

31 DEAD IN EASTERN BLIZZARD

Drifting Snow Closes Schools And Highways

Freezing winds blasted the east today (Friday) as the heaviest snowstorm of recent years moved seaward, leaving in its wake at least 31 persons dead, highways snowbound, schools closed and industry impaired.

The deepest snowfall in the east, 27 inches, was reported in Dickinson county, Virginia.

Over-exertion in shoveling snow and traffic accidents were the chief causes of death.

Deaths by states were New Jersey, 8; Pennsylvania, 5; Connecticut, 2; New York, 3; District of Columbia, 1; Illinois, 2; Massachusetts, 1.

Midwest Hit
While the full weight of snow hit the eastern seaboard states, extreme cold followed on its heels over the Great lakes and middle west. The temperature registered 21 degrees below zero at Bemidji, Minn., and below zero weather extended over Minnesota and North Dakota.

In New York City 11 inches of snow had fallen by 10:45 a. m. (EST), and the weather bureau forecast the temperature would go to 10 degrees tonight.

Snow Drifting
Snow, whipped by strong winds, continued to fall through the morning in most sections, drifting across highways and railroads which were heavily blanketed during the night.

The storm extended from Maine into North Carolina, but hope of abatement for the middle Atlantic states came with reports that the storm was reduced to flurries in western Pennsylvania.

In New York City the weather bureau said the snow was expected to be a foot deep by noon. It was the worst storm since March 7-9, 1941, when 12.1 inches of snow fell.

A task force of 8000 workers struggled to clear New York streets, working in 35-mile-an-hour winds that whipped among the skyscrapers.

The experience of those who wandered outside was dramatically highlighted in Nottingham, N. Y., where two boys, 3 and 4 years old, were found sound asleep last night in deep woods by 250 frantic searchers after the two had wandered from their homes.

(White House aides said that former President Herbert Hoover has not yet reported to Mr. Truman on his investigation looking to long-term plans for rehabilitation of occupied areas.)

There have been complaints in congress about UNRRA's administration methods. Some legislators contend its services have been used to support governments uncooperative with the United States.

The president made no reference to this, but recommended that future United States relief assistance be given directly rather than through an international organization, and "be administered under United States control."

UNRRA—the United Nations relief and rehabilitation administration—is scheduled to wind up its operations March 31, although winding up activities under way will continue beyond that date.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Mr. Truman's recommendation was only for liberated countries. United States relief activities in occupied countries, such as Germany and Austria, are financed by the war department from its appropriations.

Herald and News

PRICE FIVE CENTS KLAMATH REGON, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1947 (Telephone 8111) ** Number 10863

WEATHER
Max. (Feb. 21) 57 Min. — 33
Precipitation last 24 hours — .00
Normal year to date — 5.36
Normal — 7.64 Last year — 7.10
Forecast: Clear, with morning fog.

Laundries Picketed in Pay Fight

Non-Union Labor Keeps Plants Open

Placard-bearing members of the Laundry Workers union (AFL), local 220, are picketing the city's three laundries today in their quest for a 10-cent an hour wage increase and a 40-hour week.

Approximately 70 workers, most of them women, employed by Superior Troy, Cascade and Men's Hand Laundry, went on strike at 10 o'clock this morning, immediately after rejecting a 7-cent wage increase offer made by the laundry operators.

Some 10 members of Teamsters union, local 911 (AFL), truck drivers for the laundries, are following the AFL policy of not crossing the picket lines to pick up or deliver.

Plants Open
Although the strike is 100 per cent effective among the union workers, the laundries have not closed but are operating at below normal capacity with skeleton crews of non-union labor.

The experience of those who wandered outside was dramatically highlighted in Nottingham, N. Y., where two boys, 3 and 4 years old, were found sound asleep last night in deep woods by 250 frantic searchers after the two had wandered from their homes.

The workers, who have been working a 44-hour week, several (Continued on Page 7, Column 1)

Chemicals Blamed For Explosion

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 21 (AP)—After a night spent probing beneath glaring searchlights, police today fixed the death toll from the city's worst explosion in 37 years at 15.

