

Children's Choir To Sing Hymn

The second of the Lenten sermon series entitled "The Fact of Christ" will be preached at the Community Congregational church, Garden near Martin, on Sunday morning at 11. The children's choir participates in this service and will sing the hymn-anthem, "The Wise Men Bring Their Learning," under the direction of Mrs. R. B. Elliott.

"Comrades of the Way," the high school age group, will meet at 7 p. m., under the guidance of their counselors, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shepard.

At 8 p. m., Lenten vesper services will be conducted by the minister, the Rev. Godfrey Matthews, who will deliver a short address of instruction on "The Church." On Sunday, February 9, the annual oyster dinner will be served in the community hall from noon through 4 o'clock. Mrs. Mildred Lust is general chairman.

Barnett Gives Lent Sermons

During the Lenten season the Rev. David F. Barnett Jr. of the Presbyterian church will deliver a series of six sermons, using a series from Bunyan's "The Pilgrim's Progress." The first of these to be given this Sunday is entitled "Contradiction."

The anthem chosen by the pastor is "Prayer of the Norwegian Children" by Edvard Grieg. A soprano obligato will be given by Marian McIntyre.

The pastor's communications will continue at 9:45 a. m. with the discussion of "Living for Today," under the leadership of Rev. Barnett. Regular school classes are also given for children and adults at 10 o'clock.

At the meeting of the young people's group at 6:30 p. m., Steve Mosher will talk on "The Youth Budget." The worship service will be followed by a discussion book and refreshments.

Book Of Acts Talks To Continue

Rev. Keith P. Fields, pastor of the Bible Baptist church, will continue an expositional study of the book of Acts. The Sunday morning service will be "They Preached the Gospel." The 14th chapter of Acts will be the scripture text.

The evening service will feature a musical program presented by the ladies' chorus. The public is invited.

Evangelistic Service Slated

A special Evangelistic service will be held at the Jesus Name Calvary tabernacle, 1442 Oregon, Sunday at 7:45 p. m.

Evangelist Wilbur Crumpacker of Montana will be the guest speaker. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Sunday school is at 10 o'clock, divine worship and service at 11 a. m. Baptismal service conducted in "Jesus Name" at 3 p. m. Weekly prayer meeting at 7:45 p. m. Wednesday, Pastor Ray Elixseth.

"Last Words Of Christ" Sermons To Continue

At Klamath Lutheran church, Cross and Crescent, the Rev. S. M. Topness, pastor, will deliver the second in a series of Lenten addresses on the seven last words of Christ from the cross, the subject being, "The Answer to a Robber's Prayer." Special music will include the anthem, "O Sacred Head Now Wounded," by Christiansen, by the senior choir, and a duet, "Verily I Say Unto Thee" by Dubois, by Mel Erickson and Erling Melby. During the Sunday school session, which begins at 9:45 a. m., the sound film, "The Kindled Flame," will be shown as a study in church history.

The Brotherhood will sponsor the Fireside Hour at 5 p. m. The program will include "The Kindled Flame," and a number of shorter films. Lunch and fellowship will follow the pictures. All are invited.

An adult membership class will be organized in the pastor's study at the church on Tuesday, March 4, 7:45 p. m. A refresher course in the fundamental teachings of the Bible and the Christian religion will be given and anyone interested is invited to attend.

The Ladies Aid meets on Tuesday at 8 p. m. There will be an address, "The Church and the Home," by the Rev. David Barnett; a piano duet by Mrs. Chris Sterland and Ronald Sterland, and an instrumental solo, Ben Loftsgaard Jr. Hostesses will be Mrs. Victor Bark and Mrs. Arthur Breitenstein.

Church To Show Film

The religious sound film, "The Kindled Flame," will be shown Sunday in the auditorium of the Zion Lutheran church, 1025 High. The first showing will begin at 3 p. m. and the second at 7 p. m.

The film tells the story of the persecutions of a band of Christians in the year 304 A. D. depicting the effect of that band and its devotion to Christ upon the Roman officials.

The First Christian church, 9th and Pine, is also participating in this visual program and will have a showing of "The Kindled Flame," Monday, March 3, at 8:15 p. m. There is no admission charge and the public is invited.

The regular morning worship service of the Zion Lutheran church will be held at 11 a. m. Holy communion will be celebrated in this service. The Sunday school and Bible class meet at the regular time, 9:45 a. m.

Hutchins To Give Sixth In Series

The sixth in a series of sermons by Howard F. Hutchins, pastor of the Christian church, will be given Sunday morning. The sermon message will be, "Would Christ Recognize His Church Today?" The choir will sing, "Steal Away Home," under the direction of John O'Connor.

