Stocks Seek Lower Levels

NEW YORK, March 8 (AP)—Selected stocks attracted support in today's market on the idea Friday's sharpest relapse in four months had been overdone, but many leaders continued to see losing territory.

The list negotiated a series of dips and rallies after a fairly fast opening. Activity, however, generally was on the downside. While modest plus signs held here and there near the close, declines of fractions to a point or more were widespread. Transfers for the two-hour session ran to around 700,000 shares.

In the resistant area were International Harvester, Du Pont, General Electric, Westinghouse, Anaconda, Kennecott and N. Y. Central.

Laggards included U. S. Steel, Chrysler, Goodyear, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, Woolworth, Boeing, American Telephone, Allied Chemical, American Smelting, Western Union "A," North American, Union Carbide, Eastman Kodak, U. S. Gypsum, Pennsylvania railroad, Southern Pacific and Southern railway.

Commodities mostly were higher and bonds inclined to give ground.

Backward in the curb were Burry Biscuit, American Republics, Mesabi Iron and U. S. and International Securities.

Grain Shows Strong Gains

CHICAGO, March 8 (AP)—All grains advanced in a strong market on the board of trade today, responding to a boost in the government buying price for flour and higher cash markets.

March wheat went to a new 27-year high and March oats reached its 27-year peak. All deferred contracts of wheat and corn established new seasonal highs.

Spurring the upturn was announcement that overnight the production and marketing administration had advanced its price for "enriched" flour by 40 cents a hundred pound sack. The new level is $6.40 a sack at gulf ports.

Wheat closed 2¼-4½ higher, March 2.64, corn was 1¼-2¼ higher, March $1.63¼-½, and oats ¾-1½ higher, March 97¾-⅞.

Export Wheat Price Soars

PORTLAND, March 8 (AP)—Ordinary export wheat rose 16 cents a bushel on the Portland market this week, reflecting the full advance in eastern futures.

The department of agriculture's weekly grain review said this was the first time local markets upped prices as much as eastern futures' advances. The largest local boost was in local hard red winter wheat, which rose 17 to 19 cents.

The market became more active during the week, the grain review said, although mills continued taking only certain types of wheat for immediate use.

Milling interests in the midwest and southwest showed strong interest, with some wheat going to Duluth, Minn., for shipment eastward.

Receipts declined—344 cars at Columbia river terminals, and 368 at Puget Sound terminals.
