

Girl Scouts Movie Party

St. Valentine's week was gay for the younger set, most of them crowding in a party or two along with school work and other activities. Members of troop 5, Girl Scouts, arranged a clever affair Wednesday night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns when they gathered for potluck supper and each girl was attired as her favorite movie actress.

First award for the cleverest clue to her identity was won by Sylvia Hillis who received a silver bracelet. Mothers who assisted were Mrs. Larry Watkins, leader, and Mrs. James W. Pinniger, Mrs. C. A. Lytle, Mrs. John Van Doren and Mrs. Stearns. The basement playroom was decorated with hearts and red and white streamers and there was a Valentine exchange during the evening.

Attending the party were: Jean Owens, Sheila Gillen, Mary Ann Preston, Carol Hamilton, Patty Teale, Marcyln Lytle, Nancy Berg, Frances Stearns, Ann Newman, Patricia McClung, Patsy Ruth Miller, Jeannine Newcom, Shirley Rogers, Helen Bertram, Nancy Haglund, Virginia Van Doren, Kay Foulter, Margery Larson, Joan Bussman and Sylvia Hillis.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, Sue and Bobby, have returned from a week's vacation in San Francisco.

Home after a two weeks' vacation in the north are Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl of Melrose street.

Capt. Hunt To Claim Bride

Wedding bells will ring in Battle Creek, Michigan, next week when Capt. Calvin Lawson Hunt, United States army medical corps, takes as his bride Martha Corinne Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Corwin Coleman of Battle Creek, in a 3:30 o'clock ceremony at the First Presbyterian church in that city, Saturday, February 22.

Capt. Hunt is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Warren Coe Hunt of this city, and they are leaving tomorrow, Sunday, to attend the rites. With them will go their son, James, who will be best man for his brother. Immediately after the ceremony, Capt. Hunt and his bride will leave by motor for a one month's honeymoon through the south and will then make their home in Klamath Falls where Capt. Hunt, now on terminal leave from the army, will practice medicine with his father.

Dr. and Mrs. Hunt and James will go by train to Battle Creek and then continue on a month's vacation by car. They will visit in Alabama and go on to New Orleans and plan to include Natchez and Mobile in their southern jaunt, enjoying all the garden pilgrimages in that section of the deep south.

Dr. and Mrs. Glen Hout are home from an extensive stay along the east coast and in southern California. They left here prior to the holidays.

Amaranth, Friendship Court, will meet Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the Masonic temple.

King Of Hearts Valentine's Day

Members of the younger set danced in their prettiest formals and their best suits Friday evening at the Masonic temple when the traditional King of Hearts ball was given by Jobs Daughters. Party hours were from 8:30 o'clock to 11:30 o'clock. The Valentine theme was used and St. Valentine's Day chosen for the affair. Honored Queen Marilyn O'Neill of Jobs Daughters escorted Bud Brown as King of Hearts. The Knights were Bill Colbert, Irvin Whitt, Milt Thompson and Tom Edwards. Senior princess is Mary Lou Case; junior princess is Dorothea Cogdill; the guide, Georgianna Clark, and the marshal, Beverly Young.

Bridge Guests

Mrs. Richard Maxwell asked guests in Tuesday at 1:30 o'clock at her home, 1932 Portland, for dessert and bridge. The Valentine theme was used at the small tables and in the tallies.

Mrs. Maxwell's guests included Mrs. Paul Farrens, Mrs. Richard Currin, Mrs. Van Mollison, Mrs. Gordon McCracken, Mrs. Laurence Shaw, Mrs. Frank Drew and Mrs. L. Orth Sisemore.

Easter Tea

Plans are already being whipped together for the annual post-Easter tea to be given by the Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Saturday, April 12, is the date set for the affair, always one of the largest of early spring, and the Willard hotel is the place.

Mrs. R. Henry Anderson is chairman of the party and she will announce her committees later.

Patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schulze, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Case, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Inman, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Franey.

Jimmy Myers, freshman at the University of Oregon, is spending this week end at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Myers of Pacific Terrace.

Washington Favors At Benefit Party

Next Saturday, February 22, is the date of the annual benefit bridge tea arranged by the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club and the place is the Willard hotel. All women of the county are given a cordial invitation to attend. George Washington's birthday will be observed in decorations and in the tea table appointments. Plans are now complete for the affair and as usual, it will be one of the biggest and most enthusiastically supported events of the year.

Mrs. Ray Oldenburg is bridge chairman and Mrs. K. A. Moore tea chairman, and she has asked Mrs. Walter Brown, president of Library club, and Mrs. D. J. Zumwalt, music chairman, to pour.

Cards will start promptly at 4:30 o'clock with contract and auction bridge and pinocle to be played. Those not wishing to play cards are invited to drop in for tea which will be served at 4 o'clock by the following: Ruth Landry, Jean Hilton, Dorothy Collier, Connie Hunt, Ellen O'Keefe, Gwen Somers, Marilyn McLellan, Joan Bennet, Barbara Zinn and Marilyn Wethercott.

