

Laura Watt Is Bride In Chapel

Laura Maxine Watt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Watt of this city, became the bride of Wendling Stephen Kessler, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendling Joseph Kessler, also of this city, in an 8:30 o'clock ceremony read by the Rev. Father Timothy Casey in the chapel of Sacred Heart church Tuesday evening, January 28.

White flowers and white candles were used on the chapel altar and the soft organ music played in the church by Warren Cronon was heard during the entire ceremony.

The bride wore a brown dressmaker suit with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of gardenias and Talisman roses. Her small white hat had a cluster of flowers at the side. DeLores Watt was her sister's only attendant and she wore a gray suit with matching accessories and a gardenia corsage. The best man was Idro Bonotto.

The service was read before the immediate families of the young couple, both of them well known in Klamath Falls. A small reception followed the ceremony at the home of the groom's parents, 2027 LeRoy, and there Mr. and Mrs. Kessler cut their beautifully decorated wedding cake topped by a bride and groom and placed on a base of miniature rosebuds and fern. White candles completed the bride's table.

Mr. Kessler spent 19 months in the service and held the rating of pharmacist mate first class, United States naval reserve. Since his release from the navy he has been affiliated with his father in the Klamath Dental laboratory. Mr. and Mrs. Kessler are at home in Klamath Falls.

MARTHA SHOPS & SHOPS

Mexican & Cuban

gayly colored, woven baskets . . . used widely in this country as containers for knitting, crochet work or embroidery . . . have just been received by ART NEEDLEWORK SHOP . . . in the Melrose building across from the courthouse. The larger, knitting baskets also serve conveniently as parcel containers when shopping.

Another newie at Art Needlework is the EZ-Dus-It loom . . . plus crochet hook . . . used for making crocheted rugs, afghans, bed slippers, baby sweaters. Eight ounces of cotton yarn will make a rug . . . 10 skeins of knitting worsted, an afghan. It looks like fun . . . and Kathleen Kriz can show you in a few minutes the simple stitch used on this loom!

The shop is well supplied with embroidery scissors, stamped goods, embroidery thread and designed burlap for hooked rugs. There's still a quantity of the yarn brands being closed out at great reduction . . . and knitting instruction is being continued by Mrs. Kriz on Wednesday evenings . . . at ART NEEDLEWORK SHOP . . . 325 Main.

Pet Food

a tinned variety similar to that available before scarcities . . . on the shelf at PINE STREET MARKET again . . . which you can order by asking for Mankind Dog Food . . . good for cats, too.

Getting back to variety in our own menus . . . you'll be interested in learning of a shipment of Libby's canned Lunch Tongue, a tasty quickie for noontime . . . and the return of those perfectly cooked Seaside Butter Beans (dried lima).

Among this week's arrivals you'll want to jot down on the grocery list are S & W Orange Marmalade . . . Planter's Hi-Hat Peanut Oil and Mazola Salad Oil.

Some new drink mixes handy to have on hand are the pint bottles of Virginia Dare Whiskey Sour, Lemon Sour and Tom Collins . . . and PINE STREET MARKET . . . corner of Seventh and Pine . . . can supply either large or small nut-cup favors for Valentine's or St. Patrick's affairs coming up.

'Jimmy Juniors'

... those debonaire contrast suits pictured in Charm magazine . . . are the ultimate in two-piece casuals now being shown at WHYTAL'S . . . especially perfect for junior figures . . . having loose, full-backed jackets which, if you wish, can be worn as very short toppers.

By contrast, I mean the wool suede jackets of window-pane check . . . light brown over maize or pink . . . top stem-like skirts of brown wool twill. An utterly satisfying combination!

Of course, Whytal's has other models in the youthful Jimmy Junior suits . . . such as a dremy light gray wool coat, brightened by silver filigree buttons . . . that would be perfect for graduation doings.

The clever Justin McCarty's . . . an exclusive with Whytal's . . . are styled for juniors, too, don't forget . . . and unusually becoming, I think, is one of brown tone combinations in striped effect on a boy jacket, trimmed in novel coin buttons, worn over a plain colored skirt . . . another combines peacock blue and rust in a houndstooth check for the bolero jacket . . . and the skirt of warm rust features McCarty's favorite unpressed pleat fullness . . . the whole outfit set off by a wide leather belt.

Fact is, WHYTAL'S . . . in the Medical-Dental building, Main at Ninth . . . is receiving many junior styles in spring suits . . . in a complete size range!

