Pelicana On Air Again

Poe Valley - Olene
 One of the largest meetings of the year for the Poe Valley-Olene home extension unit was held at the home of Mrs. Francis Freuer in Poe Valley Friday, March 14. There were 25 members and one guest present. The project was "Grace at the Table" and the leaders were Mrs. John Abraham and Mrs. O. L. Brown. This meeting dealt with the proper table setting and table serving. Mrs. Forrest Breithaupt and Mrs. Wilbur Relling demonstrated spring table decorations consisting of bouquets of violets, hyacinths and daffodils.

Mrs. Freuer presented pictures and read letters from England and was also in charge of the entertainment program which consisted of guessing games for St. Patrick's Day. The total collection from this unit toward the Azalea House fund at Corvallis is now $25. The next meeting will be at the Olene community hall the first Friday in April and will be "Clean As You Go," with Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen as leader. The units adjourned with an appreciative vote of thanks to all leaders who so adequately conducted the meeting.

Modoc Point
 "Good Grace At the Dining Table" was the demonstration given by the project leaders, Mrs. William Heckman and Mrs. William Helm, Thursday at the Heckman home. Several flower arrangements were made using manzanita and a centerpiece of daffodils and blue candles in a blue glass console set was made by Mrs. Robert Lee and Mrs. Heckman.

Following the lunch hour the business meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Heckman. Mrs. William Bickers, Mrs. Nellie Ellis and Mrs. Robert Lee were appointed on the nominating committee. The group voted to subscribe to "The Country Woman" for next year and a donation for Pennies for Friendship was taken. Mrs. Bickers reported on the recent successful card party sponsored by the unit, proceeds of which are to be sent in to the building fund for the erection of Azalea House at Corvallis. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bickers April 10, when Mrs. Gillen will demonstrate "Clean As You Go."

Klamath Falls
 The Klamath Falls home extension unit met at the Klamath Lutheran church on Crescent Avenue on Wednesday. The project was "Good Taste at the Dining Table." Potluck luncheon was served at noon.

Bonanza
 The Bonanza extension unit held its regular meeting March 11 at 10:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Harry Frazier who opened the meeting with a flower quiz, won by Mrs. Edmund Gowen. She then gave a lesson of flower arrangement using a low white bowl and combining pussy willows and two shades of yellow daffodils as a luncheon table centerpiece.

Mrs. Frazier and Mrs. Dewey Horn then took charge with their demonstration, "Good Taste at the Dining Table," showing the table setting and service. After luncheon they continued their discussion on china and glassware and silverware for a few minutes.

Mrs. Schmor then took charge of the business meeting where plans were discussed for the next meeting. Mrs. Schmor appointed a nominating committee of Mrs. Gowen, Mrs. Dewey Horn and Mrs. Mary Dearborn to report at the next meeting. There were 16 women and four children present. The group adjourned to meet April 8 at 10:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. William Sparks.

The Shasta-Homedale extension unit will meet at 10:30 a. m. Friday at the home of Mrs. H. R. Woodard, 3219 Homedale. Mrs. H. S. Sweeney and Mrs. H. R.

Beginning tonight, Wednesday at 7:45, Pelicana, a RASP release of Klamath Union high school, will again be heard every week by direct wire from the KUHS auditorium over station KFLW.

These broadcasts are projects of the radio workshop where students receive training in the fundamentals of radio broadcasting. There are 1000 free seats available to the public each Wednesday, and the broadcasts will be augmented by an additional talent program after the shows go off the air. Chuck Woodhouse supervises RASP activities.

Woodard will demonstrate "Good Grace at the Dining Table." All attending are asked to bring their own table service.