Mrs. Robert Hooker, calling chairman, has asked guests to bring cards and pencils. Those wishing reservations may call Mrs. Hooker's telephone number, 6364, or those of her committee including Mrs. Percy Murray, 7427, or Mrs. C. J. Cox, 7281, before February 20.

On Monday, February 10, in the Little Theatre off Monclair, the two plays presented for Library club were enjoyed by a capacity crowd.

The high school drama students gave the play "He," and the drama group of AAUW presented the one-act period play, "I Know George Washington."

Between plays Jerry Fales sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. John O'Connor, Mrs. B. B. Blomquist, the director, was presented with an English bone china cup and saucer in appreciation. Tea was served by the Tea Toppers, a Girls league group.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. C. W. Hornbrook and Mrs. Gilbert Walters.

Shrine Club Plans March Party

The annual crab feed planned by the Klamath Falls Shrine club is planned for the night of March 5, at the Willard hotel. The party is for Shriners and their wives and chairman of the affair is George Sample.

Morning Mail Bag Carries News Notes

Sometimes the morning mail, piled high on the city editor's desk, is carefully filed in the wastebasket as there is no room these days of paper shortage for "paste pot" stuff and fillers. Too often, as in the past months, we have to get up courage to refuse pictures and long articles due to the space shortage.

But this week, in the heap of publicity sheets and blurbs, personal notes and cards were much in evidence and we'll pass a little of it on to you.

Card written on the City of San Francisco from Dorothea Roenicke telling us of the many gadgets on the streamliner and that she and Dr. Roenicke saw the Crown Prince of Saudi Arabia while in San Francisco just before taking their train for Chicago, Minnesota and way points. They'll be home February 21.

Quaint picture postcard from Monterey, Old Mexico, where Dr. and Mrs. Robert Merrick are vacationing. Bob is now out of the army, Louise writes, and they are enjoying a nice long holiday before settling down. They plan to leave Monterey for Miami, Florida, sometime this week, and will go traveling on from there. She is the former Louise Hunter of this city. Folks who received Christmas cards from Bob and Louise admit they have a particularly beautiful child in young Michael.

Nice letter from Mabel Oakes, former Klamathite living with husband Rolland in Standard, Calif., telling us how she enjoys our paper which always gives newspaper folks a cozy feeling. Mabel passes the paper on to her next door neighbor, Mrs. Holmberg, also formerly of our town, so that all the news gets around one way or another.

And a letter from Neita West, now in Oakland, Calif., thrilled over the fact she and Walter are great-grandparents with the arrival on January 29 of a six and a half pound boy to Mr. and Mrs. R. Eugene Wetzel, (Florence Shuey), at St. Francis hospital in Lynwood, Calif. Name: Thomas Eugene. Neita was at Lynwood for the big event, having just arrived for a visit. Grandparents are Fred and Marion West Shuey. More news: Tom West was transferred from Honolulu to Kwajalein in The Marshalls on January 29. His address—Thomas H. West, Y 3, NATS, Navy No. 024, care FPQ, San Francisco. Tom found Jack Bronson, former Klamath boy, running the Kwajalein radio station. They had several good hours talking about the home folks.

Another note from Sajem, of interest to local folks. The supreme court justices' wives joined forces and entertained with a beautiful tea last week at the home of Justice and Mrs. George Rossman. Receiving with the hostesses were Mrs. Marshall Corbett of our town, and several others. Mrs. Bob Napier, (Margaret "Peggy" Hay), daughter of Justice and Mrs. Arthur D. Hay, came over from Corvallis to help pass the tea cakes.

And Governor and Mrs. Earl Snell topped a buffet supper last Thursday night for the working legislative press, and from all accounts it was quite an affair. The newspaper people prob-

Klamath Dads Pay Visit To University

The University of Oregon campus was being brushed and carried within an inch of its life, all because proud Dads were descending on the school this week to visit sons and daughters in observance of Dad's Day both Friday and Saturday of this week.

Heading the delegation of dads from Klamath county is Ted Reeves who, with Mrs. Reeves, will visit their twins, Ted and Fred, both first year students on the campus. Ted Sr. is pinching for Mac Epley who is in southern California this week with his parents and will forego his Dad's Day visit with son Malcolm Jr.

Flying up this week-end—Bert Hall and Dr. J. Hardin Carter who will be with Charlotte Carter, freshman. They plan to return Sunday.

Clarence A. Humble will be among those present at the Dad's Day festivities when he spends the time with daughter Nancy.

Another papa going north this week-end was Pat Ivory who will be the guest of his son, Jimmy. Going along, Mrs. Ivory and Charlotte, the latter to be the guest of Charlotte Carter while on the campus, and Charlotte Ivory all properly thrilled with her first visit to the university.

Also Charlotte's guest this week-end will be Barbara Roskamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Roskamp, who has been home from the University of California this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perrin left Friday morning for Eugene to visit son Bill, and they return Tuesday. Bill plays in the University of Oregon band, (saxophone), and the band performs for the dads this week-end.

Harold Franey took off for Oregon this week-end and will be the guest at the university of his son, David. Franey, at the Sigma Chi fraternity house. On Sunday, Mr. Franey will go to Corvallis and visit his son Dick and young wife Nancy, students at Oregon State college.
