The Parents and Patrons of Klamath Union high school held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the Little Theatre. School was dismissed early so that the teachers could meet with them.

The main article of business was the reading of the amendment to the by-laws to raise dues. It is the plan of the organization to give the banquet free to the seniors this year.

The program that followed featured two numbers by the boys' octette, introduced by Andrew Loney Jr. and accompanied by Patricia Hunt; piano solos by Ronnie Tarr, and a talk by Robert Banister, art instructor, on the new art project in city schools. Mr. Banister displayed very interesting drawings. Stanley Woodruff spoke briefly and expressed his appreciation to Mrs. Frank Peyton and her officers for their efforts.

Coffee and cookies were served by the committee in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Peyton is now appointing mothers to act as home room representatives. They will help in the membership drive and urge parents to attend these meetings. The next meeting date will be February 12.

The Junior Girls Friendly society held a party on Friday evening, January 17, when members and their guests enjoyed refreshments and dancing.

Mrs. Milton Sessler, Mrs. A. J. Toyly, Mrs. William Owens and Hazel Morrison assisted in the party preparation.

Present were Carol Elliott, Kathleen McIntee, Sue Sessler, Vargie Toyly, Darlene Gully, Jane Stahl, Alice McKendree, Patay Lehto, Geraldine Lee, Marlene Owens, Shirley Keesee, Sharon Miles.

Harold Shirer, Mike Burke, James Pryor, Ronnie Mitchell, Ingram Montgomery, Richard Hilton, David Maxwell, James Stark, Glenn Winkle, and Clair Bliffman.

At a meeting last week the girls elected new officers, who are Sue Ramsby, president; Darlene Gully, vice president; Shirley Keesee, secretary, and Marlene Owens, treasurer.

Installation of officers, scheduled for the meeting, was not held. It was voted to subscribe to the church budget as usual.

Idolone Schupp of 530 N. 10th was hostess to the Thursday Contract club on January 16. Betty Wood, a guest, held high score, Fannie Thompson, second, and Ruth Palmer, also a guest, received the traveling award. Clara Standish will be the hostess on Thursday, January 30.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Morten, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Don MacKin, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Street, Mr. and Mrs. C. Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hamilton, Elmont Kenyon, Mr. and Mrs. M. Loosley, Mr. and Mrs. L. Petrick, Mr. and Mrs. George Smalley, Mr. and Mrs. F. Paygr, Joe Chotard, John Chotard, Effa Johnson and Mrs. Evans.

The next meeting will be a social on Tuesday, January 28, with motion pictures shown by the West-Hitchcock corporation.

"I forgot to tell you we have a 'Fibber McGee' closet!" That's the beauty of having Consolidated Freightways men move your household goods. They can take them—anywhere—while you take it easy. They offer you two services to take care of every household moving need:

1. Moving Van service—modern trucks, trained crews, careful packing—even "wardrobe service."
2. Freightliner Pack-Crate-Ship service—packing, crating and shipping anywhere.

Visit

The Eagles auxiliary reports a good attendance at recent meetings, and on Tuesday evening members discussed the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Bryan of Bremerton, Wash., to the Medford aeris this week-end. Mr. Bryan is grand work-president of the FOE. Those who desire to go to Medford for the meeting on Sunday are asked to contact Andy Meek if they do not have transportation.

The auxiliary is conducting a membership drive and contest between the drill team and drum corps. Winner of the contest will be entertained by the losing group.

The drill team is practicing every Friday evening for the state convention in Medford in June and the district convention to be held here some time in February or March, with the exact date to be announced later. The drum corps practices on Monday nights under the direction of Karl Smykil.

Session

Prosperity Rebekah lodge met in regular session in the IOOF hall Thursday evening, January 16, with Ora Sweet, noble grand, presiding. Charlotte Martin, chaplain, named as her supporters May Phinney and Louise O'Brien. Following the business meeting an old-fashioned spelling bee was conducted by May Phinney. Ada Willis received the contest award for ability in spelling.

Tea Plans

MERRILL—A "get-together tea" is being planned by the Missionary Aid of the Merrill Presbyterian church to greet newcomers, particularly young matrons, who are interested in church affiliation or membership in the aid. The tea will be held in the manse on Wednesday afternoon, February 12, with hours from 2 to 5.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Kenneth Brown, Mrs. W. E. Jinnette, Mrs. Miles Moore and Mrs. Velton Haskin. Plans were made this week at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Bernice Wilson. Present were Mrs. Miles Moore, Mrs. George Offield, Mrs. Haskins, Mrs. Martin Winther, Mrs. E. N. Eagle, Mrs. Pickett, Mrs. Stanley Anderson, Mrs. Frank Hadley, Mrs. Jinnette and Mrs. Wilson.

The group will also sponsor a food and apron sale on Saturday, February 1, at Jones store.

Handicrafts

The Art Needlework club, the oldest social club in Klamath Falls, has on its membership roll a number of women who are especially skilled in various handicrafts. The club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, 228 North Seventh street.

Mrs. Martin has seven heirloom chairs, each of different design, from early American craftsmen, and each chair is upholstered in colorful needlepoint. Mrs. Martin's own handwork.

Collecting buttons is another hobby of Mrs. Martin's. She has close to 2000 buttons gathered from all parts of the world by soldiers, sailors, marines and personal friends. She has mounted the buttons on specially designed cardboards which are labeled as to the type of button. Members learned of the interest attached to a collection of buttons when they are systematically arranged and labeled with their proper historic interest.

Special guests invited by the hostess at the Wednesday meeting were Mrs. M. S. Biden and Mrs. E. M. Bubb. Members present included Mrs. George Wirtz, club president; Mrs. R. H. Anderson, Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mrs. Z. J. Powell, Mrs. W. P. McMillan, Mrs. Marion Hanks, Mrs. C. H. Underwood, Mrs. George Hurn, Mrs. J. F. Goeller, Mrs. Calvin Hunt, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. Wilbur A.