Of the 158 injured sufficiently to require hospitalization, several were feared dying.

The scene, as police and firemen shifted the blasted rubble of an electroplating plant, resembled somewhat a garishly-lit night-time movie set, except that there was nothing fictional about the carnage.

Chemical Blast
The one-story brick plant of the J. J. O'Connor corp. at 932 East Pico Blvd., a mile from the center of downtown Los Angeles, blew apart in a blinding flash of chemicals at 9:45 a. m. (PST) yesterday. But it was hours before a clear picture of the disaster could be pieced together.

Police and fire officials finally agreed that it was caused by the detonation of perchloric acid, an extremely unstable substance kept under pressure in refrigeration because at room temperature it is a seething, heavy liquid. But how the acid was set off remained a mystery.

Aluminum Plating
O'Connor told reporters "we were doing something for the government." This, he later amplified, was the aluminum-plating of hospital beds and chairs under a secret trade process. Not in the plan, at the time, he was reported in collapse at his home last night.

Most of the victims of the city's worst blast since the Los Angeles Times dynamiting killed 20 men in 1910 were in the plant or adjacent heavily damaged buildings, although a 10-year-old negro riding his bicycle several blocks away died under a plummeting piece of metal.

Four houses were almost completely wrecked, windows were broken in 300 within a mile's radius, glass shattered as far distant as 70 blocks, the entire downtown district was jolted as if by earthquake, sending terrified citizens to telephones, quickly jamming police and newspaper lines.

Workers Okay Oil Agreement
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 21 (AP)—Workers registered 97 per cent approval today of an agreement between two major oil companies and the CIO oil workers international union, and definite end to a strike threat which would have curtailed both transportation and natural gas heating in five western states appeared assured.

The first group of 1000 workers to ballot on a pact reached yesterday after an all-night conference among federal conciliators, oil companies and union negotiators, gave it an overwhelming margin. It provides: A 10-cent an hour increase on base pay, plus a $17.70 per month cost of living boost until next December 31. Effective date would be last January 1.

British "White Paper" Points To Grim Future
LONDON, Feb. 21 (AP)—The labor party government issued today a grim white paper called "a working pattern for the nation." It told the austeriously-weary Britons they must increase production or risk the "foundations of our national life."

The white paper — designation of important official documents issued by the government — said: The nation needs coal, production, foreign currency.

The private individual must continue rationing, forego hopes of shorter hours, increase his individual output in mine, mill, factory.

Organized labor must abandon "industrial arrangements which restrict production, prices or employment."

Industry must export one-fourth its products and accept a stern system of priority allotments of manpower and supplies.

Sir Stafford Cripps, board of trade president, told a news conference the plan is not "totalitarian."

"We do not say that whether you like it or not you have got to go into the coal mine, or a steel factory, or whatever it may be," he said.

"Instead, we try to induce employers and employees to conform to a pattern of industrial production in order to get the greatest benefits for the nation as a whole."

"ZYXW" PAYS TAX AGAIN
CHICAGO, Feb. 21 (AP)—The internal revenue office reports that business improved in 1946 for Mr. "ZYXW," a mysterious taxpayer.

Collector Nigel D. Campbell said that the department had received $1000 from a person who signed his name "ZYXW." Earlier he had written the collector that he was to make tax payments of $1700, and it would be sent in four separate envelopes.

"ZYXW" is not a newcomer at the tax office. He has been sending in payments for the last seven years, with only the initials on a blank income tax form as a mark of identification. His first contribution was $300. Last year he sent in $700.

"It may be someone who is in an illegal business," Campbell said. "Whoever he is, his conscience is bothering him."

Victim Removed From Explosion Scene

Rescue workers carry a victim from the wreck of a two-story brick building, blown apart by an explosion in an electroplating establishment in Los Angeles. It was feared by police officials the death toll might run as high as 75. More than 300 persons were injured, 300 homes and an area four blocks square damaged. —AP wirephoto.

