Stock Market Skids Today

NEW YORK, Feb. 19 (AP)—The stock market skidded moderately today, then regained its balance at the lower level. Leaders closed fractions to more than 1 point down.

Midmorning liquidations in rubbers, rails, steels and motors pushed the ticker tape to its fastest pace of the week. Slowdowns followed, and the list's lethargy was unshaken by occasional recovery attempts that trimmed most of the losses. Total transactions approximated 1,000,000 shares.

Leading the slide were U. S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet, Bethlehem, Goodrich, U. S. Rubber, General Motors, Santa Fe, Pennsylvania Railroad, Great Northern preferred and Northern Pacific. Others in lower ground included American Telephone, Baltimore & Ohio, U. S. Gypsum, Union Carbide, International Harvester, General Electric, Du Pont, Montgomery Ward and Consolidated Edison.

Bonds retreated narrowly.

Wheat Stays On High Level

CHICAGO, Feb. 19 (AP)—A two-way market developed in grain pits today with old crop deliveries declining on profit-taking and new crop contracts advancing on short-covering.

At one time March wheat was down around 3 cents while September wheat was up nearly 4 cents, an illustration of the wide divergence between the movement of various contracts. The same trend developed in corn and oats, although on a smaller price scale.

The buying in deferred deliveries carried both July and September wheat to new seasonal peaks. Both contracts are at the highest point on record for new crop wheat in the middle of winter.

Wheat closed 2¼c lower to 3¼c higher, March $2.32¾-½.
