Farm Information Centers Planned

CORVALLIS, Jan. 30 (AP)—Eighteen information centers will be established along major highways of seven western states this year to guide migrant farm workers into the areas where they are needed.

Oregon State college extension service said three of the centers would be in Oregon: at Huntington, Biggs, and Junction City. Actual job placement will remain as before in county farm labor offices.

Itinerant labor will be more important this season than during past years, said J. R. Beck, state supervisor of the emergency farm labor program.

Merrill Rebekahs Give To Polio Fund

A contribution of $5 was voted by Merrill Rebekahs for the March of Dimes at the last regular session with Sylvia Jones, noble grand, in the chair.

A collection was taken for the educational fund of the lodge to help educate children in the Odd Fellows Home.

Plans for the fall carnival were discussed by Hazel McNeill chairman, and the birthday committee with the same members as last year served refreshments. Initiation will be held March 3.

Lead Stocks Take Losses

NEW YORK, Jan. 30 (AP)—Individual stocks contested profit taking with some success today although many market leaders were thrown for losses.

Steels led another rally following considerable irregularity in a relatively active forenoon. Most favorites failed to follow through and extreme gains running to 2 points or so were reduced as dealings tapered. While selected pivotals maintained modest plus signs near the close, declines were plentiful. Transfers for the full stretch ran to around 1,400,000 shares.

Holding to the rising side were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Western Union "A," Delaware & Hudson, American Woolen, Celanese, Montgomery Ward, Douglas Aircraft, Eastman Kodak, U. S. Gypsum, Dow Chemical, Union Carbide and American Power & Light.

Laggards included Republic Steel, Chrysler, Sears Roebuck, U. S. Rubber, Woolworth, American Smelting, General Electric, American Can, Coca-Cola and Santa Fe.

Bonds turned a bit uneven. Cotton, toward the finish, was off 60c a bale to 50c higher. At Chicago wheat ended up ⅞ to 1⅛c a bushel, corn ⅛ to ½c and oats unchanged to off ⅛c.

Wheat Gains New High

CHICAGO, Jan. 30 (AP)—Wheat advanced to new highs on the current upward movement today, imparting a strong undertone to other sections of the grain market.

March and September wheat established new seasonal peaks. An advance in parity prices from mid-December to mid-January, strength in cash markets and weather conditions combined to create demand for wheat.

Trade reports said the commodity credit corporation was making inquiries concerning cash wheat prices, but that no business was accomplished.

Lard was firm, nearby contracts reaching new seasonal highs. Strength in cash lard and vegetable oils supported the buying. Corn was up fractionally. Oats showed less strength than other futures.

Wheat closed ⅞-1⅛c higher, March $2.12⅞.
