Deputy Barnes Shoots Roberts In Escape Attempt

aken to the washroom, Balentine told Barnes there would be time for him to go before the trial opened.

Barnes said that he had not had any trouble with Roberts before, although he had taken him out of the cell several times, once accompanying him to see a dentist.

Roberts attracted considerable attention when he was first arrested October 18, 1946, by going to sleep on the floor at justice court while he was being arraigned. When he took the Bend-Portland freight truck he drove it over town for several hours, finally parking in front of a residence in town and walked into the house. The lady of the house, a stranger to him, called police.

When he was arrested, Roberts had with him a notebook containing the names and addresses of local police officers, with notes of law violations he had witnessed, and was quoted as saying that it was his "ambition to become a policeman."

Sheriff Lloyd Low said that Roberts' police record dated back to 1934 when he was given a 15-day sentence in Sheldon, Ia., for vagrancy. In 1940 he was paroled for one year in court here after pleading guilty to larceny, in 1942 he was arrested on a drunk charge in Salem, and in 1943 he received a three-year sentence at Salem for robbery. He was not a war veteran, but worked for the war department a time during the war.

Deputy Marion Barnes is an old-time police officer in Klamath county, having served many years as game warden and was the first sergeant of state police in this county. He farmed at Olene for several years before being appointed deputy sheriff last summer.

Several weeks ago Roberts had a sanity hearing in court here and was found sane.

Siskiyou DA Confers Here

District Attorney Fred W. Burton of Siskiyou county, Calif., was in Klamath Falls today conferring with Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg and other officials about Jack Kyle Perry, 34-year-old Klamath man held in jail at Yreka following an attack on a young Klamath Falls high school girl.

Perry is waiting to be taken into superior court in Yreka on charges of assault with intent to commit rape, crimes against children, kidnaping and sex perversion.

He was ordered held without bond after an arraignment in justice court at Dorris Saturday. The attack, which Perry has admitted in a signed statement, took place on a sideroad near Dorris last Wednesday.

Following the meeting there will be a pinochle tournament.

Stock Market Shows Gain

NEW YORK, Feb 3 (AP)—Recovery tendencies, sparked by early advance in N. Y. Central and assorted rails, prevailed in today's stock market although profit cashing on the recent sharp bulge restrained many leaders.

Grain Extends Two Points

CHICAGO, Feb. 3 (AP)—Wheat survived a heavy profit-taking wave on the board of trade today to close with gains extending to more than 2 cents.

March and September wheat established new seasonal highs. July wheat touched its seasonal peak scored in early November.

Wheat opened steady and advanced until about 30 minutes before the close. At that point profit-taking knocked prices back to around the previous finish. When the selling was out of the way, wheat rebounded and in some cases went to new highs for the day.

Buying was based on large March export allocations and the possibility a cold wave may cause some damage to wheat unprotected by snow covering in the southwest. Corn was firm but oats were barely steady.

At close wheat closed ⅛-2⅜ higher, March $2.17⅞-½.