Ranger Battalion Hero Held In L.A. Holdups

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 21 (AP)—Charles M. (Chuck) Shunstrom, 26, today pitted his war record as a fighting member of the 1st ranger battalion against his post-war record in which he is charged with 10 counts of robbery.

American landing Shunstrom, formerly a captain who was termed the "wild man" of the Anzio beachhead, was substantiated by one of his fellow officers, Walter F. Nye, formerly a lieutenant colonel.

Nye said that in the North American landing Shunstrom distinguished himself in knocking out enemy installations and later participated in the invasion of Sicily and Italy.

It was at Chiunzi pass, testified Nye yesterday, that Shunstrom made his reputation for daring. "He worked out a split-second schedule," Nye explained.

"He rolled out with his half-tracks in the darkness and fired on enemy installations. The barrage lit up the countryside so that the half-tracks became plainly visible to the enemy. But by the time the Germans were set to fire, his half-tracks had rolled back to cover. He lost only three and knocked out countless numbers of enemy emplacements."

Nye said that Shunstrom was one of six American officers who participated in the ill-fated Dieppe raid.

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

Shunstrom was arrested by Hollywood police December 11 and charged with holding up eight service stations, a liquor store and a shoe shop between August 24 and December 5. He has pleaded guilty to two of the counts but his attorney is attempting to show that he was not mentally responsible at the time the crimes were allegedly committed because of aftermaths of the "shock and suspense of battle."

India Freedom Up To Leaders

LONDON, Feb. 21 (AP)—The British government left squarely up to feuding Hindu and Moslem leaders today the question of whether India intends to win independence in bloody civil war or through peaceful negotiations by the time Britain ends her reign over the rich sub-continent 16 months hence.

Prime Minister Attlee told the world yesterday that Britain intends to pull out of India by June, 1948, and at the same time appointed Admiral Lord Mountbatten, a great grandson of the first British empress of India, as viceroy to liquidate 200 years of British rule.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Lord Templewood—Sir Samuel Hoare before he became a peer—presented a motion last night declaring that the end of British rule "is likely to imperil the peace and prosperity of India."

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press directly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Stores Remain Open Saturday

While retail stores and the city and county libraries will remain open Saturday, February 22, Washington's birthday, of-hall and courthouse will observe the holiday by being closed.

Both the U. S. National and First National banks will be closed, also the state liquor control commission store at 122 S. 5th will close. The U. S. navy recruiting office was granted a holiday Saturday as a result of reaching its quota of five enlistees by Friday.

The Herald and News will publish Saturday.

The Herald and News will publish Saturday.

The Herald and News will publish Saturday.

The Herald and News will publish Saturday.

The Herald and News will publish Saturday.

The Herald and News will publish Saturday.

The Herald and News will publish Saturday.

The Herald and News will publish Saturday.

The Herald and News will publish Saturday.

Russians Eye Budget Slash

MOSCOW, Feb. 21 (AP)—Delegates to the supreme Soviet (parliament) debated today a 1947 budget calling for a decrease in expenditures for the Soviet armed forces and increases for industry, public health, sport, communications and agriculture.

Total income for 1947 was estimated in the budget at 391,500,000,000 rubles and expenditures at 371,400,000,000 rubles, of which 18 per cent would be assigned to the armed forces as against 24 per cent last year.

The budget, submitted to a joint session last night by Finance Minister Arseni G. Zverev, would assign the armed forces 67,000,000,000 rubles this year, as against 72,600,000,000 in 1946.

(The ruble is not quoted in foreign exchange trade. The official exchange rate is 5.3 to the dollar. The diplomatic rate is 12 to the dollar. Russian government finances include many items which, in the United States, are handled by private capital.

Russia's estimated expenditures would total about $70,075,000,000 at the "official" rate; or $30,950,000,000 at the "diplomatic" rate.

Russia's estimated expenditures would total about $70,075,000,000 at the "official" rate; or $30,950,000,000 at the "diplomatic" rate.

