

Tips On How To Get Along Outside The Old Home Town

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK, Jan. 29 (AP)—America is on the move.
Very few guys idle with their boots on now in the same county where they were born.
So it pays to know how to spread around.
That's America. That's the way the country has always been since Patrick Henry said "Give me liberty or—give me elbow room."

The slogan that caught the most eyes was:
"Move on."
But you've got to do more than move along. You've got to belong. Otherwise you never stop moving.

There probably are more people moving in the states now than at any time since Virginia and Massachusetts took up housekeeping.

But moving and getting along are two different things. Covered wagons don't impress the Indians in California any more, not even those who draw their paychecks from the horse opera.

Your gift to wherever you go isn't anything else but you. Nowadays there is no frontier to move to—not in the physical sense—but the best tradition of the world's best melting pot goes on, regardless of class or creed.

The sons and grandsons of the men who heeded Horace Greeley's "Go west, young man," now turn east and show the New Yorkers how to run their own stock market. The second world war only accentuated the urge to keep on the go. With the growth of faster means of travel America shrinks like boiled wool underpants in a July sun.

People don't gauge you so much by who your granddaddy "fit with" as by who you are.

Today—if a stranger wants to make his place—he can cast anchor wherever he thinks it will profit him. Old prejudices are dying; opportunity is everywhere.

Years of travel have convinced me that America's greatest natural resource is its reservoir of good will, the basic desire of one man to help another, friend or newcomer. The stigma of the stranger is ended.

I would like to say that this good will is basically an American trait, but the truth is that it is a characteristic of mankind. We are all built so that we want to see the next guy get along—if not as well as ourselves, then almost as well.

And we are also built so that we want to help the outlander. If he is humble enough to ask our advice. So are every other people I meet in travels through fifty countries.

It is all up to the individual traveler. Hospitality is no monopoly of any one financial class or color. Good manners are the same everywhere, whether you are offered barbecued lambs' eyes, a delicacy in the middle east, or good steak, Gotham's delight. The host still wants you to have a good time on the best he can provide.

When you come to a strange city or country, the worst thing you can be is lonely, self-centered or aloof.
This is cowardice and easy. It makes it pleasant to be sorry for yourself—and that is the greatest danger anyone can indulge in, a dissipation more perilous than wine or opium.
The thing to do when you come to a strange city or country is to avoid its meaningless pitfalls. Look up the people who have the same hobbies or religious faith you have, or who belong to the same lodge.
If you can't find them, then introduce yourself to the other folk you encounter. But never change your feathers just to please them. The thing most people are most homesick for is to talk to interesting people they don't know. Stay yourself. They'll like you for that alone. The world is broader-minded than you are.
The one crime is to go somewhere and be alone.

Wenatchee Spring Festival Planned
WENATCHEE, Jan. 30 (AP)—The nationally known Wenatchee spring festival will be held again this year for the 29th consecutive season but it has been rechristened the Washington State Apple Blossom Festival, the committee in charge said today.
The dates, determined by the blooming of the trees, have not been set.

Escaped Convict Still At Large
SEATTLE, Jan. 30 (AP)—Sheriff Harlan S. Callahan said today he believed Frank Everett Lindsay, convicted wife slayer who escaped from the state prison Sunday, will "hole up" until the excitement dies down and then try to migrate to some foreign country, probably Australia.
Callahan said he based his belief on Lindsay's "past performances when hunted."

Teachers Get Pay Boost

PORTLAND, Jan. 30 (AP)—Salaries of 1500 city teachers were raised $236 for the rest of the fiscal year by the school board last night, but the board said any raises in 1947-48 would depend on revenue and a balanced budget at that time.
The board announced the raises would require $370,000 in deficit financing. The vote was 5 to 1. One member was absent.
Two members who changed their previous position on the teachers' union demands for the current year said they approved the measure only as emergency action.

The teachers were meeting elsewhere in a mass session protesting the board's earlier refusal to grant salary increases.
The board took no action on demands for $800 raises for 1947-48 and indicated any boosts in the next school year would depend on Portland electors authorizing new revenue.

Confessed Murderer Passes 18th Birthday In Jail Cell

EVERETT, Jan. 30 (AP)—Harold R. Cameron, said by Prosecutor Phil Sheridan to have confessed the brutal slaying of J. L. Siler, Monroe contractor, passed his 18th birthday anniversary in the solitude of a Snohomish county jail cell today.
The youth was turned over to county authorities yesterday for prosecution.
A similar request by Sheridan for custody of the youth's girl companion was continued by Superior Judge Charles R. Denny said he had "done time" at the Luther Burbank school on Mercer island "for skipping" school and at the state training school in Chehalis. He was released from the latter school last September.

Still a closely guarded secret was the actual motive behind the slaying. The prosecutor said earlier, however, the motive was known although it had not been developed in talks with the youth.

Harlan S. Callahan's staff, two of Cameron's acquaintances said the boy told them he had obtained a car by "hitting a man over the head and wrapping him up in a blanket above Monroe."
Siler's body was found Tuesday in Wood creek, eight miles northeast of Monroe. Authorities said the youth admitted having fired 14 shots, seven of which hit Siler according to Dr. Gale
