TOGETHER AGAIN ARE MRS. CARL STEINSEIFER and her two daughters. Left to right are Mrs. Steinseifer, Mrs. John Charles O'Neill of this city and Faye Steinseifer. Mrs. O'Neill is the former Marlys Steinseifer. Faye was a visitor at home earlier this month. She returned this week for Denver, Colorado, where she is a United Air Lines stewardess. —Guderian.

Single Ring Rites Read On Saturday

White pompon, palms and tall lighted tapers formed the setting for a ceremony read at 12 noon, Saturday, January 11, at the First Presbyterian church when Betty Lorraine Largent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert Largent of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Richard Takacs. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Takacs Sr., of Merrill.

The Rev. David Barnett read the single ring ceremony before the families and many friends of the young couple. As guests assembled, Carl Hagel sang "O, Promise Me" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre, Wilma Smith and Willie Mae Randall, gowned in frocks of yellow, lighted the candles.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Hilbert Largent, who gave her in marriage. Her gown was that worn by her sister, Mrs. Louis Schneyder at her wedding. The white slipper satin bridal dress was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, a trim of seed pearls, long, fitted sleeves, and a short train. Her fingertip veil of dainty silk illusion net is a family heirloom, worn by the bride's mother. The veil was held in place with a band of white shattered carnations. Miss Largent's bouquet was of the same flowers encircling a center arrangement of pink carnations.

Mrs. Louis Schneyder, sister of the bride, was her matron of honor. She wore a gown of yellow net and carried a Colonial bouquet of small flowers and yellow streamers. Barbara Nyhart was the bridesmaid. Her frock was of blue net, and her bouquet was in blue, similar to that of the matron of honor. Best man was Steve Domen, cousin of the bridegroom. Ted Rupert and Louis Schneyder were ushers.

The bride and groom cut the first piece of their three-tiered wedding cake at the reception which followed the service. The cake, encircled in a wreath of sweetheart roses, centered the bride's table. Mrs. Lee Sutton served, and Mrs. L. D. Gass poured. At the punch bowl was Mrs. Almond Gregory. Verda Heidlund was in charge of the guest book.

Soon afterward, Mr. and Mrs. Takacs left for a wedding trip in southern California. For traveling, the bride wore a suit of gray wool gabardine with a pink hat and black accessories. The pink carnations from her bouquet were pinned at the lapel of her suit. After two weeks, the young couple will be at home in Merrill.

Out of town guests here for the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Holmes of Fort Jones, aunt and uncle of the bride; Mrs. W. C. Martinez and Lucille Bayless of Portland.

Chapter

Vacation

It was a busy vacation for Fay Steinseifer. Miss Steinseifer arrived in Klamath Falls January 2 to spend two weeks at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Steinseifer of Eldorado street.

A round of luncheons, parties and dinners were given in her honor before she left this week for Denver, Colorado. She has been a stewardess for United Airlines for the past six months and is stationed at Denver.

On Tuesday evening, last week, Mr. and Mrs. Steinseifer entertained for their daughter with open house when many friends dropped in. Buffet refreshments were served from a table decorated with bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums flanked by apple green tapers.

Inspection

Mrs. Esther Dunlap of Eugene, grand guardian of Jobs Daughters in Oregon, held an official inspection of Klamath Falls Bethel on Thursday afternoon. After a school of instruction, a potluck dinner was served at 6:30 in the evening. Mrs. Jack Schulze and Mrs. W. L. Poole were hostesses, assisted by mothers of the line officers.

AAUW Entertains State President

The Klamath Falls branch of the American Association of University Women honored its state president, Mrs. C. D. Winston, at a dinner meeting in the Winema hotel on Wednesday, January 15. Mrs. Winston is registrar and dean of women at the Southern Oregon College of Education at Ashland.

She reviewed briefly the history of the founding of the national association in 1888. From early sectional "alliances of college women" sprang the national and international association. The national association sponsors the awarding of fellowships and gives study aid grants to a group of exceptional foreign women students.

New Season

After a period of inactivity, the Toastmistress club is reorganizing. First meeting to formulate plans for the club's new season was held on Thursday evening, January 16, at the home of Anne Price of North Ninth street. The group disbanded during the war.

At the next meeting on January 22, at the home of Mrs. Helen Mueller of North Ninth street, Dorothea Beckwith will be chairman. The program will consist of a brief study of parliamentary procedure, how to introduce guests properly and a short talk on aims and possibilities of the club.

Future meetings will be held on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month at 7:30 in the evening. Anyone wishing to join the group is asked to call 4698 afternoons and evenings, or 6695 any time.

