Men Burn Draft Cards In Protest

More than 400 men in 37 states joined together to burn their draft cards in front of the White House in Washington today in protest against the impending threat of peacetime conscription.

Conducting the demonstration is the Break With Conscription committee. Taking part from the Klamath Falls area is Kenneth E. Lambie, 2545 Homedale, who according to the notice from the committee, will write a letter to the president protesting the impending action.

KUHS Construction Completion Near

With no further delay anticipated, work on the ramp and stairwell at Klamath Union high school should be completed by March 1, according to Superintendent Arnold L. Gralapp.

Pinniger and Watkins hold the $16,000 contract on the jobs. Work was delayed during the carpenters' strike but was resumed this week.

Ski Tow Used At Summit

CASCADE SUMMIT, Feb. 12
About 250 people gather each Sunday at the ski slide near the junction of the Cascade Summit road and the Willamette highway. Roy Temple has a tow which returns the skiers to the top of the slide. Mrs. Temple has a refreshment stand where hot coffee is served.

The slide was built about six years ago and crowds from Eugene and surrounding cities have gathered there each Sunday during the winter months.

A move has been on foot to have a slide built on Diamond peak and a conveyance built to haul people to the foot of the mountain from Cascade Summit a distance of seven miles.

Now The ONE-UNIT HEARING AID Thousands Are Waiting For

THIS IS ALL YOU WEAR

AMAZING NEW (ONE UNIT) Beltone MONO-PAC

- No separate battery pack
- No separate battery wick

Yes—now you can wear a hearing aid with complete comfort and ease. The tiny new Beltone Mono-Pac is about 1/2 size and weight of old style hearing aids—actually little larger than a deck of playing cards, yet so powerful you hear even whispers! Get helpful facts about this new "miracle aid" in valuable FREE booklet about deafness. Phone, come in, or send coupon for your copy.

Mr. S. C. Mitchell of 214 Miner Building, Eugene, phone 4141, holds monthly clinics at the Winema Hotel, where free tests of your hearing is given. You will be amazed at the economy of batteries since we use the large No. 4 Mercury A. Also, the tiny size of our Harmony Beltone is a joy to wear, due to its form fitting shape. Mr. Mitchell is with James N. Taft and Associates of Portland... who have been serving the hard of hearing since 1934, and are favorably known in this work. Please write for next clinic dates.
