

Concert Personnel Will Give Program

The Klamath Choral society is the name chosen for the community concert which is now hard at work on its initial debut to music lovers of the city. Carl Hagel is president of the society; Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen, vice president; Mrs. Marvin Nerseith, secretary-treasurer; Charles R. Stark, publicity.

Andrew Loney Jr. is director of the society and Patricia Hunt is the accompanist. Both have worked long hours to bring the best of choral literature before the chorus, including "The New Earth," an ode for mixed chorus and solos, music by Henry Hadley, one of the greatest American contemporary composers.

Rehearsals are held each Monday at 8 p. m. at Klamath Union high school. The date of the first concert will be announced later.

New Officers

TULLELAKE—Mildred Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Reid, was installed Wednesday night as worthy advisor of the Tulelake Assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls. She succeeds Helen Stoddard. Phyllis Rowan serves spring term as associate advisor and other officers are Jerrylou Wilson, Hope; Janel Boyd, Charity; Patsy Terry, Faith. Carolyn Zlabek, secretary and Rosalie Wilkinson, treasurer will continue in office for the remainder of the year. Mrs. N. C. Wilkinson is mother advisor.

The coming four months will see an active program in the assembly, members planning to entertain late in February at the annual father and daughter banquet. Mothers' Day will also be observed in this administration, a supper party for the seniors in the assembly is planned and the girls will raise funds for buying a wheel chair for veterans, the third to be purchased.

BPW Meeting

The Business and Professional Women's club members will gather at a regular dinner meeting on Monday, February 3, at the Willard hotel at 6:30 p. m. A short business meeting will be held during the dinner hour, and a special musical number will be given.

This will be followed by an old-fashioned square dance, Edna Bowman, teacher at Fremont school, will call the dances and she will have a piano accompanist. Members are asked to come in costume appropriate for the dance. A prize will be awarded the best costume. Members may come without special costume and bring their guests. The committee in charge is planning an enjoyable evening. May Phinney is general program chairman for the club, and Lydia Howard and Ora Mae Hawkins are co-chairmen for this meeting.

USO camp shows troupes increased the number of their performances in veterans administration hospitals and homes from less than 500 in June to more than 700 in November.

Soroptimist Club Told Of Project

The Klamath Falls Soroptimist club met for a luncheon meeting Thursday noon at the Pelican party room at which time Kathleen Thompson reported on the work being done by the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, and the need for this work in every state. The organization supplements, but does not duplicate, the work of other agencies for crippled children. At the present time the society is centering interest on cerebral palsy and rheumatic fever, the latter having more ravaging effects in our state than in any other.

Birthday

Kathryn Ramsey, who was nineteen on January 27, was honored with a birthday dinner at the home of Mrs. Ross Simmers, 645 Alameda. The table was centered with a low arrangement of mixed blossoms. Kathryn opened her gifts following the dinner and Eleanor and Joy Simmers played several piano numbers. Mrs. Simmers was assisted by Mrs. Helen Rowell. Places were marked at table for the guest of honor, Kathryn, Violet and Alice Vincent, Marian Marin, Lena Parsons, Pauline Puckett, Marian Scheiferstein, Betty Joiner, Ella Jones, Shirley Stenman, Laraine Stenman, Eleanor Simmers and Joy Simmers.

Potluck Supper

Catholic Daughters of America, their husbands and friends, met for a potluck supper and social evening in the parish hall Monday evening at 7 o'clock with Kathleen Maguire, chairman, assisted by Lola Henning, Virginia Herlihy, Dorothy Derrah, Helen Egan, James Moty, Margaret McDaniel, Libby Meroney, Cora Mutchie and Mae Carrier in serving the buffet supper. Susan Gans gave two readings "The Highway Man" and "Baseball Game" and Harriet Lavenik sang "Schulz-winkel" and "The Roaming Gypsy" accompanied by Elaine Abbott. Later bingo was played with Dennis Carrier in charge.

Wednesday evening, January 29, the Catholic Daughters sponsored a Convert League meeting and 50 were present. This is the outstanding project of the Daughters this year and a meeting will be held once a month, the time to be announced later. The purpose of these meetings is to get better acquainted with the members of the church and their families and to gain a more thorough knowledge of its religion.

A very interesting talk was given by Lynn Roycroft, his subject, "Why I Became a Catholic." Mildred Smith, chairman, introduced the speakers and the musical numbers in the program which followed. Donna Powers sang "In The Silence Of The Night," accompanied by Elaine Abbott and Susan Gans recited a poem "God's Mercy," written by one of the Court members, Mrs. Joe Mahoney. Miss Gans also gave a pianologue, "Original Sin," accompanied by Elaine Abbott.

The girls and boys mixed chorus of Sacred Heart academy accompanied by Elaine Abbott sang three selections, "Memories," "Moonlight," and "Stout-hearted Man." The following were members of the chorus, Patricia Clark, Patricia O'Leary, Andrew and Phillip Barry, Harriet Lavenik, Darlene Smith, Mildred O'Keefe, Mike Colbert, Bill Neubert, Marian Newman, Elizabeth Andersch, Georgia Rose, Gertrude Calhoun and Alice Baker.

The Rev. T. P. Casey and the Rev. John Delahunty were special guests of the evening and conducted the question box. After a very interesting and enjoyable evening refreshments were served by Mildred Smith assisted by Louise Vaughn, Billie Walker, Phyllis Mahoney, Agnes Ellis, Pat Demetrakos, Martha Lavenik and Ellen Ely.

Wedding Bells

A wedding of interest to residents of the Merrill district was solemnized Sunday, January 12, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon when Velda Lea Smith, daughter of Mrs. R. F. Smith and the late Mr. Smith, became the bride of Jack Montleth, son of Mrs. Lawrence Montleth of Saganaw, in a ceremony in the Cottage Grove Methodist church. The bride, given in marriage
