USBR Holds Office Party

New offices of the U. S. bureau of reclamation at the naval air base received a thorough warming at the open house Friday, attended by over 300 persons.

The bureau, which occupied offices in the federal building in downtown Klamath Falls since February, 1932, moved into public works and gunnery buildings, warehouses and shops at the base on January 20 and 21. Negotiations are being made now to take over 12 barracks, five of which are to be converted into apartments for employees.

Ray Best, district manager of the Klamath project, still has his office in the federal building and the homestead offices are still there and will be until the present homestead business is concluded, after which all homestead work will be carried on from the naval base offices of the bureau.

A buffet supper, dancing, games and cards made up the evening entertainment, sponsored by the FREAKS—the Federal Reclamation Employees association Klamath section.

Among special guests were U. J. Gendron, director of region 2, Sacramento; Chet Main, president, and Dan Crawford, director, of Tulelake Growers association; Vernon Chitwood, Klamath county navy recruiter; W. B. Wroth of Sacramento, E. M. Hammond, Sam Dehlinger, John Ratliff, E. R. Scott and Olney Rudd, Klamath Falls.

Mrs. C. W. Birmingham had charge of the buffet dinner and the general planning committee for the celebration included R. E. Evans, Rex Rogers, Ross Godard and Ralph Carpenter.

IF THE LABEL IS KNOX-- THE HAT IS RIGHT!

Cruise and Travel. It's so simple! It's so Knox... a chubby sailor in stop-light red straw. Nice punctuation for Spring navy and a worthy successor to the long line of Knox Cruise and Travels.
15.95

Continental is another Knox famous name hat with legions of devotees and you'll see why when you try it on in this breton version of crisp white straw with bright bows and veil.
15.00

All hail the return of the beloved Knox Vagabond. Very, very new in its easy casual lines worn with fur coats here and now or with a cashmere top coat flying south. Ten colors to choose from.
