In Appreciation

To all those who so ably assisted at the tragic apartment building fire of Sunday morning; to the tenants who extended sympathy and kindness to others in the face of their own losses; to all volunteers and members of the Klamath Falls fire department and city police department who spent long hours at the scene of the fire and worked so valiantly; to Jennie's cafe, the K cafe and the staffs of The Herald and News and KFLW who helped in so many ways; to our many friends, both known and unknown, for the beautiful floral tributes and other expressions of sympathy extended to us.
THE EVANS FAMILY.

Judge Bunnell Death Told

Robert Henry Bunnell, former Klamath county judge, native of Alameda county, Calif., whose childhood was spent on the frontiers of Oregon, died at his home in Brookings, at the age of 70, on Tuesday, February 18.

Mr. Bunnell died at 9 a. m. at his new home in Brookings. He is survived by his wife, Ida M., daughter Myrtle Dell and son Lloyd of Ashland; two nephews, J. A. Bunnell and Paul Triplett and a niece, Mrs. Lois Schiesel, all of Klamath Falls.

The deceased was a member of a prominent pioneer family in this county in 1895, and became a potent factor in developing the highways here. He was engaged in farming and stock raising on Lost river on the 500-acre Steele ranch and ran 150 head of cattle and 40 head of horses. Later he was fairly successful in dry-farming to wheat and from time to time purchased acreages. He was a member of a company that brought pure-bred stallions to Klamath county in 1905, and also raised draft horses.

Mr. Bunnell was elected as county judge in 1918, serving until 1921 and was re-elected to serve until 1927. It was during his term in office that nearly all the main highways in the county were constructed and to Judge Bunnell is given the credit for most development work here.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 3:30 p. m. from Whitlock's parlors and burial service at Mt. Laki where he will be laid to rest in the family plot.

Recreation Office Head Not Named

A successor to E. E. Hambrick as city recreation officer has not yet been named. Mayor Ed Ostendorf said today, and Hambrick, whose resignation was to have been effective February 1, is still on the job.

The recreation committee has received applications from eight or 10 aspirants for the post, and Fred Robinson, member of the committee, is making investigations of each applicant.

In the 1850s more than half the people of the United States were less than 20 years old.

Teen Age Party Slated

Junior high students, including seventh and eighth graders of all schools in the city, will gather at the Teen Age canteen Saturday night, instead of Friday, for the big party of the year. Students are asked to observe the change in date.

As the affair is "strictly dress-up" those attending are asked to wear party clothes. It will be "dies for the boys and party dresses for the girls," the committee advises. A 10-piece dance band has been obtained for the affair, hours from 7 to 10:30 p. m. Refreshments will be served and games arranged. High school students are excluded from the Teen Age canteen Saturday night as the rooms have been reserved for the junior group.

Potluck—A community gathering sponsored by the Peace Memorial Presbyterian church will meet for a potluck dinner Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock. This get-together is for all families in the south suburban area interested in having an opportunity to meet their neighbors. There will be entertainment for both children and adults. Call 7876 for menu suggestions.

Veterans administration is paying monthly pensions or compensation to nearly 120,000 veterans of the Spanish-American war under various congressional acts.

Farm Allotments Received Here

Klamath county farm allotments have been received, according to Charles A. Henderson, county agent, and the allotment board is meeting this week to break down the allotments to individual farmers.

Henderson emphasized that allotments to individuals are based on their farm history for the past three years, and that the allotments go with the farms, not the individuals operating them. So far, Henderson said, there are quite a few allotment claims to be received. Any not received, he pointed out, would receive a "zero" allotment. Also, this year if a farmer does not receive an allotment, Henderson said, he can not expect any price support on his crops.

Grange Party—Midland Grange Home Economics club is sponsoring a Washington's Birthday card party to be held in the grange hall this Saturday.
