Police Report Minor Thefts

A series of car prowlings were reported to city police Tuesday and Wednesday.

The first call came from E. A. Menlino of Seattle, Wash., who said that he was parked on Second street by the Willard hotel Tuesday night and someone broke into his car to steal two overcoats.

A short time later, O. A. McCord, 444 Crosby, reported his car, parked on 4th and Pine, had been prowled and a pair of coveralls and some tools taken.

Wednesday afternoon a call came from the Winema hotel that a prowler had broken into the car of a patron which was parked in the hotel's parking lot. A blanket and a flashlight were taken.

Howard O. Dodson, 34, 2698 Eberlein, was picked up for permitting more than three persons in the front seat of a car, and Annie Barnett, 3334 Crosby, was cited to appear in police court for violation of the basic rule.

Three drunks, three drunk and disorderlies and one vagrant spent the night in jail.

Stock Market Has Low Day

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP)—Cautious stock market operations, stemming from uncertainties surrounding the administration's new foreign program, today brought one of the lowest sessions of the past year although prices generally were on the upside. While declines were plentiful, plus marks predominated near the close. Transfers tapered to around 650,000 shares.

Rising inclinations were exhibited by Santa Fe, Pennsylvania Railroad, Atlantic Coast Line, Pullman, Virginia-Carolina Chemical common and preferred, Montgomery Ward, Douglas Aircraft, Boeing, U. S. Gypsum, Eastman Kodak, Owens, Illinois, Sunray Oil, Goodyear and American Smelting.

Hesitant were Bethlehem, Chesapeake & Ohio, U. S. Rubber, Woolworth, Consolidated Edison, General Electric and Johns-Manville.

Bonds were narrow and quiet.
