

Snowball Party Is Event Of Friday

Lynden King was crowned queen of the Snowball dance at the annual party held Friday evening, January 31, at the Masonic temple when the Order of DeMolay played the role of host. Miss King was selected by DeMolay for the position. She served the latter part of last year as Honored Queen of Jobs Daughters. Princesses in attendance were Marilyn O'Neill, Mary O'Brien, Mary Lou Case and Carmen Lee Jones. Palms and candles decorated the ballroom and at 10 o'clock the ceremony of crowning took place with Jim Crismon, master councillor of DeMolay, doing the honors.

Recital Is Wednesday Eve Affair

Wednesday evening of last week Mrs. Patricia Hunt presented six of her voice students in an informal recital at her home. The guests were parents and friends of the students and several members of the music faculty.

Following music, coffee and tea were served in the dining room with Mrs. John O'Connor and Mrs. John McManus pouring.

The following program was presented:

- "My Mother Bids Me Bind My Hair" Haydn.

Library Club To Meet On Monday

The Little Theatre off Monclair street will be the meeting place for the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club on Monday, February 10, at 2:30 o'clock when the drama study group of the AAUW will present the play, "I Know George Washington." The play is a one-act period type play with Nye Patterson as Mrs. Pettibone, the tavern keeper's wife; Margaret Larkin as Hannah, a bondmaid; Irma Wauchope, as Mrs. Eno, a natural pessimist; Emma Jane Banister as Mrs. Goodrich, the minister's wife; Julia Zumwalt as Grandma Pettibone, George Washington's champion; Helen O'Neill, playing Lucy Chase, Melissa's rival; and Pat Erlanson is Melissa. The play is under the direction of Mrs. B. B. Blomquist.

The Little Theatre off Monclair has its own entrance at the back of the high school building and is the small door between large windows and between the two main rear entrances.

At the close of the afternoon tea will be served by high school girls of the Tea Toller's group.

The next meeting of Library club will be held on Monday, March 10, when Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill will present a book review. There will also be a display of arts and crafts by Library club members. Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill, in charge. All women of the county are invited to membership in the club.

Gadget Shower

MERRILL—Mrs. Scott McKendree and Mrs. Dale West were hostesses Tuesday evening at a delightfully planned gadget shower for Mrs. James Hammond, the former Mary Frances Sharp, bride of early January. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. West.

The gifts were piled under a "tree of hearts" and other appointments carried out the Valentine theme.

Invited for the shower were Mrs. E. M. Hammond, Mrs. W. E. Hammond, Mrs. James Merriam, Mrs. Richard Shuck, Mrs. Thomas W. Chatburn Jr., Mrs. William Falvey, Mrs. Jack Fleck, Mrs. Ivan Kandra, Mrs. Don West, Mrs. Paschal Hodges, Mrs. Norman Remsen, Mrs. C. E. Sharp and the new Mrs. Hammond, all of Merrill, Audrey Reeves, Mrs. Lou Spence, Mrs. Howard Biehn, Mrs. Louis Linville and Virginia Sharp, all of Klamath Falls.

Dinner Dance

Members of Kappa chapter, Beta Sigma Phi enjoyed a formal dinner dance at Lakeshore inn on Sunday evening, January 26.

Mrs. Van Thome was in charge of arrangements. The theme of the decorations was borrowed from "Lit Abner" and was cleverly carried out in the table centerpiece, place cards and menus.

Those who attended included Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pernel, Mr. and Mrs. William Milne, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonney, Lois Coady, John Raffetto Jr., Jackie McLellan, Kenneth Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Van Thome, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Motley, Betty Zirkle, Phil Phillipson, Phyllis White and Lawrence Slater. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Boyd of Tulelake.

Soroptimist

The Klamath Falls Soroptimist club met for a luncheon meeting Thursday noon at the Pelican party room, at which time they welcomed Lorraine Johnson, who is able to be out again following a severe illness.

A unanimous expression of sympathy was voiced for Lillian Hills in the loss of her mother, Mrs. Katherine Olson of Woodburn, Ore.

Final arrangements were announced for a rummage sale to be held February 15 at 125 S. 9th. The proceeds of this sale are to go for the Girl Scout and Camp Fire Girls fund. All members are urged to contribute generously.

The club voted a sum of $50 to be spent for recreational material for the two Klamath county juvenile centers. This will be used for reading material, games and craft material, which are badly needed for use by girls while being held at these centers.

Wednesday Club

The St. Valentine's Day theme was used by the hostesses of Wednesday club last Wednesday evening in St. Paul's parish house when dessert bridge was enjoyed by members and guests. This is the last social gathering before the Lenten season.

High in bridge went to Mrs. Robert Newell, low to Mrs. DeLos Mills. In pinochle, honors went to Mrs. Frank Hayworth, high, and low to Mrs. Dale McIntee. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. James Wallinder, Mrs. James Patterson, Mrs. Thomas Radcliffe and Mrs. W. R. Elliott.

Banquet Plans

The Oregon State Nurses association, district No. 8, will hold its annual banquet and installation of officers in the Pelican party room at 7 o'clock the evening of Thursday, February 13. All graduate nurses, active and non-active, are cordially invited to attend.

Cards will be played following the dinner. Reservations may be made with Margaret Strode, 4780, or Rose Davis, 7252, not later than Wednesday at 5 p. m.

Business Women

Business and Professional Women's club members enjoyed a social evening following the dinner meeting Monday, February 3. Tables were beautifully decorated with Valentines and candies carried out the red and white theme. After a short business meeting the members enjoyed an old-fashioned square dance with Edna Bowman, teacher at Fremont, calling the dances. Mrs. Charlene Zweigart, teacher at Pelican school, was the accompanist. About sixty business women attended. The costumes represented an old time barn dance.

Lorraine Quillen, acting president, presided. May Phinney, program chairman, introduced Miss Bowman and Mrs. Zweigart. Lydia Howard, Ora Mae Hawkins, Lena Dennis and Esther Lawler arranged the tables. Dorothy Ackerman received the award for the best costume and best performance.

Honor Guest

Mrs. O. W. Gray was complimented at a shower arranged at the home of Mrs. J. A. Burke on Del Moro street January 29 with Mrs. Victor Bark assisting as hostess. Gifts were presented Mrs. Gray following an evening of bridge and tables were centered with pink and white arrangements in glass baskets.

Honoring Mrs. Gray were Mrs. Verne McClellan, Mrs. James Cornutt, Mrs. C. Olvera, Mrs. J. V. Brewbaker, Mrs. James Robinson, Mrs. Gus Demetrakos, Mrs. J. E. Friesen, Mrs. M. M. Ward, Mrs. Marion Crossfield, Mrs. Tony Molatore Sr., Mrs. Lloyd
