

Friendship Camp Installs Officers

Friendship camp, Royal Neighbors of America, held open installation and a program January 25, with about seventy-five members and friends present. Lodge was opened with presentation of the flag and singing of "America."

The flower girls, Sharon Rosson and Shirley Barleen, presented both the retiring and officers-elect with red and white carnation corsages.

Anna McCormack acted as installing officer, Lucille Helfer acted as ceremonial marshal, and Kate Hogue as assistant ceremonial marshal.

Officers installed were: Oracle, Jessie Steele; past oracle, Ella Bortis, who was presented with her past oracle pin at this time by her son, Glenn; vice oracle, Ella Simpson; chancellor, Mildred Aikin; recorder, Anna Woolver; receiver, Kathleen Hepburn; marshals, Ada Barleen and Inez McCoy; inner and outer sentinels, Anna McCormack and Lillian Peterson; managers, Anna Shaffer, Anna Bower and Frank Steele; musician, Lola Myers; graces, Nellie Lamotte, DeLeise Slaymaker, Thelma Morris, Thelma Ernest, Mildred Markey; flag bearer, Grace Harris, who presented the flag and all sang "The Star Spangled Banner"; degree captain, Kate Hogue.

Two piano solos were played by Ella Bortis and a piano and violin duet by Mrs. A. Burgloff and her son Andrew.

Past oracle pins for 1944 and 1945 were presented to Anna McCormack and Anna Sitafer, who had not received their pins owing to the war.

The past oracles and the retiring officers presented the outgoing oracle with gifts of appreciation. Ella Bortis presented each retiring officer with a gift and thanked them for their splendid cooperation during her year as oracle. The March of Dimes and the retiring march were the concluding numbers.

Dancing and refreshments followed.

At the next meeting, February 14, a potluck dinner will be served. At this time Mae Logan, state supervisor, will be present.

RECENTLY WED in Walla Walla, Wash., were Evelyn Prudhomme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Prudhomme of Free-water, Ore., formerly of Klamath Falls, and Donald G. Anderson of Walla Walla. The service was performed December 29.

Mid-Week SOCIETY

Aloha OES

Aloha chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, met Tuesday, January 28 in Masonic temple where the hall was decorated with tall baskets with modernistic winter arrangements and flowers in front of the altar.

During chapter an impressive obligation service was presented with the five Star points taking part, each with a lighted candle in her color. Those participating were, Adah, Rhoda Harnden; Ruth, Omega Peak; Esther, Blanche Marks; Martha, Josephine Robinson; Electa, Lillian Haueline.

Joe Kennedy, worthy patron, gave the obligation followed by a solo, "I Would Be True," sung by Margaret Sheridan, accompanied by Nora Metter. Alma Getz, program chairman for the evening, presented Joan Bennett, who played two piano numbers. Mae Balsiger, Clara DeWitt and Catherine Casper, past matrons, were hostesses for the evening.

Refreshments were served in the parlors from a prettily appointed table by Florence Briggs, Beulah Balsiger, Eleanor Danforth and Rosa Bolin. The next meeting will be February 11, when there will be initiation of candidates.

A FORMER Klamath girl and student at Sacred Heart academy, Valrae Barry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell LaFleur of Perez, Calif., will wed Joe Dominguez son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Dominguez of Dunsmuir, her parents announced recently. The family lived here for three years before moving to Perez. No date has been set for the wedding.

Trailerville

Mrs. Walter Anker of Klamath Falls has been elected a member of the election committee of Trailerville Village, married veterans colony, at Eastern Washington college, Cheney, Washington. Whether or not wives are registered in college as residents of Trailerville they have full voice in the weekly town meetings and elections, word from the school advised.

Trailerville, with its 70 married veterans, won the scholarship cup for fall quarter. Awarded at a recent convocation they received highest average of any resident hall on the campus.

YOUNG MAN Jimmy Marra is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Marra, 1314 Nimitz. Jimmy was five months old when this was taken. —Kennell-Ellis.

