Wagner Case Gets Delay

The circuit court hearing for Verne L. Wagner, Klamath Falls, police officer under indictment for assault, armed with a dangerous weapon, has been postponed until March 6 by Judge Charles H. Combs.

The hearing on a motion to quash the indictment, a demurrer to the indictment and Wagner's entry of a plea had originally been slated for tomorrow morning. Judge Combs, in his continuance order, said that Herbert P. Welch of Lakeview, Wagner's attorney, was trying a case in federal court in Portland and would not be able to get here by tomorrow.

To Tulelake—Mrs. Ross Ragland and infant son have returned to their home in Tulelake. The little boy, who has been named Andrew James, was born St. Valentine's Day at Klamath Valley hospital. The Ragland's other two children, David and Martha, have been with their maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew M. Collier of Olene, but will return home this week.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends for their kind expressions of sympathy and beautiful floral tributes tendered us during our recent bereavement in the death of our beloved husband, father and brother, Arthur Altman.

Storm Brewing At Crater Lake

A storm was brewing at Crater Lake national park this morning, the early radio report advised, and park rangers said today they thought that area was in for a good snowfall. The snow, which measures 97 inches, has a hard crust until mid-afternoon and skiing is not too good until after that time. Roads are practically bare. Minimum temperatures both yesterday and today, 22 degrees; maximum Wednesday, 40.

Son Arrives For Pattys

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Patty, 741 Alameda, are parents of their first child, a son, born at 10 a. m. today at Klamath Valley hospital. The boy has been named Stephen Lee. Mrs. Patty and son are doing nicely.

Patty is a member of the engraving staff of The Herald and News. He and Mrs. Patty were married in England while he was overseas with the United States army.
