

Lumbermen Fight Tax On Timber

SALEM, Feb. 28 (AP)—The proposed timber tax of 20 cents a thousand feet to provide funds to finance Governor Snell's 10-year $12,000,000 reforestation program was opposed by lumbermen last night at a hearing before the house natural resources and senate forestry committees.

The strongest objections were that one industry should not be taxed to benefit the entire state, and that the tax eventually might be used for purposes other than reforestation. Some witnesses also feared the tax might be increased with each new legislature.

Orville Miller, Portland, official of the Wauna Lumber company, criticized the bill strongly, but he said the committee should recommend it if it can't think of anything better, because some start has to be made in reforestation. He said the tax, however, should affect all citizens, and demanded that the industry be given control of spending the money.

George Gerlinger, Portland, Willamette Valley Lumber company official, said the bill does not carry out the governor's plan, which called for a state corporation to handle reforestation. He also objected that the bill gives too much power to the tax commission.

NEW FIRE CHIEF
SALEM, Feb. 28 (AP)—W. F. Robie, former Spokane, Wash., fire department captain, will become Salem's new fire chief next Monday, City Manager J. L. Franzen announced yesterday.

Robie succeeds Harry H. Hutten, who resigned a year ago.

Two More Chosen For Music Meet

Another name is to be added to the list of those who have been accepted from Klamath Union high school department of music to appear at the Northwest Music Educators conference in Seattle March 19 to 22. Roy Larson, junior student, will be a member of the All-Northwest orchestra. It was announced today by Andrew Loney Jr., director of music education in the city schools.

Music for the chorus, orchestra and band has arrived, Loney said, and groups are starting work this week. Prior to the conference there will be four days of intensive study.

One thousand, one hundred twenty-six American students have attended the University of Oxford, England, as Rhodes scholars.

FAMILY EXPOSED

CHICAGO, Feb. 28 (AP)—A black mongrel dog which wandered into the Warren avenue police station a few days ago made a fuss over Policeman Clarence Hayden, who said he doesn't like dogs.

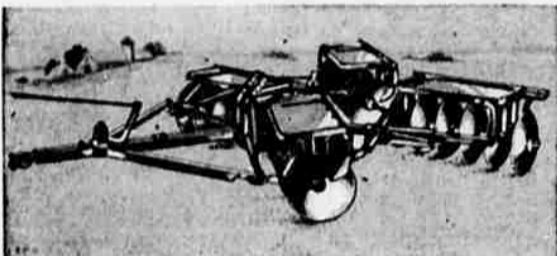

But Hayden soon became the dog's champion although other policemen favored taking her to an animal shelter.

FRIDAY, Feb. 28, 1947. Page Three allowed her the run of the station and fed her. Then he planned to take the dog home.

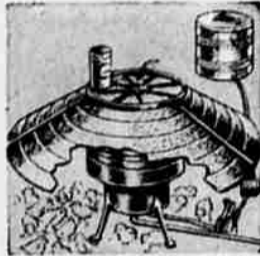

But he changed his plans last night. Police trailed the dog from the station and found she has a family of eight puppies hidden away in a nearby basement.
