News Notes and Comment

By MARY O'BRIEN

Mrs. Frank Peyton, president of the Parents and Patrons club, reported that there was a satisfactory turnout at its meeting yesterday when the revision of the by-laws regarding dues was read to the assembled parents and faculty. Final vote will not be taken until February 12, the next meeting date, as required by the constitution of the club.

Yesterday's program featured singing by the boys' double quartet, piano solos by Ronnie Tarr, and a talk on the new art project in city schools by Robert Banister. Afterwards cookies and coffee were served in the cafeteria.

Now being appointed are mothers who will act as representatives from each home room. Their duties will include helping on the membership drives and urging attendance at meetings.

Picture taking by the El Rodeo continued today with home rooms 321, 101, 223, 224, 102 and 306 being photographed this morning. The rest of this week activity periods will be devoted to finishing these pictures of freshmen and sophomore home rooms. Beginning next Monday, club and committee pictures are scheduled to be taken.

The new photography class to be given next semester for regular school credit has been narrowed down to 30 enrollees. Charles Carlson, instructor, says the course will include printing, enlarging, toning, retouching, and taking pictures and candid shots. Dark room and photography equipment has been ordered new and some of the order has already been delivered. The new class will be given third period.

Greek Premier Woos Liberals

ATHENS, Jan. 16 (AP) — Premier Constantin Tsaldaris saved his government in a four-hour cabinet session ending early today by wooing the wavering national liberals back to its support.

Vice Premier Stylianos Gonatos previously had told intimates he planned to withdraw support of the national liberals from the government, also under heavy fire from Tsaldaris' own populist party. Although no announcement was made of the decisions of the cabinet, it was apparent that a compromise had been reached.

The political crisis was dissolved, temporarily at least, against a background of continued strife between authorities and partisan fighters.