Bible school is above the 300 mark with classes for all ages and groups. Youth fellowship in Christian Endeavor will meet at 6:30 p. m. promptly. The evening message will be, "So They Were Mad," the fourth of a series on the prophets of the Old Testament. Mid-week Bible study and prayer meeting on Wednesday will be at 7:30 p. m.

Christian Church Burns To Ground

FOREST GROVE, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Christian church here, built in 1891, went up in flames yesterday. Only some furniture and the books of Pastor J. D. Harden were saved. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

The congregation was offered use of Pacific university or the high school here.

News PTA Notes

JOSEPH CONGER

Founders Day was observed at Joseph Conger school at the regular PTA meeting February 19. The program presented to mothers and members consisted of numbers by the first grade rhythm band, a sketch, "Faith in Our Founders," read by Mrs. Reginald Erskine, and a piano duet, "Autumn Days" by Theresa Borgen of Conger and Sue Ramsby of Fremont schools.

During the business meeting those elected to serve on the nominating committee were Mrs. Dick Masuire, Mrs. M. B. Houser and Mrs. W. S. Easter. Elsie Coine volunteered to serve on the Summer Round-up committee. The room count was won by the first grade.

Refreshments were served later in the cafeteria, where Augusta Parker, principal, and Mrs. Ernest Childers, past president of Conger PTA, presided over a prettily appointed table centered with blue and yellow flowers, the national PTA colors. Mrs. Childers and Mrs. John Weber served on the refreshment committee.

Pelican PTA observed Founders Day and also honored the fathers Wednesday, February 19, at 7:30 p. m. at the school. Mrs. Ryan, president, presided at a short business meeting at which she appointed Mrs. Zeigler, Mrs. Yantis and Mr. Clemens on the nominating committee. The room prize was awarded to Mrs. Lind, seventh grade teacher.

Mr. Clemens, principal, introduced John O'Connor, violinist, who played three beautiful selections accompanied by Mrs. O'Connor. Mrs. Moore donated a home made cake which was auctioned and Mrs. Zeigler had charge of a fish pond which which swelled the treasury to the tune of $55. Refreshments were served by fourth and fifth grade mothers and teachers. The next meeting will be held March 19.

SHASTA

Founders Day was celebrated by the Shasta PTA on February 28 with Mrs. Earl Sheridan as chairman. Mrs. Marion Barker's third grade gave a play about George Washington. Mrs. Margaret Westlin's third grade played three rhythm band numbers. Mrs. Westlin and Mrs. Barker's rooms tied in the room count.

Elton Fishback then spoke about several measures that are before the legislature at the present time.

Mrs. Leon Kitchin asked the PTA to try and get traffic enforcement out on Madison for the protection of the school youngsters, brought about by the many gravel and sand trucks coming from the sand pit at the corner of Madison and Shasta ways.

The nominating committee for the election of officers for the next year are Mrs. Stuart Balsiger, Mrs. Ethel Buckingham, Mrs. Bill Steele and Mr. Fishback.

Two of Shasta's past presidents were present, Mrs. Marvin Shell and Mrs. Ivan Crumpacker. They were presented with blue and gold corsages. Mrs. W. S. Metter, county council president, Mrs. Clifford Golden and Mrs. Jesse Angel (the former Jean Drew) were also honored in the same way.

Five members of the PTA presented a play entitled, "With Faith and Hope," Phoebe Apperson Hurst portrayed by Mrs. Stuart Balsiger; Alice McLellan Bireny, Mrs. Everett Uerling; Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Wallace Uerling; Mrs. Clifford Golden, narrator; Mrs. Ray Bramwell, announcer.

A silver tea was served at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Ivan Crumpacker and Mrs. Marvin Shell presided at the beautifully decorated tea table.

Fairview The Fairview meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Haddock, with the flag salute led by Donald Thompson of the seventh grade. Mrs. Terwilliger's Girl Scout troop sang some songs led by Mrs. Terwilliger which were greatly enjoyed. Robert Banister, art director in the city schools, spoke on the Teen-Age Canteen being taken over by the YMCA which he considers an excellent move. Banister said that if the YMCA does handle the direction of the canteen, the room will be open at 4 o'clock and stay open every night.

of the week all the time. Also the YMCA has the financial help which can give everything to the canteen that individual cannot give. Banister also discussed the student's art work and showed some excellent examples.

A skit put on by some of the mothers of Fairview, beginning with the year 1897, the beginning of Founders Day, was enjoyed. The scenes depicted three ladies of 1897, visiting school on the first day, and also in 1922, and the present day of 1947. Characters were in costume which added color to the skit. Several past presidents were present, Mrs. LaLonde, Mrs. Juniper and Mrs. Shafer, and also Mrs. Fisher who was the first cook at Fairview.

The Camp Fire Girls were on hand to care for children while mothers attended PTA.