Russia's estimated expenditures would total about $70,075,000,000 at the "official" rate; or $30,950,000,000 at the "diplomatic" rate.

Russia's estimated expenditures would total about $70,075,000,000 at the "official" rate; or $30,950,000,000 at the "diplomatic" rate.

Russia's estimated expenditures would total about $70,075,000,000 at the "official" rate; or $30,950,000,000 at the "diplomatic" rate.

Russia's estimated expenditures would total about $70,075,000,000 at the "official" rate; or $30,950,000,000 at the "diplomatic" rate.

Russia's estimated expenditures would total about $70,075,000,000 at the "official" rate; or $30,950,000,000 at the "diplomatic" rate.

Russia's estimated expenditures would total about $70,075,000,000 at the "official" rate; or $30,950,000,000 at the "diplomatic" rate.

Russia's estimated expenditures would total about $70,075,000,000 at the "official" rate; or $30,950,000,000 at the "diplomatic" rate.

Russia's estimated expenditures would total about $70,075,000,000 at the "official" rate; or $30,950,000,000 at the "diplomatic" rate.

Oregon Statesmen Asked To Probe Tan Coat Case

Oregon's congressional delegates will be asked to investigate the strange case of the tan coat which Mrs. Eve Benson of Klamath Falls gave to a wartime clothing drive and which has turned up in possession of a Tennessee woman who paid $4.95 for it.

Mrs. Benson, an active worker and contributor to various wartime projects, recalls that she gave the coat to a clothing drive in 1942 or 1943 "for the poor and needy people of Europe."

She cannot remember what organization sponsored the drive, of which there were several. "I thought of those poor Europeans suffering because of Nazi greed," she said in a letter to The Herald and News, recounting her experience. So she pinned small notes to the garments, asking the recipients to write to her if possible.

She heard nothing until January of this year, when she received a letter from Mrs. Bill Baker of Sevierville, Tenn., saying

This is a copy of the letter which a Tennessee woman wrote to Mrs. Eve Benson, Klamath Falls, telling her about a coat which Mrs. Benson had given in a wartime clothing drive and which was later sold to the Tennessee woman for $4.50. Mrs. Baker's purchase was obviously in good faith. (Name of mail order firm deleted from this copy pending outcome of investigation.)

Sevierville
Route 2, Tenn.

Dear friend
I ordered me a coat from the mail order house and was the note in it and your name & address said you would love to hear from it I am well satisfied with it and think it sure worth it money and fit me in due way and am pleased to write you about it would love to hear from you, yours truly
Mrs. Bill Baker

Sevierville
Route 2, Tenn.

Dear friend
I ordered me a coat from the mail order house and was the note in it and your name & address said you would love to hear from it I am well satisfied with it and think it sure worth it money and fit me in due way and am pleased to write you about it would love to hear from you, yours truly
Mrs. Bill Baker

Sevierville
Route 2, Tenn.

Dear friend
I ordered me a coat from the mail order house and was the note in it and your name & address said you would love to hear from it I am well satisfied with it and think it sure worth it money and fit me in due way and am pleased to write you about it would love to hear from you, yours truly
Mrs. Bill Baker

Sevierville
Route 2, Tenn.

Dear friend
I ordered me a coat from the mail order house and was the note in it and your name & address said you would love to hear from it I am well satisfied with it and think it sure worth it money and fit me in due way and am pleased to write you about it would love to hear from you, yours truly
Mrs. Bill Baker

Sevierville
Route 2, Tenn.

Dear friend
I ordered me a coat from the mail order house and was the note in it and your name & address said you would love to hear from it I am well satisfied with it and think it sure worth it money and fit me in due way and am pleased to write you about it would love to hear from you, yours truly
Mrs. Bill Baker

Sevierville
Route 2, Tenn.

Dear friend
I ordered me a coat from the mail order house and was the note in it and your name & address said you would love to hear from it I am well satisfied with it and think it sure worth it money and fit me in due way and am pleased to write you about it would love to hear from you, yours truly
Mrs. Bill Baker

Sevierville
Route 2, Tenn.