

Chiloquin

Crab feeds in Klamath Falls called Mr. and Mrs. Fred Markward to the Shrine club on Wednesday night, and Ted Markward and Cyril Cook to the Elks club the following evening. Bad luck dogged the footsteps of Dean Greaser and Dick Flury when they attempted the trip to Klamath. Car trouble forced them to call a halt at Redmond and the boys returned home by bus. And speaking of Arlington, several cars made the return trip by way of Portland and the Willamette highway to finish out the week-end. Coach Miller, Wilbur Ferguson and Willard Hull were the drivers.

Mrs. Fred Gehring, her son and daughter Lowell and Ruby, were Sunday visitors from Klamath Falls. They had with them Mrs. Gehring's nephew from North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pope, Stephen and Linda left on Thursday for a week's trip along the California coast. They will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hawkins of Hollister before they return to their Wood River valley ranch.

George Courtright has resigned his position as teacher in the Chiloquin high school. He plans to leave in May for the east coast and from there to London and the continent. He plans to stay in France for several months if he finds living conditions to his liking.

Father Ahearne is another local resident planning a trip abroad this summer. He will leave the middle of May for England and Ireland where he will visit with relatives until his return in October.

Members of the Open Bible Standard church attended the water baptismal services at the Klamath temple on Friday evening at which time Mrs. Heglund, Colleen Ray, Mariene Johnson, David Lundeen, Dick and Dale Barnes were baptized.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Humphries, evangelists, were overnight guests at the home of Rev. E. W. Johnson on Monday evening after the completion of their services at Sprague River. Their next stop will be Lowell, Ore.

Mrs. E. W. Johnson has spent the last week in Klamath Falls caring for her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ed Turner, who has a new little daughter, Janice.

Mrs. Ella Bryant of Myrtle Point, Ore., arrived last Friday to visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Parker. Parker is head of the Klamath Agency irrigation project.

There will be a big juvenile grange basket social following the regular grange meeting this Saturday evening, March 15, for grange members and parents of all juvenile grange members. Baskets will sell at $1 each regardless of size, shape, design or beauty. So gents bring your dollars and take your chances for the one guarantee is you'll have plenty to eat.

The purpose of the social is to help defray the expenses of the recent purchase of a piano for the juveniles. They are fast becoming more active and the meetings are getting better all the while. At the last meeting a "Zipper" drawing contest was held. The best picture from the group will go on the front page cover of "Zipper," the state juvenile grange paper.

Barbara Hammersley won first prize with a picture of an old hen with baby chicks. Barbara Fisher won second with an Easter rabbit scene and Anne Hammersley won third with an Easter scene also.

Mrs. Fannie Fisher, who is matron of the youngsters, has recently appointed Lydia Bishop as first assistant. Other assistants appointed to bolster up the work of the organization are as follows: Mrs. Hazel Sanford, Mrs. Fairy Hammersley, Mrs. Thelma Butler and Raymond Fisher.

A special program is being prepared by the leaders to be put on at a regular grange meeting sometime in the near future.

The Home Economics club met last Thursday afternoon with 16 members present and one guest, Mrs. Frankie Williams, who joined the club at the meeting. The afternoon was spent working on quilt blocks. Delicious refreshments of apple pie a la mode and coffee was served by the hostess, Jackie O'Neil. Mrs. Allie Hammersley will be the next hostess on March 13.

Earle Jones and Glessner Blunt spent the week-end with their families here, returning on Monday to their work of gyptimber-felling near Toledo, Wash.

At the regular meeting of the grange this Saturday evening the matter of supporting a new memorial building for the vets will be discussed. Considerable interest has been worked up as to just how the grange will vote on this matter as the proposal is reported to be meeting with some opposition among the heavier taxpayers.

The East Side Youth club met last Tuesday evening with a good turnout present. Among other matters the group struggled in vain to name itself but as an agreement was not reached ley and Beryl Webb, Jim, Don and "Wiggy" Compagne, as well as the two young guests of honor. On Friday evening, March 14, a smoker sponsored by Chiloquin high school will be given at the school gymnasium under the direction of Woody Joe. A small admission will be charged and the public is invited to attend. Competition for the Chiloquin lightweights will be given by Sprague River students.

Hallie Mathis returned on Monday night from three months spent in Stockton and Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Blocklinger returned Wednesday from a short trip to San Francisco.

Deafened Now Hear With Tiny Single Unit
Science has now made it possible for the deafened to hear faint sounds. It is a hearing device so small that it fits in the hand and enables thousands to enjoy sermons, music and friendly companionship. Accepted by the Council on Physical Medicine of the American Medical Association. This device does not require separate battery pack, battery wire, case or garment to bulge or weigh you down. The tone is clear and powerful. So made that you can adjust it yourself to suit your hearing as your hearing changes. The makers of Bel-tone, Dept. 6113, 1450 W. 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill., are so proud of their achievement that they will gladly send free descriptive booklet and explain how you may get a full demonstration of this remarkable hearing device in your own home without risking a penny. Write Bel-tone today.

the naming was postponed until the next meeting night. Refreshments of pop and gingerbread with whipped-cream was served after the meeting. Miss Jean Harrison of Lakeview was a guest at the meeting and also an over-night guest. Miss Susan Faris.

The Willow Ranch mill closed down last Monday for a couple of weeks so needed repair work can be done on the plant. However the company has two planers and these will continue to operate. Some of the employees with the least seniority were temporarily laid off but most of the crew will be employed for the repair work, it was learned through responsible sources.

Fort Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Cary V. Loosley have just returned to Fort Klamath after an absence of several years, during most of which time Loosley was engaged in government work, later entering the real estate business in Portland before coming back to Fort Klamath.

Mrs. Vernon Wimer left Saturday via plane from Klamath Falls with her infant son, for a visit with relatives in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McQuiston and Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Nicholson have returned from a very enjoyable trip in San Francisco.

Mrs. Sarah Stocum has returned to Fort Klamath after spending the winter in California with her daughter and family. She makes her home here with her brother, William Lambert, and came here last week by plane from San Francisco.

Due to the fine response to the local Red Cross drive for funds and membership, Fort Klamath has gone over its quota of $150, and the sum given is now over $200 with prospects of more to be turned in. Mrs. Elmer Zumburn, assisted by Mrs. Henry Orth, are in charge of the local drive for funds and are to be congratulated on their fine success.

Win Brewster is reported to be on the sick list this week, and is confined to his home here.
