Surplus Welding Rods On Sale

PORTLAND, Jan. 15 (Special) Almost 400 tons of surplus welding rods from regional shipyard stockpiles were offered for sale through sealed bids by Portland war assets administration today. Most of the electrodes are mild steel designed for general purpose welding. Straight lengths are available in standard diameters. Bids should be submitted to WAA offices, Swan island, under list No. PDO-64-585, no later than January 27 at 10 a.m., when they will be publicly opened.

Brush Hide Out Fails For Bandit

PORTLAND, Jan. 15 (AP) — Sheriff's deputies who watched a brushland sector of suburban Portland for more than a week got the break they waited for late yesterday and arrested Louis Purnell, 39, on a charge of assault and robbery involving a taxi hold-up.

Sheriff Martin Pratt reported 20 deputies searched the area after an officer reported finding a box of clothing along the road that later disappeared. Purnell was named by Chester Lee McCoy, arrested January 7, as his companion in a cab hold-up and told officers Purnell was hiding out in the brush. An earlier search was unsuccessful.

Stocks Show Sharp Skid

NEW YORK, Jan. 15 (AP) — Stocks skidded in the final hour of today's market and finished as much as 2 points lower.

The move eliminated early improvement by a number of industrials and extended the decline experienced by several rails. A few favorites managed to resist the trend, but closing prices for most leaders were at lows for the day. Total transfers were in the neighborhood of 800,000 shares.

Losses were registered by Bethlehem, Republic Steel, Southern Railway, Great Northern preferred, Chesepeake & Ohio, U. S. Rubber, Western Union "A," Phelps Dodge, American Smelting, Montgomery Ward, Douglas Aircraft, U. S. Gypsum, Schenley, Union Carbide and Consolidated Edison. Gains were retained by International Harvester, American Can, Allied Chemical and Eastman Kodak.

Railroad bonds softened. Wheat at Chicago closed off ¼ to ⅛ of a cent a bushel, codn down ⅛-¼ to up ½c, and oats ⅛ to ¾c lower. Cotton near the finish was down $1.80 to $3.60 a bale.

Grains Show Small Losses

CHICAGO, Jan. 15 (AP) — Grains eased for small fractional losses on the board of trade today. Profit-taking entering the pits after the preceding session's bulge was the major reason for the decline.

January corn showed relative firmness when compared with other deliveries of that grain. Traders said a small quantity of cash corn was expected to be delivered on January contracts tomorrow.

Oats trading followed the leadership of other grains. Country offerings of cash oats increased sharply with bookings totaling 110,000 bushels. There were also shipping sales of 55,000 bushels of oats.

Wheat closed ¼-⅛c lower, January $2.18½.
