Boy Scout News

Troop 2 Thursday, February 27, troop 2 held a regular board of review in preparation for the Court of Honor to be at Merrill some time in March. Candidates were Vernon Pryor, Clarence Moak, Norman Nelson, Harry Lyon, Jack Lyon and Jerry Harty, all second class Scouts, and first class, John Witte. Merit badges were awarded to Douglas Westrom, Don Westrom and John Witte.

One of the most active troops in camping last year, troop 2 plans to expand its 1947 program to include numerous fishing and swimming trips throughout the summer months. Under a new plan worked out by Klamath Lake Moulding, sponsor of the troop, any boy who advances one step in rank between now and July 1, will have one-half of his summer camp fee paid.

Again this year Scouts will be able to work out camp fees, uniforms, camping equipment and so forth.

Sunday, March 2, troop 2 under the leadership of Joe Bliss and Dick Pearson, enjoyed a day of winter sports at Crater Lake national park. An annual winter camping trip will be added to the regular year-round program, it has been decided.

Engaged in mapping out the activity program is a committee composed of Noel Turner as chairman with Bob Simmons, Harold Hurley, Guido Robustelli, Clyde Page and Scout Leaders Bliss and Pearson.

Tulelake Pack 44 Pack 44 with Scoutmaster Roy Coyner, entertained over 100 people with a potluck dinner at the monthly pack meeting held at Tulelake the evening of February 28.

Each of the three dens put on part of the program which included a presentation on great Americans, instrumental numbers and recitations. Bob Lamott, Boy Scout executive, talked to the group on the working theme for the month of March, "The Use of Tools."

New District Leader Bob Lamott left Saturday for Bend to meet Robert Gamage from Seattle, and help him get settled. Gamage is replacing Harold Talley and will serve the district including Deschutes, Crook and Jefferson counties. He will work out of the Klamath Falls office and reside in Bend. Gamage has three and one-half years of experience on the Seattle Scout council staff.

Scout Circus The first annual Lake district Scout circus to be held in the Lakeview high school gymnasium at 8 p. m. Tuesday, March 4, promises to be a huge success, ticket sales indicate. The first run of tickets printed for the occasion have been sold and additional tickets will be off the press Monday.

Ringmaster and circus director will be Merle Lowden, Lake district commissioner. Lowden will be assisted by 15 men and the program will be put on by over 100 boys.

Following the grand entry signaling will be demonstrated and Scouts will build towers and bridges from logs for their audience. Bly Brown will demonstrate camp cookery, making hot biscuits, flapjacks, fried eggs and bacon right in the gym.

Humorous skits taking off the Scout acts as they are performed will be put on by the cubs, providing the comedy of the program.

Leaders of Lake county troops are Scoutmaster Ray Huston for troop 14, Paisley; Hugh Mercer for troop 12, Lakeview; Glenn Gray for troop 13, Lakeview; with Cubmaster "Buck" Elliott; New Pine Creek, troop 40, Scoutmaster Pearl Stewart; and pack 40, Cubmaster Wm. Gooch.

The new Scout troop forming now at Willow Ranch, will be present at the circus as guests but will not participate in the program.

Klamath Chamber To Attend Modoc Resources Meet Klamath chambers of commerce inter-city committee expects to send a large delegation to Alturas the last Wednesday in March for the monthly meeting of the Modoc Council of Natural Resources. Hospitality to Klamath and Lakeview guests will be the major feature of the session of the Modoc group.

Al Hattan, chairman of the chamber's inter-city committee, said local business men interested in going on the Alturas jaunt should notify the chamber of commerce office. Plans for transportation will be made later.

T. C. Parker, assistant superintendent of Crater Lake national park, discussed geology of the park in a talk before the Modoc council meeting at Tulelake Friday night. Vint Lovness company was host at dinner at the Sportsman's hotel.
