

Malin Holds Crab Feed

MALIN, Feb. 27.—More than 350 persons filled the Broadway hall Monday night to enjoy the annual crab feed sponsored by the Malin chamber of commerce. It was one of the largest affairs of its kind and one of the most successful. Emil Toffel, president of the chamber, presided, and John Houston, of Klamath Falls, was the principal speaker and led community singing. A. E. Street, secretary, reported on the progress of the chamber during the past year. A program included tap dances and acrobatics by Lynette Lyon and Robert Miller, two vocal solos by Mrs. Don Webster of Tulelake accompanied by Mrs. Laddie Raines, two selections by the school band directed by Harold Rowe.

Chiloquin

Mrs. A. B. Castel, Jr. of Chiloquin and Mrs. W. A. Brock were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower honoring Mrs. George Morin, formerly of the Evans apartments, on Friday evening, February 21, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Richey. Many lovely and useful gifts were received by Mrs. Morin after an evening of games. At a later hour ice cream, coffee and a beautifully decorated cake were served.

Invited guests were Mrs. Al Castel Sr. of Fort Klamath, Mrs. Bert Albert and Mrs. Loyal Heath of Chiloquin, Mrs. Charles Caldwell, Mrs. William Bucknell, Mrs. Joe Webber, Mrs. Jim Slusser, Mrs. Clarence Hunziker, Mrs. Jack Francis, Paula Albert, Donna Brautlach, Mrs. J. R. Richey, the guest of honor and the two hostesses.

A Christian youth rally was held on Saturday night, February 22, at the Chiloquin high school gymnasium, under the auspices of the several protestant churches of the community and the Klamath Temple. The Rev. W. E. Johnson of the Open Bible Standard church opened the service, followed by Rev. C. G. Harvey, pastor of the Chiloquin church, and Rev. J. J. Humphries of the Williamson River Methodist church and Mrs. D. B. Anderson of the Klamath Temple. The main address of the evening was given by Evangelist J. J. Humphries.

Special numbers of the evening were solos by Rev. James Zeller, Wendell Eggen and John Effman. Mr. Effman was accompanied by his wife, who played the accordion. The Klamath Temple orchestra under the direction of Mr. Woodard played the prelude and the offertory. Mrs. J. J. Humphries led the group singing and Mrs. W. E. Johnson was accompanist.

Those well-fed Panthers rated again! Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roberts, Gem theatre operators, entertained the 10 members of the squad, Manager Tony Unive and Coach Joe Miller at a Sunday dinner, February 23. Twenty-two pounds of turkey and all the trimmings disappeared as teenage appetites did justice to the excellent meal. The boys will have a tangible memory of the affair as there were clever Panther head place cards and Harry Elliott was present to take pictures of the group. The climax of the party came when the hostess, Mrs. Roberts, took the boys as her guests to a showing of "Night in Paradise."

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Blocklinger left on Friday for a week-end visit with their newly-married daughter, Mrs. Richard Atiweh, in Portland.

Ted Markwardt made his required cross-country flight on Wednesday morning. During the four hours and 50 minutes of flying time he looked down on a large section of southern Oregon and northern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Potter took their son, Donald Lyle, to Portland for medical treatment this past Wednesday. The little three-year-old boy was worn a cast for six months in an attempt to correct a hip injury.

Dick Varnum's Serenaders provided the music for the dance given last Saturday night by the veterans' organization in their Main street hall.