A 'Thank You'

and appreciation to her many friends and patrons of PELICAN BOOK SHOPPE . . . 126 So. 8th . . . since its opening two years ago . . . is expressed by Mildred Knight who is retiring soon from the ranks of this city's business women.

This interesting shop of a thousand gifts has been purchased by The Better Book and Bible House of Portland and its re-christening to correspond to that of the Portland firm, means the demise of the name Pelican Book Shoppe. The store, located directly across from Sears, will be operated by Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Richards, newcomers to Klamath.

This year's new under-cover garments will be more varied in color and better fitting, promising longer wear and easier upkeep.

Electric Irons

and other household appliances are becoming rapidly available again . . . and many can be bought right off the counter in the downstairs store of RICKY'S . . . much to the relief of all of us who've been necessarily pampering our electrical "help."

On display when Martha shopped in Ricky's this week were both the automatic and never-lift Proctor irons . . . Sunbeams with the heat dial feature in the handle . . . and Manning-Bowman irons . . . two-burner Miracle Grills (hot plates) . . . electric juicers marked down from $14.50 to $7.25 . . . electric broilers . . . and a splendid assortment of electric clocks, kitchen, alarm and mantel styles, from $5.45 upward.

On hand for immediate sale are quite a number of small radios . . . Packard-Bell, Bendix and Emersons . . . ranging from $27.50 to $31.18 . . . Norge oil heaters for the home . . . Presto and National pressure cookers . . . Farberware stainless steel items . . . in the downstairs store of RICKY'S JEWELERS . . . 700 Main . . . and numerous pieces of much-in-demand Revere Ware will be put out on sale as soon as arriving.

Shopping By Film

is the latest innovation . . . and soon, in private showings here under the auspices of La-POINTES . . . you can see one of the most delectable dishes of Spring fashions in a most delightful way. It's a movie called "Fantasy in Fashion" . . . in magnificent color . . . showing you Moyaen Originals for the new season.

Dreamy evening gowns, shimmering cocktail dresses and a lush pair of hostess pajamas . . . all filmed against the grandeur of Mexican mountains and deserts and the beautiful beach at Acapulco. For 22 whole minutes you can dream you're there . . . in Moyaen's glittering gowns. When it's over, you can try them on for yourself at LaPointe's . . . or you can buy them, too, at most wonderfully moderate prices.

Women's organizations desiring to see "Fantasy in Fashion" are requested to have officers contact Mr. Braman . . . at La-POINTES . . . 507 Main . . . who is arranging the film's schedule.

'White Flame'

... that heart-warming fragrance by Helena Rubinstein . . . obtainable only at CURRIN'S . . . is the most expressive of Valentine gifts . . . the beckoning containers decorated as they are in white hearts aflame against a background of oyal purple.

White Flame is variously and moderately priced . . . making it more than ever gift-able . . . the lovely perfume selling at $2.50, $9.50 and $18.50 . . . the toilet water at $5.50 . . . and the perfume-compacts, a solid form ideal for travelers because it eliminates spilling, at $2.50.

In addition, this Rubinstein fragrance is available in sachet pillows of purple moire . . . priced at $4.50 for a set of three . . . or two White Flame sachets and a sachon of perfume for $5.50 . . . (all quoted prices plus tax) . . . at CURRIN'S FOR DRUGS . . . the friendly drug store at the corner of Ninth and Main.

Coming forth in new tweed fabrics for coats will be stripes as wide as floor boards and checks as big as tiles, and among interesting new woollens will be light, fluffy fleeces and crepes with a different surface treatment.

Beauty Schools

provide the required training and practice for those who will follow the beauty profession . . . and such is the purpose of the beautifully decorated, modernly equipped KLAMATH BEAUTY SCHOOL . . . located just around the corner from Main and Broad, right next door to the city fire station.

All work of the school is under direct supervision of Mrs. Gerber who had years of experience in California . . . and of Mrs. Gertrude Johnson, Klamath beauty shop owner for 23 years. Students now enrolled already have to their credit over 1000 hours of training, more than most states require . . . assuring patrons of skillful, properly supervised services.

The KLAMATH BEAUTY SCHOOL . . . in operation since last August . . . specializes in all types of permanent waving, finger waving, facials and manicures . . . is sufficiently large and equipped to enable students to care for 20 patrons at one time . . . and Mrs. Johnson states the same quality merchandise is used in the school as she used in her own shop. For further information . . . please phone 7448.

STUDIO OF BEAUTY . . . on the mezzanine of Whytal's . . . is a complete, staffed by skilled, licensed operators . . . Steve, Olive, Beryl and Fern.
