

Rites Solemnized Sunday Afternoon

In a Sunday afternoon ceremony read at the First Methodist church at 2 o'clock, March 9, Dorothy Jennings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Jennings, exchanged vows with Vernon Tuter, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Tuter, all of Klamath Falls. The Rev. Victor Phillips read the double ring rites before an altar banked with calla lilies, white carnations and palms, with tapers illuminating the church.

Mrs. John O'Connor played traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Robert Craig, who sang "Always" and "Because" as guests gathered.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a princess gown of white satin with Victorian-type shoulder line and a net yoke ending in a lace ruffle. A seed pearl crown secured her fingertip veil. Her arm bouquet was of white carnations and Tailsman roses.

Maid of honor was Evangeline Landers, sister of the groom, who wore a gown of pastel blue with bouffant net skirt. In her hair she wore a cap of white net. She carried a Colonial bouquet of small spring flowers.

Bridesmaid was Betty Jennings, sister of the bride, who wore a frock of light green similar to that of the maid of honor. Her small cap and bouquet also matched that of the maid of honor.

Best man was Jim Brown, and Rollin Tuter, brother of the groom, and Dave Gifford were ushers and lighted tapers before the service.

At the reception which followed the ceremony, the bride and groom cut the first slice of their decorated wedding cake which was served by Mrs. Ada Knauss, grandmother of the bride. Pouring were Mrs. Melvin Vanderhoff and Mrs. A. R. Stump.

Soon after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Tuter left for a honeymoon trip in Oakland and other points in the bay area. They are expected to return next week and will make their home here.
