

Official Visitor Honored At Tea

Grace Cost, supreme queen of the Daughters of the Nile, was entertained by the Klamath Falls chapter at a pretty tea Friday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock in the Pelican party room which highlighted Mrs. Cost's official visit to the local group.

Daffodils and greens decorated the rooms with tapers in the same colors. A special feature was a large, beautifully decorated birthday cake marking the 16th birthday of the group. Pouring were Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett and Mrs. Walter Brown, past presidents. Assisting about the rooms were past presidents, Mrs. George Hillis, Mrs. Carl Steineifer, Mrs. R. P. Ellingson Sr., Mrs. George A. Massey, and Mrs. Gus Anderson. Mrs. W. E. Sherry was also on the committee. Mrs. Steve Moss cut the lovely anniversary cake.

Tea chairman was Mrs. George H. Adler, and Mrs. Dean H. Osborn was in charge of decorations. Mrs. Phillip Cole and Mrs. Leo N. Huls arranged refreshments.

Mrs. Cost is touring the United States, Vancouver and Victoria, and from Klamath Falls will visit Zuleima temple in Ashland. A special ceremonial is planned for March 1 by the Ashland temple. Later next month she will go to Honolulu for an official visit in the islands.

Surprise Party

A surprise birthday party was held on Friday, February 21, in honor of Virginia Maston's 16th birthday anniversary. Scene of the affair was the Clair Smith home on the Lakeview highway. A stocking dance was the event of the evening with awards going to Ben Sheppard and June Wu.

A large red, white and blue birthday cake was cut by the honor guest climaxing the evening's festivities. Guests were Miss Maston, Shirley Maston, Barbara Ramsey, Wilma Blackman, Carmel Adams, June Wu, Carol Stebbins, Betty White, Charlotte Ivory, a week-end guest of the Smiths, Jean Keller, Pat Smith, Virginia Smith, Gene Hill, Russell Scholer, Ben Sheppard, George Smyth, Fred Hess, Clarence Rayson, Clarence Adams, Richard Adams, Harold Balin, Calvin Noble, Vincent Bodner, Archie Rutter, Dale Weber and Billy Short. Mr. Reed of the Henley high school faculty also attended.

New Season

The Klamath Falls Garden club will begin its 1947 season with a meeting planned for 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, March 3, in the club rooms of the city library.

Mrs. George Grizzle, program chairman, has announced that talks on "Birds" will be given by Mrs. H. S. Stone, Mrs. Walter Herndon, Mrs. Walter Larson, Mrs. L. E. Geist and Mrs. Leo N. Huls.

Guest speaker for the afternoon will be Ernest M. Lindsay, assistant county agent. All members are urged to attend by the president, Mrs. Will Wood.

Friends of Mrs. T. Sydney Abbott, formerly of this city and now living at Brookings, will be interested to learn that she has recently been a patient at Knapp hospital in Crescent City, California, for surgery done on her right arm. Mrs. Abbott fell last fall and suffered a severe injury. She entered the hospital last week for additional treatment. She was expected to be back at her home in Brookings this week.

Young Mrs. Hunt is a graduate of Battle Creek high school and of Pine Manor Junior college at Wellesley, Mass. She attended the University of Michigan. Captain Hunt is a graduate of both Oregon State college at Corvallis, Ore., and of the University of Oregon medical school at Portland, Ore. He had his internship and surgical residency at the State of Wisconsin General hospital at Madison, Wis. Now on terminal leave, he was on the medical staff at Percy Jones General hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman entertained for the wedding party Friday evening after the rehearsal at a dinner party in the League room of the Hart hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. Warren C. Hunt and James are expected home late in March and they, too, are having a wonderful trip in the south and plan to visit many of the famous old gardens on the pilgrimages arranged at this time of the year.

Mrs. J. C. Hunt, 70 Pine street, will entertain members of the Art Needlework club Wednesday afternoon, March 5, at 2 o'clock at her home.

MISS LEWIS VISITS FROM TACOMA

Evangeline Lewis of the Annie Wright seminary in Tacoma, Washington, was a visitor in Klamath Falls this week. Miss Lewis called on alumni of the seminary and their families here before leaving on Friday evening for San Francisco.

Mrs. Mel Bakke of Fort Jones, California, visited with friends here this week and was a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Young.

Speaker

Speaking to the League of Women Voters at a luncheon meeting held Wednesday at the Pelican party room, Mrs. V. E. O'Neill told members that the difference between happiness and unhappiness lies in an individual's ability to adjust himself to his environment.

Mrs. O'Neill's talk was presented by the child welfare department which has made a thorough study of educational needs in conjunction with child welfare. Recreation, social hygiene, and mental hygiene are important educational factors in the prevention of delinquency, the league believes.

Mrs. E. A. Geary, in reporting for the foreign policy department, spoke on atomic energy and its possible effects. A study group in foreign policy is being organized with the assistance of Mrs. Harold Palmer.

Mrs. M. P. Leonard explained the joint interim commission plan in 1945 to make a specialized study of child welfare problems in Oregon and briefly discussed the many bills in the state legislature affecting child welfare and the action taken on them by the league.

Entertained

Much informal entertaining is being arranged in compliment to Mrs. Asahel Bush's house guests, Mrs. Prentice Yeomans, daughter of Rep. Rose Poole, Mrs. Martin Ramsby and daughter, Sue, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dutcher, all of Klamath Falls. The first two arrived last week-end and the Dutchers came on Tuesday.

Sunday night Mrs. B. O. Schueking entertained informally at dinner at her country place, Eola Acres, for the visitors. Mrs. Mabel Hargrove was hostess at luncheon at her country home for the visitors on Tuesday and Thursday Mrs. Robert Drager will entertain the Klamath Falls matrons at luncheon at the Normandy Manor. Mrs. Berkeley DeVaul is arranging an informal party for the visitors on Thursday night.—The Salem Statesman.