Art Birthday

Members of the Art Birthday club met for luncheon at 1 o'clock at the Winema hotel Thursday honoring one of their group, Mrs. W. Lamar Townsend, on the occasion of her silver wedding anniversary. A gift of silver was presented to Mrs. Townsend by the members, each of whom had a corsage at her place.

Guests included Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. Marie Cone, Mrs. Armina Wilson, Mrs. Bobby Ashby, Mrs. Ivy Probst, Mrs. Ed Burkholder, Mrs. U. S. Bales-tine, Mrs. Wesley McNece, Mrs. J. P. Scott, Mrs. Louis D. Met-

SLIP COVERS
CUSTOM MADE
at a reasonable cost
MARGARET WHEELER
Phone 4854
Formerly with Economy Mattress

Church Benefit

A luncheon and informal afternoon was enjoyed last Thursday at 1 o'clock at Zion Lutheran church when women of the church entertained with a benefit for the new building which is under way at 11th and High streets.

Chairman of the luncheon was Mrs. Jack Cislser and she was assisted by Mrs. Chester Creezen. The tables were centered with deep orange chrysanthemums and matching candles in crystal candlesticks. Twenty-six enjoyed the affair. There was a brief business meeting after the luncheon and new officers for the coming year were installed. President is Mrs. Herman A. Braatz, vice president is Mrs. John A. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Cislser is secretary and Mrs. Bronislaus Lyk is the treasurer of the group.

Auxiliary To Meet Thursday

Mrs. Horace E. Getz will be hostess at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at her home, 511 Pacific Terrace, to members of St. Paul's Women's auxiliary. Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe will lead the devotionals and Mrs. Harry R. Todd will give the book review.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey W. Wolfe of Tulelake this week announced the engagement of their daughter Jean to Harry B. Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Rose of Tulelake.

Miss Wolfe is a graduate of Tulelake high school and is now employed in the Tulelake bank. She is past worthy advisor of the Rainbow Order for Girls. The young couple plan to live on Mrs. Rose' farm following their marriage. No date has been set for the wedding.

Honor Guest

On January 23, Mrs. Robert Posey entertained at her home with a luncheon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Vernon Sayre, the former Ellen Posey.

Guests attending the luncheon and shower were Margaret Posey, Mrs. Stanley Thompson, Mrs. Vernon Smith and son Vernon, Mrs. Merritt Seeley, Mrs. Willard Gumpert, Mrs. Raymond Gumpert and son Ray Jr., Mrs. Pearl Rauchey, Mrs. Earl Fuller, Mrs. Milton Moorhead, Mrs. Leo Keppers, Mrs. Jesse Capps, Mrs. Harry Brinson and daughter, Mrs. Orville Bean, June Moorhead, Mrs. Ed Banks and Mrs. Joe Warsback.

Montgomery Ward
Store Hours 9:00 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.
Ninth at Pine Phone 3188

THE Carol Brent LABEL
IS YOUR ASSURANCE OF CLASSIC PERFECTION

Tucked button-front casual to steal the scene every time! Carol Brent fashions it of rayon gabardine in an array of Spring colors. Sizes from 12 to 20.

12"

Add this purchase to your Monthly Payment Account

Montgomery Ward
Store Hours 9:00 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.
Ninth at Pine Phone 3188

FOR A CLASSIC
WITH AN AIR
OF DISTINCTION
LOOK FOR
THE Carol Brent LABEL

Tailored with the zest girls look for and love in a Carol Brent classic! Rayon gabardine in Spring-welcoming shades—contrasting trim in sizes from 9 to 15.

9"

Add this purchase to your Monthly Payment Account

It's ours exclusively.....

Cymonette's 1947

your suit
of
the season

Again CYMONETTE catches the new mood of the season... with soft, feminine lines, flawless tailoring, exquisite detail. In fine worsted VERDONA, a Pacific Craft-fabric. Quality lined in DUCHESS rayon crepe. Sizes 10 to 20.

49.00

LaPointe's