Concert Scheduled For Tuesday Eve

Klamath Falls is in for another musical treat this coming Tuesday night when Gregor Platigorsky, "The greatest cellist of our day," appears in the second of a series of concerts under the banner of the Klamath Community Concert association. The place—the Pelican theatre; the hour—8 o'clock.

The term, "greatest cellist of our day" was given Platigorsky by Serge Koussevitzky whose place in the musical world is not questioned. Platigorsky is attributed as having a wonderful stage personality as well as a great cellist. Wayman Adams' canvas Institute first prize. In fact in a story published by The New York Times in February, 1945, Katherine Ward Lane, sculptress, who holds the Joan of Arc medal for the National Association of Women Painters and Sculptors, lists the 10 most handsome men in the United States and includes Platigorsky as No. 4 and says—"he is marvellously proportioned, though massive." We're passing this on to the ladies who will probably bank solid the first 10 rows.

As usual, no seats will be sold at the door and admission is by membership only. There are no reserved seats. Platigorsky's programs had not arrived Friday and though it was planned to present the program today, the numbers will be given Monday if they reach this desk on time.

Honored

Mrs. Keith Walroth was honored at a shower given on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George A. Bandon, 2330 Garden avenue. Gifts were presented in a decorated bassinette. Refreshments were served to the guest of honor, Mrs. C. G. Hoover, Mrs. Clarence Miller, Mrs. Neale Owens, Mrs. Ned Smith, Mrs. J. V. Wachter, Mrs. Flowers, Lavonne Earnest, Mrs. George Earnest and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beane of 1125 Pacific Terrace are leaving today to drive to Arizona where they will spend a month's vacation. Their daughter and son-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Clayton Adams, will remain here during their absence.

Luncheon

Mrs. Vernon Norval entertained with a luncheon and bridge party in honor of Mary Alice Blocklinger, bride-elect of Richard Alex Atiyeh of Portland, at the Pelican party room on Friday, January 10. The pretty table was centered with an arrangement of red roses and tall white tapers. Bouquets of white chrysanthemums were placed about the room.

Place cards were black and white sketched figures of a miniature bride and groom.

Guests were Miss Blocklinger, Mrs. A. F. Blocklinger, Mrs. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Mitchell Tillotson, Mrs. Arthur Schupp, Mrs. Roy Rakestraw, Mrs. Emil Albrecht, Mrs. Paul Sharp, Mrs. G. C. Lorenz, Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. Carl Steinseifer, Mrs. Claude Davis, Thirza DeCew, and Mrs. Harry Ravizza and Mrs. Walter Zimmerman of Chilquin.

High score winners were Mrs. Rakestraw, Mrs. Schupp, and Mrs. Adams. The special award went to Mrs. Lorenz.

Speaker

The Woman's Library club of Klamath Falls held its monthly meeting on January 13 when Malveson Parker spoke on "My Months in the Philippines as an Army Nurse." Miss Parker spent ten months in the Philippines and gave a very interesting account of her experiences there. She displayed pictures of life on the islands, and souvenirs she brought back with her.

Mrs. Don Zumwalt, music chairman, substituted for Mrs. A. A. Williams who was unable to appear on the program. Mrs. Zumwalt played two piano solos, "The Adagio from the Sonata Pathetique" by Beethoven and "Nocturne in E Flat by Chopin."

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. E. D. Hamacher and Mrs. L. K. Phelps. Decorations were arranged by Mrs. W. D. Miller.

The next meeting of the Library club will be on Monday, February 10, when the drama study group, under the direction of Mrs. B. B. Blomquist, will present the play "I Know George Washington," in the Little Theatre at KUHS.

The annual benefit bridge tea will be held on Saturday, February 22, at the Willard hotel with Mrs. Ray W. Oldenburg as tea chairman and Mrs. K. A. Moore, bridge chairman.

Knife And Fork

Members of the Klamath Falls Knife and Fork club will hear Willard Mayberry, a newspaperman who likes to be known as a farmer, on Monday evening, January 20, at the Willard hotel. Mr. Mayberry will speak on "What Farming Means to City-Dwellers." He is editor and publisher of an Elkhart, Kansas, newspaper, and has lectured on numerous occasions throughout the country on his avocation, farming.

In charge of arrangements for the dinner meeting are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Henzel, and on the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. William Hagelstein, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lemler, Mr. and Mrs. Delos Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Lee S. McMullen and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Roycroft. Mr. Henzel will introduce the speaker.

Bridge Party

Mrs. John Charles O'Neill entertained with an evening of bridge in honor of her sister, Fay Steinseifer, on Friday evening at her Auburn street home.

