Child Hurt In Accident

Paul Munson, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sverre Munson, 1345 Sargent, suffered injuries at 5:30 p. m. Tuesday when he ran into a car operated by Charles McCandless, 1115 Donald, and was moved to Hillside hospital for treatment.

The child was unconscious for a short time and will be in bed for several days but his condition was improved today and he returned home from the hospital. He has a bad bump on the head but no fractured bones. According to the city police report, Paul was playing with a group of children when he ran into the street, looking back at his playmates and failing to see the oncoming car. The accident occurred 150 feet north of Upham on Worden. McCandless was absolved by investigating police.

Teachers Attend Annual Convention

Many Klamath county teachers will attend the 44th annual convention of the Oregon Education association in Portland on April 7 and 8, according to Eva Burchhalter, president of the Klamath county division of the state association.

The event is the largest annual gathering of Oregon teachers and is Portland's biggest annual convention. General session attendance is expected to exceed 2500.

Mrs. Pearl A. Wamaker, president of the National Education association, will be one of the principal convention speakers. She is widely known for her recent activities with the United Nations education, scientific and cultural organization and is Washington state superintendent of public instruction.

Game Violation Brings Fine

MEDFORD, March 19 (P)—Two men were fined and sentenced to jail here yesterday on a charge of possessing deer meat out of season, and a third person was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Walter C. Summers, 41, and a nephew, Orrin D. Summers, 18, were fined $150 each and sentenced to 30 days in jail. Another nephew, Donald G. Summers, 13, was turned over to juvenile authorities. The three were arrested near Modoc orchard Sunday.

LOGGER DIES

HILLSBORO, March 19 (P)—An attempt to jump on a moving logging truck yesterday cost the life of Walter Frank Ruggsegger, 22, North Plains logger. He slipped and was crushed under the truck's wheels.

RUMORS ARE FLYING

that I have disbanded my orchestra and given up the dance business. These rumors are unfounded and we have a number of dances booked for March, April and May. We still have a number of dates open (including Saturday nights) during these months and we are prepared to furnish the best in dance music from six to eleven pieces. Please call me at phone 5611 or write me at 2044 Vine St., for prices.

Vandenberg Goes To Burns Court

Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg has been assigned to preside over the court of Harney county in Burns Saturday, according to instructions from the state supreme court.

There are no cases on the Klamath circuit court docket for that day. The trial of Verne L. Wagner, Klamath Falls police officer on charges of assault, armed with a dangerous weapon, which was reported yesterday to be set for Monday morning, should have read Tuesday morning.

Willard Hotel Redecorated

The complete re-decoration job under way in the Willard hotel reached the lobby this week, and brighter colors there gave the room an impression of added expanse.

Manager Gene Larsen said that the painters had worked through the entire building. Individual rooms have been decorated in varying colors. The banquet room at the center of the building is to receive acoustical treatment as well as a new decorative scheme.

Improving—Mrs. L. A. Blake, 1313 Lookout, is recovering from major surgery at Klamath Valley hospital.
