New Pine Creek
A number of prominent stockmen interested in the raising of Shorthorn cattle attended the first Oregon Annual Shorthorn show and auction at Prineville last Thursday and Friday, returning on Saturday.
Ernest Robnett and sons, Darwin and Richard, brought home two pedigreed yearlings that are a Shorthorn grower's dream. The top notcher of the two brought more at the auction sale than the grand champion, purchased by Mr. Strieder of Fort Klamath. The Robnett bull which, in the buyer's estimation was by far the most outstanding animal exhibited, brought $900 while the grand champion went for $850. Most of the other bulls went for from $300 to $600.
Charlie Vincent and son Kelton brought home two pedigreed animals also that are mighty fine specimens but have a little more unruly dispositions and not quite as easy to handle. Others attending the sale were Lee Perry and L. S. Pederson of Fort Bidwell.

The purchasers are proud of their new young sires and feel that their herds will soon be greatly enhanced by the new blood. The Robnett $900 bull was sired in Scotland and thus coming from the best of the Scottish pure-blood herds.
The sale was well attended by stockmen from all over Oregon and the principal speaker at the big banquet held on Friday evening was president of the Shorthorn Cattlemen's association from Chicago. He had attended the main stock show in St. Louis, Chicago and other points in the past year and he said that the Shorthorn stock was carrying away all of the blue ribbons at these big shows. The sale was sponsored by the Shorthorn Cattlemen's association of Oregon.
The Happy Hour club met March 4th with hostess Fannie Fisher and 18 members and 5 children were present. Guests were Fairy Hammersley, Corda Perry, Myra Robnett, and Georgia Vincent. Mrs. Alma McLain received her birthday gift from her secret pal.
A feature of the meeting was a pink and blue shower for Mrs. Maxine Robnett. Refreshments were chicken patties, stuffed celery, olives and coffee. The next hostess is Mrs. Thelma Gooch on March 18th.
A big surprise birthday party was held for Miss Leona Robnett last Friday at her home. There were 21 present and a lot of old-fashioned fun playing games, etc., was thoroughly enjoyed by those present. Many lovely gifts were presented to Leona. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served at the close of the party. Those present were Miss Barbara Bates of Lakeview, who was an over-night guest of Susan Faris; Helen Sanford, Betty Vincent, Eugene Ross, Kenneth Butler, Richard Robnett, Jo Anne Harris, Lorna Blunt, Dorothy, Mae and Elizabeth Benefiel, La Donna Newman, Shirley and Opal Turpin, Mary and Frances Hallinan, Pearl Newman, Mildred McLain, Susan Jane Faris, Nelda Thompson and Leeta Perry.
There was a well attended farm bureau banquet with business meeting following held at the Grange hall last Tuesday evening.
Several from here attended the Boy Scout circus held in Lakeview last Tuesday evening.
The youth meeting was held last Tuesday evening in the Modern Woodman hall as the Grange hall was being used by the farm bureau meeting. There were eighteen young people present. Refreshments of sandwiches and salads and cocoa were served after the business meeting, then an hour of singing and dancing took place. The club is having some trouble choosing an appropriate name. By way of suggestion it might be a lot of sport to get up a name contest and the one submitting the most acceptable name by vote would receive a prize. For decorating purposes the colors of green and white were chosen by the group.
Carmen Fleming attended a stockmen's association meeting down at Redding last week, Thursday and Friday. There were about 200 present at the banquet held Friday evening, he said.
Most everyone seemed very pleased to have a nice six-inch blanket of wet snow on the ground last Monday morning and about another two inches on Tuesday morning. With the threat of a dry spring, and summer this moisture has been greatly appreciated by the farmers especially and everyone indirectly. Although the storm laid a blanket of snow over twice as thick in Lakeview where 16 to 18 inches was reported on the level, there is no doubt but what the high mountains of the Warner range got two to three feet of new wet snow. It seems the storm hit heaviest in the Crooked creek and Lakeview area since only four inches was reported at Sugar Hill and only a light skiff at Alturas.

Babe Blurton returned last week-end to attend to some business matters and will be here for a week or two before returning to San Francisco for his wife, Zella, who is out of the hospital there and seems to be recovering in health. They will be up later for the summer.
Alvin Butler has installed a new refrigerated meat show case in his market and also a cold box for frozen foods, packaged ice cream and bars, which addition dresses his store up appreciably and modernizes his food service.
