See Paulette Goddard in Paramount's "SUDDENLY IT'S SPRING"

PAULETTE GODDARD says:
"Mix it with chocolate or serve it straight
You can't make a bad cup of M-J-B"

Paulette's Hot Coffee Choca—heavenly hunch for midnight snackers

HOT COFFEE CHOCA
Heat milk (as many cups as you wish to serve), add three or four tablespoons M.J.B. Choca Syrup* and additional sugar if desired.

"BASIC CHOCA SYRUP"
1 cup, own starch 7 oz. package semi-sweet chocolate bits
Blend cornstarch and sugar; add 1/2 cup this paste into 1 1/2 cups M.J.B. add chocolate bits and cook until chocolate is completely melted and mixture thickened.

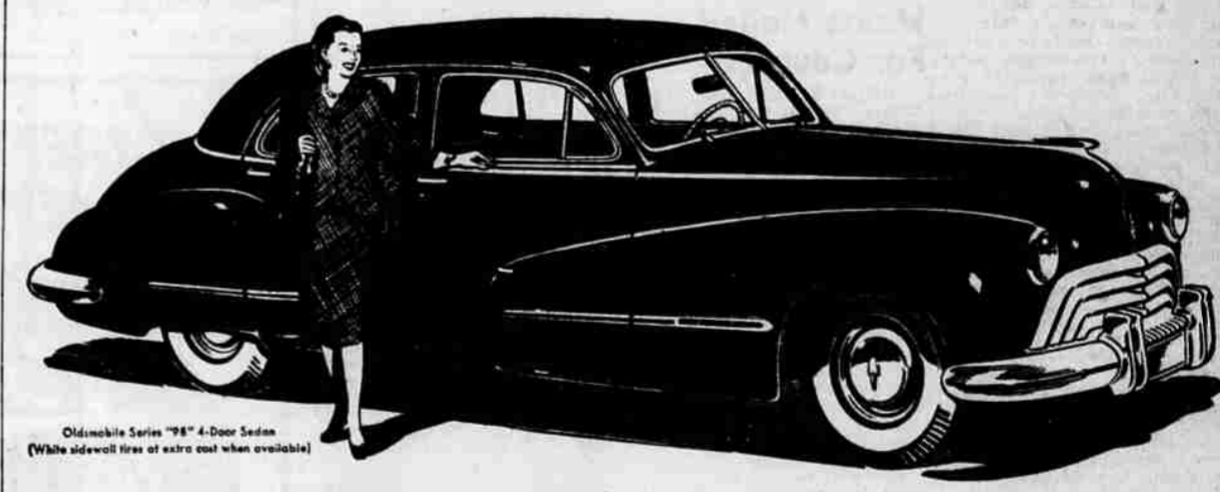

US: Let's not be hasty, Paulette; think it over. Why not just take M.J.B. straight? Get all the goodness we blend into M.J.B.; savor the clear, full, satisfying flavor of those precious, high-grown coffees that we search the whole world to find.

PAULETTE: But you say yourselves that you can't make a bad cup of M.J.B. And it's true! Whether I make it strong or weak or use it in Hot Coffee Choca, that wonderful M.J.B. bouquet sings through every sip. Just see what M.J.B. does for Coffee Choca.

US: You're right, it tastes as good as you look. Let's have another while I remind you that one reason for M.J.B.'s goodness is its individual roast. None of the flavor is cooked out, it's gently roasted just enough to coax out all the goodness for your cup.

No finer coffee packed... we guarantee it

- Only the world's choicest coffee beans go into M.J.B.
- A special roasting process brings out all of M.J.B.'s flavor.
- M.J.B. Coffee is protected by a higher vacuum packing process.
- That's why we say there is no finer coffee on the market.
