Today's Roundup
By MALCOLM EPLEY

THE teacher supply problem here in the coming hiring and contract season promises to be the most critical in years.

Indicative of the seriousness of the situation is the report that 1000 new teachers will be needed in Oregon this year.

The salary situation, of course, is a major factor in the solution of this problem.

A local committee representing the Oregon Education association, a professional organization, has been working with the school boards on the salary question.

The British, strained to the breaking point at home, have nevertheless been fighting to retain their world position.

Several arrived in rented railroad cars, a sad commentary on the compromises that evil income taxes have forced upon us.

It's been quite a British year - just lousy with titles, said one observer versed in Palm Beach lore.

Chiloquin high school's sharpshooting Panthers are another Klamath county team set for a state tournament.

Meanwhile, the Klamath Pelicans have turned in an outstanding season's record and face the Medford Tigers the coming week with excellent chances at winning the district title and the right to go to the state tournament.

The records of these three teams are emphatic indication of the excellence of basketball in these parts in the season of 1946-47.

The World Today
By J. M. ROBERTS JR.

DEVELOPMENTS during the past few days show clearly that relative positions of the United States and Great Britain today are, in the economic field, much the same as they were in the military field six years ago.

The British, strained to the breaking point at home, have nevertheless been fighting to retain their world position.

Several arrived in rented railroad cars, a sad commentary on the compromises that evil income taxes have forced upon us.

It's been quite a British year - just lousy with titles, said one observer versed in Palm Beach lore.

Social Life At Palm Beach Changed By Taxes

By HAL BOYLE
PALM BEACH, Fla., March 1 (AP) - For perhaps the first time since this gold coast resort was founded only one winter resident rode to Palm Beach this year in his own private railroad car.

Several arrived in rented railroad cars, a sad commentary on the compromises that evil income taxes have forced upon us.

Officer's Club Target Of Blast

July when more than 60 persons were killed in the bomb explosion which wrecked the King David hotel.

It was the first major act of violence on the Sabbath day in recent Palestine history.

A Jewish girl receptionist was among those killed.

Scores of hastily organized rescue workers brought out the bodies, and ambulances whizzed through the city.

Windows in the Jewish agency building and for blocks around were broken by the blast, which occurred shortly after 3 p. m. (5 a. m. PST).

The officers' club was built 10 years ago by a Jewish firm, and was under lease to the British army.

It consisted of living quarters for bachelor officers, a lounge, bar and restaurant.

The club is opposite a modern Jewish residential area, part of which was requisitioned by the army a month ago to house British civilian personnel.

Indictment To Be Resubmitted

District Attorney Clarence A. Humble today was granted permission to re-submit to the grand jury the indictment of Richard Carl Shuter, who was supposed to have come to trial in circuit court Monday for malicious destruction of private property.

The jury panel for the case has already been summoned to appear in court Monday morning, but the trial will not be held and the veniremen are released from that summons.

Shuter, a resident of Crescent, is free on $1000 bail. He is accused of damaging a car and other items of property by gunfire last summer in Crescent.