Guests were Miss Steinseifer, Audrey Honzel, Dorothea Ellingson, Jean Merrill, Mrs. Richard Gallagher, Mrs. Thomas Watters, Mrs. Bob O'Connor, Mrs. Robert Erlanson, Mrs. Ivan Kandra, Mrs. Rex Hiatt and Mrs. Carl Steinseifer.

High score went to Mrs. Gallagher and low to Mrs. Hiatt.

The table was decorated with a low arrangement of violets and maiden hair fern with yellow tapers.

Mrs. Sam Ackerman, accompanied by Mrs. D. J. Zumwalt, presented a group of songs. Mrs. Harold Van Hoesen, social chairman, was in charge of the function, assisted by Mrs. A. L. Brandt.

A BRIDE OF JANUARY 11 was Monnette Calmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Calmes of Keno. She exchanged vows with John J. Zarosinski of Klamath Falls in a ceremony at the First Methodist church. After returning from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Zarosinski will make their home in Keno. —Kennell-Ellis.

Vows Exchanged In Evening Ceremony

Vows were exchanged in a pretty mid-winter ceremony on Saturday evening, January 11, when Monnette Calmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Calmes of Keno, became the bride of John J. Zarosinski of this city. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Zarosinski.

The double ring rites were solemnized before the families and a large group of friends of the young couple at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist church by the Rev. Victor Phillips, pastor. Before the ceremony, Mr. Robert Craig sang, "Because" and "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Mrs. John O'Connor, pianist who also played traditional wedding music.

Candlelight, woodwardia fern and white flowers formed the setting for the nuptials. Bouquets of white carnations and stephanotis marked the pews.

Lighting tapers before the ceremony were Kathryn Ramsey and Violet Vincent, both gowned in pink.

Miss Calmes was given in marriage by her father. She chose traditional white for her wedding gown, which was fashioned of brocade satin with net overskirt and long fitted sleeves. Her full-length veil was edged in lace and fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white muff topped with two white orchids.

Maid of honor was Lena Parsons. Her gown was of blue brocade satin. She carried a yellow muff trimmed with blue net and rosebuds. Her headdress was of matching net and flowers.

Ruth Merrill and Alice Vincent were bridesmaids, attired in identical gowns of pink net with blue muffs trimmed in roses.

Best man was Ray Zarosinski, and ushers were Don and Joe Zarosinski, brothers of the groom.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Zarosinski cut their wedding cake, and Mrs. Junior Wagner served the confection. Mrs. Michael McAuliffe, sister of the bride, poured. At the punch bowl were Junior Wagner, Stanley Starkey and Guy Merrill. Mrs. B. W. Smith had charge of the guest book, and assisting about the rooms were Ruth Merrill, Betty Merrill and Mrs. R. J. Michaels.

The young couple left for a wedding trip of a week or 10 days, and will be at home, upon their return, in Keno. For going away, Mrs. Zarosinski wore a suit of gold shade with brown accessories. Her flowers were white orchids.

Wedding Bells

In a ceremony read in the First Methodist church of Reno, Nevada, on December 14, Joan L. Lockhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lockhart of Gilchrist, became the bride of Lester J. Snider, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Snider, also of Gilchrist.

For her wedding, Miss Lockhart chose a frock of chartrreuse and black, with a black picture hat and black accessories. She carried a single white orchid.

Accompanying the couple to Reno were Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Miller, of this city. Mrs. Miller, matron of honor, wore a dress of black with a corsage of red roses pinned at the shoulder. Her accessories were of black.

After February 14, Mr. and Mrs. Snider will be at home in Gilchrist. She is employed at Lorenz company, and Mr. Snider is with the Gilchrist Timber company.

Drama

The drama group of the American Association of University Women, Klamath Falls branch, will ring the bell again when it presents the one-act play, "I know George Washington."

It is with pleasure that folks who have been fortunate enough to see productions of the drama group in the past, greet the word that another play is now under way and will be presented before AAUW at 2 o'clock the afternoon of Saturday, February 8, and again on Monday, February 10, at 2:30 o'clock for the pleasure of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club.

Mrs. B. B. Blomquist is directing the play which deals with the Revolutionary war period. The players are in costumes of that era.

Taking parts in "I know George Washington," are Julia Zumwalt, Margaret Larkin, Pat Erlanson, Nye Patterson, Emma Jane Banister, Irma Wauchope and Helen O'Neill. There will be more later about this play which sounds, first off, like a gem.

THE BETROTHAL of Louisa Keller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keller of this city, was announced over the holidays. Miss Keller will become the bride of Bob Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Horton. The date has not yet been set. —Kennell-Ellis.
