

Permits Hit New Low

A new low in the value of building permits issued by the city council was reached Monday night with only six permits for a total value of $1090.

The largest single permit was issued to H. O. Dodson for building an addition to a residence on lot 6, block 53, of Buena Vista addition. The permit was for a value of $375.

Other permits were granted to:

- K. M. Moty, repairs to building, 7th and Klamath, $250.
- K. M. Boydstein, new garage, 2243 Kiln, $200.
- Holtzapple and Pedigo, repair fire loss, 2006 Oregon, $100.
- Grems Roof Service, repair roof, county library building, $90.
- Sam Neslin, shelving for store, 8th and Main, $75.

Church Plans For Ceremony

On Wednesday members and friends of the First Christian church will witness a special service when leaders chosen by the congregation will be installed in their new positions.

Evangelist Elvira A. Parrish of Portland, who was with the local church in October and November, 1946, will conduct the service. He comes from San Diego, Calif., where he is holding a series of meetings.

All elders, deacons, and deaconesses are asked to be present at 7:15 p. m. promptly. The service will begin at 7:30 p. m., and the public is cordially invited.

"BLOWN-IN" INSULATION SAVES FUEL

Insulation blown into the attic of your house will save up to one-third of your fuel, give better heat circulation, and keep your house cooler in summer. Photo shows method of installation. Insulation may be installed on terms, with no money down. For complete information, phone the Kuhlman Insulating Company, 8749 or 8288. Free estimates. Every job guaranteed, by a local, home-owned company.
